

LARGE PER CENT OF CLASS OF '45 CONTINUES EDUCATION

Carolina Heads the List of Students' Choices

Sixty-four of the sixty-eight girls who graduated from the College Department of Saint Mary's on June 3, 1945, are continuing their education at other schools and colleges. Three conditional seniors are likewise continuing their education, thus bringing the total to sixty-seven girls. This is a very unusual fact for so large a class of girls. The University of North Carolina heads the list of choices, but many other schools and colleges are represented.

Those girls going to U.N.C. are: Frances Avera, Ann Brundage, Betsy London Cordon, Ann Cutts, Helen Davis, Jane Divers, Annette Fulton, Ruth Gay, Mary Tom Gilman, Sibyl Goerch, Bobby Jean Hardy, Mary Louise Harris, Gwen Hughes, Caroline Long, Bettie Kendrick, Margaret M. Martin, Peggy Moran, Marcia McMillan, Mildred Parker, Sallie Robertson, Jean Sullivan, Virginia Wilson, Jean Huske, Katherine Lane, Carrie Mae Wade, and Eleanor Thomas.

Girls attending Duke University are: Luzette Callum, Mary Randolph Gardner, Ann Edmunds, Billye Pope, Margaret Rodwell, and Mary Arden Tucker.

Saint Mary's graduates who went to Randolph-Macon are: Mary C. Bowers, Kate Broadfoot, and Lucy Seaman.

Representing Saint Mary's at Sweet Briar is Maria Gregory.

Those girls going to Salem are: Sara Coe Hunsucker, Ruth Hayes, and Sue Moore.

Girls attending Hollins are: Anna Margaret Moomaw, Isabel Robinson, Maybelle Smith, and Stuart Verdery.

Saint Mary's graduates who chose the Woman's College are: Sarah Stewart and Marguerite Thompson.

Representing Saint Mary's at the University of Georgia are: Susan Caldwell, Jean Conover, and Lucy Harvey.

Those girls going to the University of South Carolina are: Betty Lou Hood, Sidney Jones, and Martha Parker.

Girls attending Katherine Gibbs in New York are: Carolyn Holland and Josie Barnes White.

Saint Mary's graduates who are attending Northwestern are: Phyllis Cowdery and Sylvia Rogers.

Other schools and colleges represented by Saint Mary's graduates are: Mary Dickey, Georgetown University; Betsy Durham, Wayne University; Mary Holmes, Sophie Newcomb; Jane Peete, Vassar; Martha Stoney, University of Alabama; Florence Tyler, Westhampton; Frances Wollet, Wake Forest; Clarice Woolard, Meredith.

Forty-nine Students Comprise Entire Senior Class

The senior class of '46, with a total of 49 students, four of whom are day students, is one of the smallest in several years. Some of last year's juniors transferred to other schools, some are working, and some got married. Mildred Chappell from Richmond, Virginia, is president of the class of '46. The other officers to be elected soon are vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and chairman of the legislative body.

In contrast, the junior class is about normal size. There are 67 full juniors and 37 conditional juniors, with 16 day students. To be elected from the juniors are: president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, five dance marshals, two honor council members, and two representatives to the legislative body.

There are 49 full sophomores and four conditional sophomores, with a total of six day students. The freshman class has a total of 44 full freshmen, seventeen of whom are day students. There are seventeen sub-freshmen including three day students. To be elected from each of these classes are presidents, vice-presidents, secretaries, treasurers, dance marshals, and legislative body representatives.

LIKE POETRY?

We are the songs that were never sung,

Pictures that never will be;

We are the ghosts of the stately ships
That never will sail the sea.

We are the wraiths of a million babes

That will never, never be born,
And we are the shadowy whispering rows

Of unplanted fields of corn.

We are the thousand glorious things
That "living" hands would have done—

"But we perished there on the battlefield,

Between a sun and a sun."

WHERE TO GO AND WHERE TO FIND ET CETERA

Where to go for what? That's one of the big problems confronting the new girls. Where to buy clothes, furniture for your room, and curtains?

There are several places for this sort of shopping. . . Taylor's, Boylan-Pearce, and Hudson-Belk. The Mother and Daughter Store is good for accessories and clothing. There are three principal shoe-stores patronized by the Saint Mary's girls, Adler's, Pollock's, and Brittain's.

Where to eat? The Sir Walter Coffee Shop, the California, and the Tally-Ho, which is on the second floor of the building across from

FINE MOVIE PROJECTOR IS DONATED TO SAINT MARY'S SCHOOL

Visual Education to Be Used In Classes This Year

This year Saint Mary's has a movie projector which will be used extensively for the entertainment and instructions of the students. Last Sunday night Saint Mary's attended the first feature movie ever to be given on the campus. A comedy, a newsreel, "The Surrender of Japan," and the film, "Becky Sharp" was shown to a large audience of faculty and students. This new feature of the school's social life was claimed a tremendous success.

On Saturday night, weekly or bi-weekly, there will be shown in the auditorium a full-length film, a newsreel, and a comedy. In this way the students at Saint Mary's may enjoy the opportunities of town amusements without leaving the campus.

Mainly, however, this projector will be employed in classroom instruction. These classes will be held in the auditorium, thus affording the students, particularly those of history and science, the advantages of the most up-to-date information in their field.

TWENTY STATES ARE REPRESENTED IN SAINT MARY'S STUDENT BODY

This year there are 20 different states represented at Saint Mary's. From the west, California, Texas, and Oklahoma each have one girl respectively. From the deep south Florida has ten, Alabama six, Georgia eight, Kentucky two, and Louisiana one.

The Yankee states also have a good showing this year. New York, Rhode Island, Ohio, Connecticut, and Massachusetts are all represented by one girl, while Pennsylvania sent three.

The largest group of girls hail from the Middle Atlantic states. West Virginia has four, Virginia 28, Tennessee three, South Carolina one, and 186 come from North Carolina.

Walgreen's, are good restaurants. The S & W is good if you want cafeteria service. If it's school supplies you are looking for, it's Thiem's or Alfred Williams'. Stephenson's and Thiem's also have record selections.

For amusements there are several theaters, the Ambassador, the State, the Wake, the Capitol, and the Palace. The Ambassador usually has the "first run" pictures.

Our haunt for the best sweets you ever tasted is Royster's, and for that last sundae before going back to school, Brantley's is the place. If you have any further questions about where to find things, ask an old girl.
