YOUR CONTRIBUTION—YOU

A month has gone by since students arrived at Saint Mary's. They have learned the rules and regulations and all the old traditions here. Now the new students are well adjusted and therefore are expected to contribute to the well-being of everyone. Through handbook classes important regulations were stressed, and students must learn to respect and live by them. At first it seemed hard to live by bells, have to ask permission for each outing, after being comparatively independent at home. But there must be rules in a well organized school like Saint Mary's.

Studying also has been hard on those not used to long assignments. We must realize that there is bound to be a big jump between high school and college. By really studying hard, these obstacles can be removed. There has been much complaining about how hard all the lessons are, but if those complainers would sit down and study instead of complaining, they would find much more could be accomplished. This is something to think about.

STRIKES—FOR HOW LONG?

Facing not only the United States but the whole world today is the problem of the strike situation. In England as well as this country the issue appears to become worse as time passes. Of course, the most important reason for making sure that the strikes are settled properly is that, if not, they will be repeated again and again until the governments of the nations finally force the solutions.

There are two sides to the strike crisis. The employees want higher wages for less working hours. They feel that the higher wages they received during the war should be continued. Maybe this point of view is correct; and yet if some employees are given higher pay, then it is only fair to raise the wages of all workers. This may only lead to inflation and depression. Most assured-

MILDRED CHAPPELL

Home—Richmond, Virginia.
Age—19.
Ambition—to have a lot of spare time.
Hair 'n' eyes—brown 'n' brown.
Pet hate—"Sitters."
Spends spare time—gabbling.
Is wild about—"Him."
Worst fault—making faces.
Hobby—swimming.
Always seen—playing.
Favorite expression—I'm so excited!
Always heard—yes . . . always heard!

Favorite perfume—Old Spice.
Favorite article of clothing—tan gabardine suit.
Favorite food—scalloped potatoes—browned.
Favorite song—Warsaw Concerto.
Odd likes—smell of bus exhaust; concerts.
Pet passion—chocolate candy.
Offices, clubs, etc.—President of senior class; president of Y. W. C. A.; Hall Council; Orchesis; swimming club; swimming assistant.

Remarks: "Millie" is the gal with the cute, short, wavy hair and the turned-up nose. You'll see her always excited because either she's just gotten a letter from that fascinating new civilian or a new idea for the "Y." Her ambition underneath it all is to get married (we heard you in class the other day, Mill!) and we know she'll be a success! Those long sweaters and that Virginian dialect identify the senior class president anywhere.

MARTHA CONGER

Home—Edenton, N. C.
Age—17.
Ambition—to keep the cookie jar full.
Hair 'n' eyes—brown 'n' blue.
Pet hate—empty mail box.
Spends spare time—wasting it.
Is wild about—Nag's Head.
Hobby—What?
Always seen—with Norfleet.
Favorite expression—Really Witty!
Always heard—Is that the phone?
Favorite article of clothing—ole ly, to grant their requests would lead to future strikes for further increased pay which would send the prices of goods soaring. We already have a small sample of what high prices are, and if possible higher ones must not be allowed.

This strike situation must be settled as soon as possible. The effects from it reach through the whole world. The peoples of the nations will consider the war just ended unless if a suitable agreement cannot be found between the workers and the government contending with them, an agreement which, if it does not completely satisfy both sides, at least shows that the rights of all have been considered and a fair compromise reached.

gray suit.
Favorite perfume—"Tweed."
Favorite food—pie a la mode.
Favorite song—This Is No Laughing Matter.
Odd likes—onion sandwiches and that guy from Carolina!
Clubs, offices—Canterbury Council, Granddaughters' Club, Publications, president of the junior class.
Remarks: "We want Conga!" was the familiar call around the campus a few weeks ago, meaning Martha. She's the gal who's always going some place in a terrific hurry—and it's usually Carolina. With a short, brown curl dangling on her forehead she does things and in the right way!

HELEN EPPES

Home—Henderson, N. C.
Age—16.
Ambition—to pass everything.
Hair 'n' eyes—brown 'n' brown.
Pet hate—dark, rainy days.
Spends spare time—writing letters.
Is wild about—T. Dorsey records.
Hobby—driving.
Always seen—eatin'.
Favorite expression—"Braggin' or Complainin'?"
Always heard—I've got so-o-o much to do!
Favorite article of clothing—shoes.
Favorite food—pineapple upside-down cake.
Favorite perfume—"Blue Grass."
Favorite song—Where or When.
Odd likes—Men!
Favorite book—"Gone with the Wind."

Clubs and offices—Granddaughters' Club; Woman's Auxiliary; Belles' staff; business staff of Stage Coach; president of the sophomore class.

Remarks: Helen's that tall brunette from second West Rock. She's wild about T. Dorsey records, food, and "The Lake." Her smile and gay air wins everyone's praise, but don't let that fool you into thinking she's just a "play girl." Behind it all is energy and ability to get things done!

Saints' Sallies

It's the week-end again and the whirl begins. Girls are left hurriedly, off to see that one or only. Men will be on the call again, or maybe there's a football game and Mr. Hughes is taking a crowd. Anyway, it's those week-ends we hear about.

There was plenty of talk at the girl-break last Saturday. Hope Duke's brother was here. He got about the biggest ruse on the floor. Close behind for the title of "Popular Man" was Helen's date. All those Beach fans say the beach's famous character" was quite a rush Saturday night. Ger and Lib Clinard were taining Chapel Hill boys this week-end. Nancy O'Keefe's blind date was really a big success; and from what we hear good dancer too. O'Keefe had plans for this week-end! Goodwyn was dating "G." win these days?

Sallie and Jane had a big at Poncie's in Cramerton week-end. No doubt you all that excitement Sunday—that was Martha returning the beach, and what a trip was complete with ensigns airplanes. We heard that Hamilton had a heavy date day. She went to meet "his" ily. We heard that Ann thro also had a big date day. Those who room near Wilson say she's waiting very important letter from Point.

Duke and Wake Forest away lots of our girls the week-end. Nancy Hannah, Allison, Sue Everett, and Elizabeth Kittrell can't stop ing about the fun they had dances at Wake Forest. had a wonderful time at Duke

Have you seen those beautiful army wings that Dot Leak Estelle got an album of lanetz records this week-end somebody special! Dot telle are two lucky girls.

"Coop's" flying home with Champs this week-end.

Peggy Swindell, Marty and Conger seemed to enjoy State vs. V.M.I. game much. Wonder why?

Green's going home with fleet this week-end. Carolina for a few days, you know.

Betsy Siler's call to "That" nearly broke the hall trying pay for it. Was it worth it, "Beau" Welsh and Ann just discovered interests together in the Philippines.

Price is expecting some one from Burma just any day now. It's rumored that the Cadets certainly like Saint Mary's. How about this, Whetstone? Ruth Clark smiles Saturday, and no the O.A.O. was in town. Loyd's face looked like happiness itself last week-end. Of it could be because a certain was here to see her.
