WE ARE THE LOSERS

Dorothy Maynor, a Negro soprano second only to Marion Anderson, presented a concert in Raleigh Saturday night. Twenty girls from Saint Mary's attended. This was considered one of the most remarkable concerts ever presented here, and people of Raleigh have been speaking of Miss Maynor's voice, since they heard her Saturday night, as one of the most magnificent they have ever heard.

The question we would like to ask is why there were only twenty Saint Mary's girls present? It is granted that the concert was on Saturday night and that many of the girls were away from school, but we believe that there should have been a larger percentage of those who were left attending. There were notices on the bulletin boards to remind us that this was something we could not afford to miss, but they seem on the whole to have been overlooked. We say that we would enjoy concerts more if they were not required and we could decide for ourselves whether we wanted to attend. Saturday night was an excellent example of our decisions along that line.

There was also the question of attending concerts with dates. Surely this is a more constructive way to spend an evening than the movies, though concerts do last a little longer. It seems that this sort of entertainment should be encouraged as much as possible.

We do not care to even think that we, as college students, would let prejudice blind us to talent and greatness. Are we lacking in tolerance or merely in appreciation of good music?

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

DEAR GIRLS:

I want to thank you both for the most excellent job you did in connection with the United War Fund

“ “ “ “ BELLES ” ” ” ”

ANN WICKER

Home—Tarboro, N. C.
Age—16.
Ambition—to pass something.
Hair 'n' eyes—brown 'n' brown.
Pet hate—being campused.
Spends spare time—What spare time?
Is wild about—that blond guy from Tarboro.
Hobby—writing letters.
Always seen—with Ruth and Ginna.
Favorite expression—Duh!
Always heard—period.
Favorite perfume—“Possession.”
Favorite clothes—bedroom shoes.
Favorite food—steak.
Favorite song—'Til the End of Time.
Odd likes—stuffed animals.
Pet passion—shoes.
Offices, clubs — Granddaughters' Club, Dramatics Club, Woman's Auxiliary, President of the freshman class, Belles staff.

Remarks: Ann has a way of getting all her jobs done right with seemingly little effort. She is a capable girl with the right kind of ideas, and she knows how to put those ideas into practice. Ann seems to take things in her stride very well, and if her years here at Saint Mary's follow in the same pattern as this one, she will make progress.

JANE LEE PARKER

Home—Raleigh, N. C.
Age—18.
Ambition—to graduate.
Hair 'n' eyes—brown and “greeny, gray, blue.”
Pet hate—gettin' up in the morning.
Spends spare time—gabbin' and writin' notes.
Is wild about—blond males over 6' tall.

solicitation. The total contributions were:

Students	$ 868.50
Faculty and Staff	537.50
Total	$1,406.00

The final report was 117% of quota. Will you kindly express my appreciation to all the student workers and especially to Adelaide Linehan, whose report of $141.00 from the Day Students was the largest individual worker's report?

Not only was your work outstanding in total contributions, but through your efforts Saint Mary's School was the first division in the entire campaign organization to exceed its quota. You deserve a great deal of credit for this achievement.

Very truly yours,
E. F. STOUGHTON,
Business Manager.

on the program. This was followed by another selection from Dvorak, The Heights of Tatra. Next, in Favorite food—chow mein.

Favorite songs—Embraceable You and Dancing in the Dark.
Odd likes—Navy blues.
Offices and clubs—President of Day Students, Letter Club, Swimming Club, Business Manager's staff of Stage Coach, Political Science Club.

Remarks: Jane Lee is the tall brunette day student who wears the dark lipstick and the good-looking clothes. She's loads of fun and livens up every crowd. Jane Lee is very popular with all the students at Saint Mary's, and she has proven her ability and interest by the many organizations in which she has taken part.

HELEN MARDRE

Home—Windsor, N. C.
Age—18.

Favorite food—everything (as anyone can see).
Favorite song — Strange Things Happen Every Day.
Odd likes—curly hair.
Pet passion—talking.
Offices, clubs — President of the Business Department; Hall Council; Granddaughters' Club; Woman's Auxiliary; Belles staff.

Remarks: Any time you want to be put in a good mood, just get yourself engaged in a conversation with Helen. You'll hear anything from the latest Bertie County news to the latest secret meeting. Besides being a lot of fun, Helen is a good worker and leads the business class as their president.

this group was The Traveler. The New York-born composer, Heilner, set the beautiful poem of Longfellow to music in this composition. Her final number of this section was Me Company Along by Hageman.

The performer ended her program with a group of Negro spirituals: Going to Ride up in the Chariot, Songs of Death, I Got Shoes, and Give Me That ol' Time Religion. Dorothy Maynor graciously consented to give three encores, Jeanie With the Light Brown Hair, Oh No John, and in conclusion without accompaniment Were You There When They Crucified My Lord.

Miss Maynor has a magnificent voice. Her softest tones could be heard throughout the auditorium as clearly as her most vibrant. Her tonal color was extraordinarily commendable. Since her selections were not on the whole well known her winning the audience was purely through her interpretation of them. Miss Maynor, who ranks second only to Marion Anderson, presented one of the most brilliant concerts of the year.

Saints' Sallies Sp

Hallowe'en has come and gone with goblins, surprises, and good times for all. Bouquets to the Junior class for their wonderful Hallowe'en party last Friday night.

One of the biggest surprises of the week was Lib Clinard's bright, new De pin. Quite a week-end in Roanoke Rapids, Lib?

We hear “Spot” had a grand time with somebody special over from Duke Saturday.

Katherine got an exciting telegram, an invitation for a big wedding end soon at the University of Virginia. (P.S. Jerry Wald is going to be there too!) Incidentally, Katherine and Sally were entertaining the Marines from New River this week-end. A cute Navy Lieutenant was keeping Poncie pretty occupied.

Doubtless you heard “Mill” screaming. That “regular fellow” was here again. “Mill” was wearing his favorite perfume Saturday night! Be sure to ask her the name of it.

Pard and Martha bounded off Chapel Hill Saturday. We heard they had a rare time . . . the Navy a convertible, ummmmmmm! and the way, have you seen that gorgeous and enormous pic Pard has now?

Lenora Dempsey had company in the army, all the way from Alabama.

We hope Jane Dickey is feeling better now. She has a nice “shine” from close contact with a hockey stick.

There's been a big event in Nina and Lucy (Library course costume) Brewer's room. The stork brought baby guppies to their fish bowl.

We hear that Helen Barnes had a very strange telegram Saturday.

What's happened to Carol Camp's appetite lately? It could be Davidson. We hear she's pretty interested. By the way, Tomlin also has interests there.

“Mat” Hales came back from the “Wilson week-end” with a terrible cold—it could be the night air, Ma.

Although Peggy Swinson seems like Dutch Marines and Spaniards she had a good old North Carolina up to see her last week-end.

Luck seems to have made a mistake when she went home with Jo Anderson last week-end. We hear that her meds are all right in her opinion.

Marilyn Whetstone says the Veterans' dance at State was really fun. Bet the company had something to do with it.

We love that Navy jacket Ruby Leigh is sporting these days.

Gene Hines says her week-end at home was wonderful. We aren't surprised 'cause somebody special was there.

Jane Lewis and Bassett are saving their big week-ends until their interstates at V.E.S. get home. We don't blame them.

Hontas, Susan and “Sharly” are expecting company from V.E.S. this week-end. They're also V.E.S. bound when November 10 rolls around. Tell how you do it!

Betty Adkerson had a grand time at Wake Forest last week-end.

Talkin' about stags, Hendersson was full of them last week-end.
