NOW'S YOUR CHANCE!

Now that everyone is back at school and exams are over, we must turn over a new leaf and try and do better in the coming semester. The exams showed many that they had not really studied as hard during the last semester as they thought. Too many people tried to get by in their daily work and had to cram considerably the night before the exam.

This semester we should try to concentrate, and learn our lessons, then go out and have a good time. It is much better to really work, and then play, than to try to mix work and play and get nothing done. Too many times we waste our time in study hours writing letters when we should be studying. In the coming semester let us resolve to get more out of our work at Saint Mary's, and it will mean much more to all of us after we leave Saint Mary's.

WILL WE FAIL?

Is the United Nations Organization going to be a failure? Is the co-operation of the leading nations of the world what is needed if those nations nevertheless arm for war? Against whom are the principal nations arming if the countries that caused the Second World War are kept in submission? Against themselves, obviously. While attempting to work together to settle the problems of the world and insure everlasting peace, these big nations are not disarming. Evidently there is very little trust among the larger powers of the UNO, and without faith in one another, regardless of the proposals of the UNO, the United Nations Organization can never settle the difficulties of the smaller countries. The smaller countries can have no respect for their leaders who have no respect for each other. Until the ruling powers, the

SALLIE LEE

Home—Goldsboro, N. C.
Age—18.
Hair 'n' eyes—brown 'n' blue.
Ambition—to be called "slim."
Pet hate—getting up in the morning.
Spends spare time—eating.
Is wild about—chocolate creams.
Hobby—talking.
Always seen—teasing.
Favorite expression—"Really?"
Always heard—laughing.
Favorite perfume—"Chantilly."
Favorite article of clothing—red mittens.
Favorite food—corn, peas, tomatoes.
Favorite song—The Very Thought of You.
Odd likes—"Peon" Club.
Pet passion—dogs.
Offices, clubs, etc.—Marshal, Circle, Hall Council, treasurer of the Woman's Auxiliary Council, Granddaughters' Club, Orchesis, Belles Staff, Political Science Club.
Remarks: Sallie greets everyone with the same friendly smile. Her spontaneous laugh is contagious. If you're in a blue mood, just talk to Sallie and she'll pick up your spirits. You'll have trouble making her mad 'cause she's so agreeable! May we ask a question? Just exactly what is the "Peon" Club?!

MARGO MARTIN

Home—Roanoke Rapids, N. C.
Age—19.
Ambition—to get in Chapel Hill.
Hair 'n' eyes—brown 'n' almost black.
Pet hate—being "patrolman" on first floor Holt.
Spends spare time—"curricularing."
Is wild about—Vade Mecum 'n' V.M.I.
Worst fault—can't see.
Odd likes—onions, walking in rain, "boogie."
Always seen—looking for a fourth in bridge.
Always heard—"Let's go to the movies."
Favorite expression—"That's life!"
Favorite food—Toddle House "hash browns."
Favorite article of clothing—Mil's moccasins.

United States, Russia, and Great Britain, have learned to respect one another, not to fear one another, to forget war against one another, and to work together in harmony, nothing will be permanently accomplished by the organization. Until the leading nations co-operate fully and confide completely in each other, they cannot expect to govern themselves, much less lead and help a group of smaller nations.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

The library is the place where one should be especially quiet at all times, but lots of people use it as a place to talk and have a good time. It has been very noisy lately when many of us have tried to study. The noise subsides a little when Mrs. Brown or Mrs. Neely come in, but I think we are old enough to be quiet

Favorite perfume—can't wear it (hay fever).

Favorite song—Warsaw Concerto.
Offices, clubs, etc.—Marshal, co-chairman of Hall Council, president of Glee Club, president of swimming club, sextette, Canterbury council, Publications Staff, Letter Club, Political Science Club, basketball and tennis teams.

Remarks: Almost everyone knows Margo as the girl who carries out her marshaling duties with such poise and ease. They will be very surprised when the basketball games start to see the Margo maneuver skillfully over the court with her pretty black hair bouncing on her shoulders. Yes, our Margo seems to be quite the "all-round girl." And, incidentally, please note the picture of the "Hollywoodish" looking male she has in her room.

MARY HELEN JAMES

Home—Wilson, N. C.
Age—19.
Ambition—to be famous.
Hair 'n' eyes—brown 'n' blue.
Pet hate—no mail.
Spends spare time—playing bridge.
Is wild about—Wilson.
Hobby—collecting poetry.
Always seen—meditating.
Favorite expression—you all.
Always heard—shhhhhhh.
Favorite perfume—Bond Street.
Favorite article of clothing—shoes.
Favorite food—spaghetti and meat balls.
Favorite song—At Last.
Odd likes—3rd West Wing.
Pet passion—snowy days.
Offices, clubs, etc.—Marshal, Y. W. C. A., Hall Council.
Remarks: Baby blue eyes, fair complexion, dark brown hair, and a sweet disposition are just a few characteristics of Mary Helen. She loves to have a good time and has gone mad about playing bridge. Every spare moment she dashes up to 3rd West Wing and joins the foursome. Mary Helen with her charm and poise is one of the most attractive girls in the senior class and leads the school as Chief Marshal.

without having someone watch over us all the time. All of us have been guilty of making too much noise in the library at one time or another, but I think we should all resolve to be quiet in the library for the rest of the year.
Sincerely,
Harriet Gurley.

Dear Editor,

Lots has been said, but nothing definite seems to have been done, about having a place where the underclassmen can take their dates on Saturday nights. The parlor is fine on some occasions, but it would be so nice if we had somewhere to dance, play cards, and buy cokes. We are eagerly looking forward to the new recreation room in the basement of Holt, but in the meantime, it surely would be nice to have some place to go. Can't something be done?

Hopefully,
Myrtle Alston.

Saints' Sallies

Spivak, Danziger's, and the houses all helped to make the weekend perfect for a crowd of Saint Mary's girls. Helen Barnes "Skeeter" report a wonderful time . . . they were swooning over Spivak. Lib Clinard and Mil ran in each other at the DEKE house Saturday night after the Spivak dance.

We've had some glowing reports from the girls who represented Junior class at the Carolina winter. Martha Conger, Rose, Dot Leak, and Jean Strickland all had a mighty good time over there. Barbara Corpening still in a daze over her Carolina week-end.

Saint Mary's was represented some of the other colleges too. Husk went to Duke . . . "Lump" attended a concert by Alec Templeton and an informal dance at Indianapolis. . . Margaret Lee and Betsy Wetterau are still raving over the dances at V.M.I.

Oh yes . . . Peggy, Sharly, and Hontas were seen at Carolina week-end. By the way, Hontas, they serve green mustard these days. Lenora visited Lethia in Richmond last week-end . . . seems to be dated University of Richmond and were at Westwood Saturday night. Marty was back in Richmond, just like old times, dating Navy.

"Wee" visited "Pard" in Lynchburg last week-end. Somebody special came all the way from Birmingham to date her. A couple of dating ensigns were on hand to entertain the girls, too.

Beverly Morrison, Carrie West, Betty Sue Tayloe, and Moulton were in New Bern last week-end. They went to two supper parties and two dances! Mary W. was at W.C. visiting Lavinia Johnston.

There was quite a party in Winston-Salem this past week-end. Beverly Hancock, Sue Thomas, Charlotte Hoffmann, Jean Wilson, Ann Prothro, and Mary Glen visited "Tina." "Teenie" Royall visited Lulu Vance, and Jane Dickey visited Lib Taylor. There were parties every day, and the visitors just loved Winston.

Roanoke was the scene of another big house party. Poncie, Mary Pinckney, Dabney an' Dolly, Jan an' Sallie visited Kathryn there. "Dee" Oakey visited Ann Lewis in Petersburg and says she just loved the place. All Ann's crowd went home and they really had fun.

Lib Price entertained with "chickens in the rough" in Roanoke Rapids Saturday. Margo an' Loula, Ruby Leigh and visitors Marilyn Whetstone and Joanne Quinn were there. "Spot" and Sara came over from Warrenton for the party.

"Woolie," "Coop," and Martha Best spent an exciting week-end in Charlotte and Concord. Incidentally, Martha Best dated "him." Nancy Pendleton took Nina M. Lucy Brewer, and Martha Bailey home with her, and they flew back . . . Betsy Siler felt right at home when she visited her sister last week-end because her date had the same name as her O.A.O. at home.
