

Four-Four and Stuff

From every new movie coming out nowadays there seems to be a "song to remember." For instance, if you've seen Saratoga Trunk, you will certainly recall the melody, As Long as I Live. Johnnie Johnston has recorded this "new ballad with an old title" for Capitol. On the reverse he sings One More Dream, and he's backed up by a vocal group known as the "Satisfiers."

Larry Stevens does the vocal on Closer to Me, from the picture Easy to Wed. The final chorus is in Spanish and the background is by Mahlon Merrich and his orchestra. On the other side is a current favorite, It's a Grand Night for Singing, from the picture State Fair.

For Victor, Charlie Spivak has made a recording of Stranger in Town. It's sung by the new sensation, Jimmie Saunders. The other side of Stranger is Home Country, with a vocal by Irene Daye.

From the Orson Welles' picture of the same name, Tomorrow Is Forever has been recorded for Decca by one of the best teams in the vogue, Helen Forrest and Dick Haymes. The orchestra which furnishes the background is directed by Earle Hagen, the trombonist who used to be with Ray Noble.

If it's jazz you're looking for, try Count Basie's Living Joe Jackson. The vocal is done by the Count's new discovery, Ann Moore. On the other side is an instrumental number by the band called Queer Street.

On the shelf set aside for albums we find Showboat by Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra. Included are eight sides of Jerome Kern's immortal music from the production Showboat. The songs are: Why Do I Love You; Can't Help Loving Dat Man; Make Believe; Ah Still Suits Me; Oh Man River; You Are Love, Bill; plus Kern's latest, Nobody Else But Me.

(From P. 2, Col. 4)

The Freshman-Sophomore dance seemed to be a great success. Gary Ellis and Barbara Corpening met two men they liked pretty well there. Cama Clarkson had "old faithful" per usual. Also the "reverend" was there with Joyce Tomlin . . . came to see her last Sunday, too. Sandy Spilman and Nancy Norton were pretty tense for a while because of some flowers. Oh, yes, congratulations to Sandy. We were getting a little worried about her hard-hearted darling. Please don't forget to ask Mary Rose Crisp about her newly acquired friendship from Davidson. Betsy Evans' flowers from her man were mighty pretty, and so was "Butch's" orchid from the little man who couldn't get there. South Boston made quite a show, an', of all things, on the subject of marriage! We hear that Georges are quite a fad on second floor East Wing. Is that right, Sarah and Lally? Jean Dickerson is still yelling for the Navy (and Woodbury) . . . We wonder why Joanne Quinn believes that absence makes the heart grow fonder . . . By the way, was Barbara Current naive or was she really interested in the scenery at Pullen Park? . . . How was Woodbury, Nancy Cummings? We hear you had a big old time!

CAMPUS NOTES

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. I. Harding Hughes left February 15 for Charlotte to attend the wedding of Eleanor Thomas ('45) to Wilson Land. Mr. Hughes officiated.

The Nominating Committee of the Board of Trustees met on February 13 to discuss the selection of the future president of Saint Mary's.

Mrs. Augusta Rembert of Columbia, S. C., former art teacher at Saint Mary's, visited the school the week-end of February 15. She is now teaching at the University of South Carolina.

The Rev. Mr. I. Harding Hughes attended the College Worker's Conference at Sewanee, Tennessee, the weekend of February 16.

Mrs. Ernest Cruikshank, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Stoughton, and the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Hughes attended the Chamber of Commerce banquet, held at Meredith College, on Wednesday, February 13. The speakers were ex-Governor Broughton and Senator Fulbright of Arkansas.

Donald Peery attended a concert of the Philadelphia Orchestra at Duke University on February 13.

Miss Betsy Blount spent the weekend of February 15 in Charlotte, where she attended the wedding of Eleanor Thomas.

The Rev. Mr. I. Harding Hughes was the visiting pastor at Saint Timothy's Church in Wilson, N. C., on February 10. While in Wilson, Mr. Hughes was entertained at the home of Mary Thomas ('43).

The Mu's selected Betty Smith vice-president at a meeting held Thursday, February 14.

Martha Bailey is manager of the Sigma-Mu ping-pong tournament, which started last week.

Miss Peggy Hopkins attended an Alumnae meeting of the Rocky Mount chapter on February 15 at the New Ricks Hotel in Rocky Mount, N. C. Mrs. James H. Cordon, president of the Alumnae Association, and Virginia Davenport ('26), the Rocky Mount chairman, also attended the meeting. The guest speaker was Mr. Charles A. Tucker of Warrenton.

Horse-back riding began the week of February 17-28.

Miss Sally Digges spent the weekend of February 15 in Charlottesville, Va.

Mr. Robert T. Foss has a position at the Dan River Mills in Danville, Va.

The following girls are working on the Life Saving course under the direction of Miss Anna Graham: Junior Life Saving—Virginia Smith, Jo Cooper, Mary Blair Bowers, Ann Lucas, and Logan Vaught. Senior Life Saving—Henrietta Thorp, Betsy Tom Lawrence, Sallie Lee, Fabian Wadsworth, Jeannette Boaz, Gingie Werlein, Jean Strickland, Betty Beasley, Jane Thomas, Sarah Covington, Burney Johnson, Margaret Lee Payne, Harriot Barnwell, Frances Long, Katherine Royall, and Mary Ann Strauss.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. I. Harding Hughes went to Duke University on February 12 to hear Bishop Oxnam, president of the Federal Council of Churches.

Katherine Royall's little sister, Mela, visited here at school last week-end.

Last Thursday evening Miss Ruth Haig played on WPTF with the Raleigh Piano Ensemble. Miss Haig also directs this group.

Leah Whitley went home to Smithfield last week-end to be in her cousin's wedding on Saturday.

Another guest here last week-end was Miss Barbara Jean Earlingson, who was visiting Barbara Corpening.

Mrs. Augusta Rembert, a former art instructor at Saint Mary's, while visiting in Raleigh, has been entertained by various members of the faculty. Among these are Miss Morris, Miss Duckett, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Broughton.

Lucille Smith, a former Saint Mary's student ('43 and '44), visited the campus on Monday, February 18. She is to be married in the chapel on Saturday afternoon, March 2.

Cleves Stenhouse (ex. '45) visited the campus on Tuesday afternoon, February 19, returning from Charlotte, where she attended the wedding of Eleanor Thomas (ex. '45) to Wilson Land.

Miss Frances Vann spent the weekend of February 15 in Washington, N. C.

The student body took the annual winter Time test in assembly last Tuesday. Prizes will be awarded to the highest scores in each class.

Mrs. C. A. P. Moore is visiting her family in Charleston for about ten days.

Calendar Of Events

February—
26—Mr. Moore. Discussion of Time tests.
28—Mrs. Guess. Dance groups.
28—Sigma Pi Alpha meeting at Saint Mary's.
March—
7—Miss Morrison. Current events.

Spectrum Splashes

In the February 18 issue of Life there is an article of interest on the collection of paintings which the University of Arizona is getting for its art department. This collection is being given to the university chiefly for the benefit of its art students so that they will be able to study original paintings rather than reproductions.

Several of the paintings of the collection are pictured. Three that caught our eye were a semi-abstract cafe scene depicting the interior of a New Orleans cafe, "Wanderlust," and a "St. Louis Cemetery." The cafe scene was done by Jacob Lawrence, a well-known Negro artist; "Wanderlust" by Peggy Bacon; and the "St. Louis Cemetery" was done by Davis Herron.

In the February issue of Magazine of Art there is an article on whether or not the United States should have brought the some 200 German paintings to this country for "protective custody" or not. It is a question to be considered, and the article mentioned is very interesting. Read it whether you're interested in art or not! In the same magazine there is also a good article on the opening of the Louvre museum. This article is entitled "Letter from Paris: the Presence of the Past," and there are "reports on the recent painting" of China and Italy. We noticed a collection of modern paintings by Charles Howard. (If you are able to understand them, please explain them to us!)

Time for February 18 pictures a bronze statue entitled "Benediction," that was recently unveiled in Manhattan's Museum of Modern Art. It's different, to say the least!

In the three magazines, Life, Time, and Magazine of Art, there are always well-illustrated articles on the latest happenings in the world of art. Glance at them during your spare moments, and you will find most of them very entertaining.

(From P. 1, Col. 2)

- III. Sense of humor.
- IV. Conversational ability.
- V. Brains.
- VI. Dancing technique.
- VII. Good looks.
- VIII. Automobile

Some very odd likes were expressed by a few of our more individual girls, such as:

- the gal whose favorite article of clothing is "bobby socks"!
- the one who wants to spend her summer at (or is it in?) the Cleveland Zoo.
- the West Rock-er whose favorite article of clothing is jewelry!!
- the girl whose hobby is "being a Deke booster."
- the two (and only) whose hobby is "necking"!!!

(From Page 2, Col. 3)

one in East Rock, which may only be used if a long distance call has been received over it. If this system is established, more girls will have a chance to use the phones. I would like to know what the students of Saint Mary's think of this.

Here's hoping something will be done.

Amie Watkins.