GET UP AND GO

Recently there has been too much delay in getting to classes and meetings. When the bells are rung, it is a signal to leave your room and go to whatever meeting is scheduled. At chapel and assembly in the morning the program often has to be held up until all the late comers can be seated. In the small time allotted these services any time lost causes the whole student body to be late to the first class. At other meetings those in charge report to the meetings on time and do not like to be kept waiting.

This is something that can only be remedied by each individual student in school. If each person will determine to get to her scheduled meetings on time, it will save much trouble and confusion to all concerned. It is very good to get in the habit of being prompt because a tardy person is unpopular in any society.

PEACE IS AT STAKE

Stalin's statement of confidence in the UNO was somewhat belied two days ago by Russia's member of the Security Council, Ambassador Gromyko, walking out on the council, saying he could participate in no council discussions of the Iranian Crisis before April 10.

While the Russians have emphasized that they are withdrawing from council discussions only temporarily, the world at large is beginning to say that it is time the Russian boy started acting like a man.

Apparently no members of the UNO consider Russia's temporary withdrawal as too serious a threat to UNO. But sooner or later both big and little nations will tell Russia to put up or shut up, play ball or go home, or grow up and act its age.

The long view is the best view, even if it is tiresome and irritating at times.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

The Ides of March are upon us! This is the time of year when all of us find ourselves somewhat pushed with work. We really need every spare minute, and sometimes it is rather hard to fit into our schedule all the required outside activities, concerts, etc., and still keep up our grades. Is there any way that we can keep our work and our concerts and recitals from conflicting too strongly? Most of us really would like to enjoy a recital without worrying about those three tests tomorrow, and a concert is much more interesting when we can listen wholeheartedly instead of mentally conjugating verbs while listening to "Polonaise."

Hopefully,
RUTH WHALEN.

Odd likes—tall men.

Pet passion—Tyrone Power.

Favorite song—Because (I wonder why).

Offices, clubs, etc.—Hall Council, treasurer of senior class, secretary and treasurer of Y. W. C. A., secretary and treasurer of Granddaughters' Club, Dramatic Club, French Club, Political Science Club, Publications, Mu.

Remarks: Amie's one of "that Henderson crowd." She's noted for her school spirit and loyalty to the Mu's. Amie, in her Letters To The Editors, has made some swell suggestions for improvements at Saint Mary's, and we all hope they may soon be fulfilled.

Favorite article of clothing—a seven-year-old brown sweater.
Favorite food—everything fattening.
Favorite song—Clair de Lune.

Saints' Sallies

Did you hear laughing and shouts of glee Wednesday night? That's just Saint Mary's gals turning from a very, very gay Monday of vacation. Ask Kathryn Fulton about the big dance at Roanoke. We heard she was the one having a grand time with an old flame of hers. And speaking of Kathryn... she, Helen Madigan and Marty met in Richmond Sunday night for a big party.

Lenora Dempsey and "Wee" were at the University of Alabama last week-end. Helen Barnes, Estelle, "Spot," and "Teenie" were in Atlanta all Spring vacation. They had a wonderful time visiting Charlotte Hoffman, Sue Thomas, and Jane Campbell. Mary Willis went home with Betty Sue and says she had a grand time.

Sharlie got a picture from a certain little sailor! Hubba—how cute! She puts him on her dresser every night so that he's the first thing that she sees in the morning and the last thing that she sees at night. Camp got a picture, too, and he's mighty cute. She really seems to get the cute men.

Mary Pinckney had a wonderful time at Annapolis. She heard from him almost every day; and not only that, but he's coming to see her Spring vacation. Mary Rose got an invitation to Sewanee graduation. We guess all of you have noticed that certain glow that she has now that she didn't have before. True?

Betsy Evans' saxophone player is quite a celebrity. He's the star of his orchestra, and the orchestra seems to be coming up in the world. He'll probably be "the world's greatest" before much longer.

"The DKE Boosters" is definitely a thriving organization. Ruby Lee is really doing a good job. Congratulations, Daisy! Third floor Smedes would like to have the thirtieth of March recorded in History—not the Ides of March, but the thirteenth. It was quite an eventful day for twelve or thirteen little angels.

Pard, "Crow" Clark, and "B" Beasley had no end of fun in Lynchburg and at the club. Margaret Norfleet says everything happened in Jackson. . . . Gem traveled to the "coal mines of West Virginia" with Nancy. Folks up Bluefield way really lead a gay life!

"Strick" and "Demp" are still talking 'bout the dances in Wilson. . . . Sandy Childs and Ann Jones visited "Chubby" and dated those cute men. . . . Martha Conger helped nurse "him" back to health. . . . What could be better than nursing a Sigma Nu!

Jo Anne Darden has rated quite a few visits from quite a cute man from over Fort Bragg way. Speaking of gals named Jo Anne. . . Jo Anne Quinn has been visited for several week-ends by a boy at Bragg, from Saratoga. These home-town sessions must be grand, from what we've heard!
