

Lavan Baltzell Is Elected Chief Marshal For '46-'47

Bowler, Childs, Clark, Strickland, and Yorke Are New Marshals for Next Year

Marshals for next year were nominated in assembly April 9 and voted on April 10. Lavan Baltzell will be chief marshal; the other five marshals are Jane Bowler, Sande Childs, Katherine Clark, Jean Strickland, and Martha Best Yorke.

Jane Bowler, from Richmond, has been elected also as a Honor Council representative for the senior class of next year. She is a member of the Publications staff, the Woman's Auxiliary, the choir, the Mu hockey team, and is president of the French Club.

SANDE CHILDS

Sande Childs is from Columbia, S. C. Sande is a member of the Y.W.C.A., the Political Science Club, the Sigma basketball team, and is one of the senior life-guards in charge of the pool.

Katherine Clark, or "Crow," as she is called, is from Lynchburg. She is a member of the Mu Athletic Society and is hall representative for second floor Smedes.

Jean Strickland, from Wilson, is vice-president of the junior class, manager of the Sigma hockey team and is a member of the Publications staff, the Glee Club, the Political Science Club, the choir, the Sextet, the Woman's Auxiliary, and the Sigma Phi Alpha.

Martha Best Yorke, from Concord, is a junior representative to the Legislative Body, and is a member of the Y.W.C.A., the Sigma basketball team, and the Publications staff.

CHIEF MARSHAL

Lavan Baltzell, who will be chief marshal, is from Jacksonville, Fla. She is a member of the Woman's Auxiliary and of the Mu Athletic Society. She was chosen Posture Queen this year in the contest sponsored by the Letter Club. "Doolie" was, unfortunately, in the infirmary when she received news of her election. When interviewed she said, "It's a good thing I was in the infirmary, already lying down when they told me!"

The new marshals will begin their duties soon, in preparation for their marshaling at commencement. As her final duty of this year, Lavan will drop the handkerchief which officially closes this school year.

Luboshutz and Nemenoff Give Brilliant Concert

Familiar Encores Are Very Popular With Audience

Pierre Luboshutz and Genia Nemenoff, duo-pianists of unequalled fame, presented a brilliant concert at the Raleigh Memorial Auditorium on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Luboshutz and Nemenoff have performed as duo-pianists for the past ten years. Both were recognized as exceptionally outstanding soloists in both this country and abroad before beginning their career together. They have played many times with the most famous symphony orchestras and have made many concert tours in this country, Cuba, and Canada which have deserved the highest praise.

They have also done a great deal to broaden the music available for two-piano performance by bringing to the attention of the public eye many long forgotten selections for duo-pianos, and Mr. Luboshutz has arranged many of the great compositions for two-pianos.

DUO-PIANISTS

As an explanation for their "amazing unanimity and precision" Pierre Luboshutz says, "Good duo-pianists are born, not made. It is a special gift. Any two virtuoso pianists won't necessarily make a good duo-piano team. Even if we played in separate rooms we would always be together. Before Genia starts to play, something happens inside of me, and I know what she will do."

As an opening number Luboshutz and Nemenoff played Concerto in A Minor written by the violinist, Vivaldi, famous for his outstanding work in the development of the concerto, and arranged by Bach. Second on the program was Variations on a Theme of Beethoven by Camille Saint-Saens, sometimes called "the Chopin of Two-Piano Literature." Third on the program were three movements from the Scaramouche Suite by the French composer, Milhaud. The first of these, Vif, was light and airy, the second, Modere, sober and calm, the third, Braziliera, was a brilliant dance with a "South American rhythm." Theme and Variations by Wolfgang Adameus Mozart followed. Largo al Factotum, the well-known aria from the Barber of Seville by Gioacchino Rossini was performed next. The Ritual Fire Dance by Manuel

(See P. 4, Col. 4)

Jean Roberts Is President Of '46-'47 Senior Class

BARNWELL AND BOWLER ARE ELECTED SENIOR MEMBERS OF HONOR COUNCIL FOR '46-'47

Harriott Barnwell of Columbia, South Carolina, and Jane Bowler of Richmond, Virginia, were elected Senior Honor Council members for next year in elections held April 4.

Harriott, a junior at Saint Mary's this year, was outstanding in high school, holding numerous offices. She was secretary of student council, homeroom secretary her freshman year, president of her homeroom her sophomore year, student council representative her senior year, vice-president of school problem club her junior year, "Miss Hi Miss," D. A. R. citizenship representative, president of Diocesan Y. P. S. L. for upper South Carolina, president of Les Coquettes, and business manager of Blue Print (school paper). At Saint Mary's Harriott has also participated in extracurricular activities. She is a member of the Woman's Auxiliary, Dramatic Club, and is on the Mu all-star hockey team.

JANE BOWLER

Jane was also active in high school. She was secretary of her class in '42, '43, student government representative '44, '45, on staff of school paper, Arcadian, glee club, and marshal in '45. At Saint Mary's Jane has taken an enthusiastic interest in activities. She is president of the French Club, is a member of Publications staff, Woman's Auxiliary, choir, and on the all-star hockey team.

Upon being interviewed, Harriott seemed to be all agog over the idea of her new position. She said, "I am scared to death of the Honor Council this year and now next year I'm going to be a member of it. Can you imagine?"

Jane seemed equally thrilled over the outcome of the election. All of third floor Smedes is proud of their protegee, as are the rest of her many friends. Upon being popped the question as to how she feels about the whole situation, Jane replied, "I just hope we can be as efficient as the Honor Council this year."

Junior Class Begins Election of New Officers for Next Year

Jean Roberts of Durham was elected president of the rising senior class in elections held on Wednesday, April 3. Other nominees for this office were Harriott Barnwell, Helen Boyle, Ann Burney Johnson, and Myra Welsh.

Jean attended Durham High School, and Salem Academy in Winston-Salem her senior year in high school. At Salem she was secretary of the student council, advertising manager of the Quill Pen, Salem Academy annual, a member of the dramatic club, and of the glee club.

This year at Saint Mary's Jean has been one of the most loyal members of the junior class. She is one of the junior representatives to the Legislative Body, and she is a member of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Soon after the election your reporter spied Jean in the midst of a bull session on third floor Smedes. The topic of conversation was prospective talent for next year's old girl-new girl party. When asked how she felt about her election, she replied with her enthusiasm and a friendly grin, "We've got the material for a grand senior class next year, and I know that it will be one."

Letter Club Initiates Six New Members

The Letter Club held its second initiation in assembly Thursday, April 11. Six girls were taken in. These were Sally Lee, who made All-Star in basketball, hockey, and senior lifesaving; Harriott Barnwell, in hockey and senior lifesaving; Jean Strickland, in senior lifesaving and as hockey manager; Mary Lou Pratt, in hockey and basketball; Ruby Leigh Williams, in hockey and as basketball manager; Fabian Wadsworth, in bowling and senior lifesaving.

Stars were presented for basketball and senior lifesaving. Those who made All Stars in basketball are Barbara Pope, Elizabeth Myatt, Sande Childs, Martha Best Yorke, and Kathleen Smither. Margo Martin and Nina Mae DeBerry, who are already in the Letter Club, also made the All Star team.

The girls who made stars in senior lifesaving were Betty Beasley, Jeannette Boaz, Sarah Covington, Burney Johnson, Margaret Lee Payne, Jane Thomas, Henrietta Thorp, and Virginia Werlein. Josephine Cooper made an All-Star in junior lifesaving.

GIVE TO THE CANCER DRIVE