THANKSGIVING HOLIDAYS

Thanksgiving holidays will begin after classes Wednesday, Nov. 27, and end 10:00 p. m. Thursday, Nov. 28, Miss Elizabeth Tucker, secretary to Dr. Richard G. Stone, recently announced.

Seniors and Honor Roll students who are taking their "long week-end" may leave school at the same time but do not have to return until 9:00 p. m. Sunday, Dec. 1.

The school will remain open for those girls who are not going away for the holiday, but there will be no classes Thanksgiving Day, and attendance at meals will not be required.

Mu's Down Sigma's In Two Hockey Games To Win Tournament

Green, Covington, Jones Make Mu Goals; Page Scores for Sigma's

Mu athletic society won the hockey tournament by defeating the Sigma's 5 to 0 in the second and last game of the season Monday afternoon, Nov. 25. Sylvia Green, Williamston, scored one of the Mu's goals; Sarah "Chubby" Covington, Bennettsville, S. C., and Ann Fripp Jones, Summer-ville, S. C., made two goals each.

The Mu's downed the Sigma's in the first hockey game of the season, Nov. 21, with a score of 4 to 1. Sylvia Green and Ann Fripp Jones each made two goals for the Mu team. Laura Page, Charlotte, made the Sigma goal.

In the second game, Nov. 25, Elizabeth "Sande" Childs, Columbia, S. C., played for the Sigma's in the absence of Martha Wilson.

The games were refereed by Mrs. William Guess and Miss Anna Graham, gym instructors.

Saint Mary's Wins Swimming Meet

Wilson, Davis, Wallin, Cooper Represent School

Saint Mary's, Duke, Woman's College, and Meredith were the victors in the Intercollegiate Play-Day Nov. 16 with Saint Mary's and Meredith as co-hostesses.

SAINT MARY'S WINS

Five of the six swimming events in the first heat were won by Saint Mary's. The winners were Martha Wilson, Louisville, Ky., crawl for speed; Sarah Lou Davis, Morganton, side stroke for form; Charlotte Wallin, Hot Springs, Va., back stroke for speed; Josephine Cooper, West Hartford, Conn., breast stroke for speed. Martha Wilson and Sarah Lou Davis also won the relay. Betty Clark, Greensboro College, won the breast stroke for form. Martha Wilson's time on the crawl was the best of all the girls competing in both heats.

OTHER WINNERS

The other winners were Duke, volleyball and tennis doubles; Woman's College, tennis singles, archery, and badminton singles; Meredith, badminton doubles. Meredith and the Woman's College tied in the hockey finals.

Other schools competing were Eastern Carolina Teachers' College, Guilford, Mars Hill, Peace, and Brevard.

A reception was held later in the afternoon at Meredith, after which the results of the games were announced.

"Prof. Quiz" Entertains School; Joan Hassler Wins Contest

Strickland, Potter, Drane, Ford Are Final Contestants

Professor Quiz

"Define a hole," "What is a spiral staircase?"—these are some of the questions asked the students of Saint Mary's School by Professor Quiz, the original radio quiz master, on Wednesday night, Nov. 20, in the school auditorium.

JOAN HASSLER WINNER

Joan Hassler, Thomasville, was announced the champion of the evening when she received 550 points out of the possible 600 for correct answers. She, along with the final five girls competing, received a cigarette lighter as prize.

The "professor" told the group that out of all the schools at which he had presented his program, Saint Mary's had the highest score.

FIVE FINAL CONTESTANTS

"Mrs. Quiz" kept the scores of the final five contestants, who were Nancy Ford, Washington; Jean Strickland, Wilson; Joan Hassler, Rose Potter, Winston-Salem; and Frances Drane, Monroe.

The other girls who participated in the quiz were Eleanor Pollard, Asheville; Elizabeth "Sande" Childs, Columbia, S. C.; Margaret Moore, Roanoke, Va.; Sally Ann Borthwick, Winston-Salem; Charlotte Buchanan, Columbia, S. C.; Martina Fillmore, Macclesfield; and Carolyn Mahon, Greenville, S. C.

Rev. Mr. Gordon Speaks on Alaska

Alaska missionary the Rev. Mr. William Gordon told Saint Mary's girls of his religious work there in the chapel Sunday morning, Nov. 17.

Little did he dream that Saint Mary's students would partly finance his mission work, he declared, when he spoke here just before leaving for his Alaska mission some time ago. Mr. Gordon thanked the girls for their contributions and told of the good works this money had done.

Hair Troubles? See Artistic, Talented "Mademoiselle Willie"

Have you noticed all the fancy hair-do's the girls on second floor West Wing have been wearing? When asked what hair stylist they patronize, they answered in unison, "Willie."

"Willie," it seems, is not the star hairdresser of the Elite Beauty Salon. "He" is Mary Matheson Williamson of Pine Apple, Ala., who loves to fix people's hair.

Her first customer was her roommate, Margery Carey, Orlando, Fla. She was closely followed by Eleanor Pollard, Asheville, and Eleanor Hope Newell, Orlando, Fla. These three were given bangs, but not all alike, for that would cramp "Willie's" style.

Several days later, Jeannette Dougherty, Coronado, Calif., appeared with a very original hair-do. Her hair was pulled tightly back and tied high on her head with a black ribbon. The ends were curled under and left hanging down the back of her head.

That same day Barbara Corpening, Granite Falls, had a new hair-do, too; her hair was pulled up on top of her head and twisted into a roll.

When asked why she liked to fix people's hair, "Willie" answered, "Since I can never seem to fix my own hair to suit me, I find someone who can wear the style I dream up and fix it for her."

If you're tired of fixing your hair the same old way, go up to second floor West Wing and let "Willie" do something about it. You'll be sure of having a fancy new hair style—and a large interested audience.

Circle Taps Five To Become Members In Midnight Walk

Betsy Blundon, Charleston, W. Va.; Katherine Clark, Lynchburg, Va.; Cynthia McCaw, Bristol, R. I.; Margaret Norfleet, Jackson; and Margaret Lee Payne, Newport News, Va., were tapped members of the Circle at an impressive ceremony Monday night, Nov. 25, when the Circle "walked" at midnight.

Martha Conger, Edenton, president of the Circle, led the procession into the open area between West Wing, Holt Hall, and the dining room. Following her were the three last year's members, Elizabeth "Liddy Bett" Myatt, Goldsboro; Peggy Swindell, Washington; and Jean Roberts, Durham. These old members brought the new members out of hiding and placed them in the group. Each member had her candle lit from the torch Martha Conger held.

After the solemn service old and new members gathered in the Hut for an informal party.
