

'Sentimental Reasons' One of Today's Most Popular Hit Songs

"I love you for sentimental reasons" is a fragment from the most popular song of the moment. The Brown Dots, a vocal and instrumental group resembling the Ink Spots, do a new and different arrangement of it that is good listening. Charlie Spivak also has an excellent recording of this.

Along the same line is a number called "I'm Through With Love" from the new King Cole Trio Album on Capitol records. This is a wonderful record done in inimitable King Cole Trio style, and the album is a must for Trio fans.

NEWEST JAZZ RECORDS

Strictly on the jazz side is Count Basie's "The King" with "Blue Skies" on the other side of the platter. These songs are really hot senders recorded for Columbia.

IN A SENTIMENTAL MOOD

For the sentimental record collectors there is a record different from the usual type. It's "Melody of Love" as arranged by Wayne King and his orchestra and featuring Franklin McCormick. It's different in that the vocalist speaks the lyrics instead of singing them. This is really an outstanding record with a beautiful vocal smoothly accompanied.

NOVEL SONGS

"The Old Lamplighter" is fast climbing to the top of the list of hit tunes. Kay Kyser has a grand recording of it. Frank Sinatra's newest is that novelty song, "There's an Awful Lot of Coffee in Brazil." And finally there's "Years and Years Ago," a new song best recorded by Dick Haymes.

Town Talk

Pledge dances at State were really wonderful; Frances Bickett, Betty Lou Byrd, "Trina" Blake, Betty Hobby, Betsy Tom Lawrence, Armeccia Eure, and "Prissy" Dillon are all ready to verify that statement. Betty Lou said her grand time was partly caused by a carburetor's being fixed for only $15.

Among those who had a "perfectly divine" week-end at Carolina are Elizabeth Kiser, Barbara Sibley, Shirley Fox, Vivian Ellis, "Prissy" Dillon, Betsy Tom Lawrence, Lillian Evans, and Nell Fulghum. From all reports, T. Dorsey and band were "really solid"—the 19 members who showed up, that is.

Even those who stayed in Raleigh last week-end had fun—says Rebecca Smith. He came all the way from Wake Forest to see her!

Georgia Stathacos' mother and sister Esther (a last year's business student) are flying to Chicago soon, and even Georgia is excited.

Wonder who that good-looking man was who took Shirley Fox out on her birthday? It's rumored he's wearing out the Raleigh-Chapel Hill highway!

★ ★ CAMPUS NOTES ★ ★

The Rev. Mark Jenkins, Calvary Church, Fletcher, after attending a meeting of the Board of Trustees of Saint Mary's, remained as a guest of Miss Mabel Morrison on Wednesday, Nov. 20.

Latest reports from Mr. Eliot Stoughton are that he is satisfactorily progressing.

On Wednesday, Nov. 15, the Rev. I. Harding Hughes baptized in the chapel Laura Eliza Arnzen Chace, daughter of Mary Wiatt Chace, Los Angeles, Calif. Laura's mother is a Saint Mary's graduate and was also baptized by Mr. Hughes.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard G. Stone and the Rev. and Mrs. I. Harding Hughes were guests at a dinner given by the Rev. and Mrs. James Dick Tuesday, Nov. 19.

Kate Johnson, '46, and Patsy Johnson, ex '48, Tarboro, visited the campus Nov. 16 as guests of Mary Beth Kittrel and Sue Stowers.

Mrs. J. K. Sheek, Mocksville, visited her daughter, Lettie Sheek, Nov. 23.

Mary Ann Rose, Henderson, was the guest of Grace Jones and Mary Lou Kimball Nov. 16.

Sarah Ann Proctor, Marion, visited Clara Justice the weekend of Nov. 23.

Betsy Thomson, '45, Charlotte, visited the campus the weekend of Nov. 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel E. Griffin and son, Edward, Eustis, Fla., will visit the campus the weekend of Nov. 30.

Mrs. Matthew Burke, Baltimore, visited Jacqueline Burke Nov. 16.

Miss Florence Davis is in Morristown, N. J., with her sister, Miss Daisy Davis, who underwent a successful operation Monday, November 18.

The Rev. I. Harding Hughes went to Greensboro to take part in a funeral on Wednesday, November 20.

Dr. Sid Alexander was a visitor on the campus Sunday, Nov. 17, accompanied by the Rev. William J. Gordon, Jr., and Dr. Alexander's sister, Miss Alice Alexander, a former Alumnae Secretary at Saint Mary's.

Mrs. I. Harding Hughes entertained her book club on Tuesday, Nov. 19.

Ruby Leigh Williams, ex '48, Roanoke Rapids, visited the campus Nov. 21.

Miss Martha Wilkenson, Miss Anna Graham, and Miss Ann Arthur attended the fall concert of the Greensboro Orchestra at Woman's College Sun., Nov. 17.

Nancy Hamel has been elected secretary-treasurer of Orchesis.

The Letter Club is planning to sell Saint Mary's hats and seals in the near future and will send girls around to take orders.

Like Poetry?

THE COIN

Into my heart's treasury
I slipped a coin
That time cannot take
Nor a thief purloin.
Oh, better than the minting
Of a gold-crowned king
Is the safe-kept memory
Of a lovely thing.

SARA TEASDALE.

FOG

The fog comes on little cat feet.
It sits looking over harbor and city
on silent haunches
and then moves on.

CARL SANDBURG.

THE SOUL OF A BUTTERFLY

The thing that breaks Hell's prison bars,
And heals the sea of shame,
Is a fragile butterfly's great soul,
And Beauty is its name.

From VACHEL LINDSAY'S
Collected Poems.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

There is so much bad in the best of us
And so much good in the worst of us,
That it little behooves any of us
To talk about the rest of us.

ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON.

Fads 'n Fashions

Cold weather, hair blowing, girls snuggling closer inside their fur coats—this has been the scene around the Saint Mary's campus.

Speaking of fur coats, have you noticed the new coat Gene Hines has been sporting? Leopard is perfect on you, Gene.

BIRTHDAY FURS

Betsy Tom Lawrence got the best looking furs you've ever seen for her birthday.

Notice how well all Mildred Chamberlain's clothes go with her dark complexion and brown eyes?

Ribbons always come in handy. Gene Rose wears different colored taffeta ribbons on her hair that she can wear on every occasion! That's economy.

"CHANGING" CLUB

Ask Elizabeth Silver, Trina Blake, Nancy Holland, or Mary Lou Pratt about the "Changing Clothes" club. They got up last week-end for the State Homecoming dance.

A black skirt worn with a black wool jersey blouse and a WIDE tan leather belt was Ruth Clark's costume the other day. Black is your color, Ruth.

Better start pulling out your best for the Thanksgiving week-end. This is what we've been waiting for!

State Art Society Sponsors Exhibit To Open Dec. 4

To celebrate its twentieth anniversary, the North Carolina State Art Society is sponsoring as its annual exhibition a show of works of North Carolina artists to open Dec. 4 at the State Art Gallery. All artists who were born in the state or who have lived here at least one year have been invited to send entries from which the paintings for the exhibition will be chosen.

DISTINGUISHED JURY

A jury of three well-known persons in the art field—Mrs. Juliana Force, director, Whitney Museum of Art; Thomas Colt, director, Virginia Museum of Fine Arts; and Lamarr Dodd, head of the art department, University of Georgia—will judge the entries on Dec. 2.

The annual meeting will open at 8:00 p. m. at the Hotel Sir Walter, where a member of the curatorial staff of Whitney Museum of Art will give an illustrated lecture on the works of Winslow Homer. Following the lecture there will be a reception and a preview of the exhibition at the Gallery.

MANY OUTSTANDING ARTISTS

The artists of North Carolina have so far sent over 250 paintings, and many more are expected to arrive soon. Among these are many entries from artists now in the state and others from native North Carolinians whose works are at some of the large galleries in the country.

PARDON YOUR ACCENT

A new England student, new to the South as well as to Saint Mary's, was complaining about her grades. Her teacher asked her why.

"Well," replied the student, "I can't understand you. You see, I'm a Northerner, and I'm having the worst time trying to understand what the Southerners say. I guess that's the reason I can't understand you."

The teacher, Mrs. Harlan C. Brown, slowly smiled. "I'm from Massachusetts," she answered.

Library Notes

Among the newest books received in the Saint Mary's school library is Russia on the Way, by Harrison Salisbury, chief of the United Press Bureau in Russia for eight months. He gives a vivid picture of modern Russia and a basis for an American understanding of that country.

Memories of an Old-Time Tarheel, by Kemp Plummer Battle, tells of North Carolina life from 1830 to 1880. In this book the author endeavors to do "more than chronicle my personal history. I wish to throw light on the history of the state during my time."