Holt Juniors Give Picnic For Seniors At Hut Wednesday

Frolicking and picnicking at the Hut Wednesday evening, May 28, the juniors on second floor Holt entertained the seniors on their hall at a graduation party.

With a piece of cherished bubble gum and a surprise present for each graduate, the girls enjoyed roasting marshmallows, drinking Pepsies, and eating tossed salad and hot dogs.

In charge of the party were Virginia Smith, Ridley Park, Pa.; Logan Vaught, Winston-Salem; Molly Williams, High Point; Lenoir Williams, Dunn; Jacqueline White, Greensboro; and Lucy Brewer, Oxford.

Is Your Grandma Missin'?

"Has your grandmother been hiding in Jo Anne Quinn's trunk all winter?" Someone's has. When Jo opened her trunk, which has been locked during the cold months, she found a picture of a little grey-haired lady. Where the mystery portrait came from no one knows, but the lady now perches peacefully on Jo's dresser. Requiescat in pace.

Business Students Hold Class Picnic

No business student pounded on a typewriter Wednesday afternoon, May 28, for from 2 o'clock until 7:00 the students gathered for a swimming party and weiner roast at the home of Jean Stearns, Raleigh.

The class presented Mrs. Charles Goodno, their instructor, with a salad mixer and bowl set as a token of their appreciation for her help and kindness in their work, according to Betty Lou Bird, president of the business group.

Mu's Defeat Sigma's to Receive Saint Mary's Plaque

Amid the cheers of the wearers of the Blue and White, the Athletic Plaque was awarded to the Mu's by "Merlin Stone" at the Last Tournament of the Knights of the Round Table.

With King Arthur (Betty Anne) Cooper as Toastmaster, the Sigmas and Mu's gathered in the dining hall for a final banquet. The program opened with toasts to Merlin (Dr. Richard) Stone by Sir Tristram (Mary Lou) Pratt, to King Mark (Mrs. W. C.) Guess by Sir Galahad (Virginia) Smith, and to the Duke of Astolat (Miss Anna) Graham by Sir Percival (Elizabeth) Childs.

Following this, the New Leaders of the Orders of the Blue and Red Knights (Sigma and Mu officers) were announced, and the Nobles to be Knighted for various Feats (outstanding athletes) were announced. After the presentation of the Three Most Worthy Knights (three outstanding athletes) and the Final Tribute (presentation of the Athletic Plaque), Taps was sung by the entire group.

Orchesis Elect Nancy Cumming

Nancy Cumming, Augusta, Ga., has been elected president of Orchesis, dancing club sponsored by Mrs. William C. Guess.

Nancy is a member of the sophomore class. Last year at Saint Mary's she was a member of the Woman's Auxiliary, the Dramatic club, and the Mu athletic society. This year she is a dance marshal, a circle leader in the Woman's Auxiliary, and a member of Orchesis.

Sophomores Enjoy Picnic At Hut

Enjoying hot dogs and all the trimmings, members of the sophomore class had their annual picnic at the recreation hut on the campus last Sunday night. Class officers were in charge of the food and entertainment.

Miss Anna Graham Helps Direct Play

The Raleigh Little Theater presented the play You Can't Take It With You May 12-16 as its sixth production of the season. Play director Melvin Pape was aided by Miss Anna Graham, assistant director and Saint Mary's physical education teacher.

A Good Athlete Is A Clean Sport

News and Views of Sig's and Mu's

Another athletic year has ended. The Mu's have won plaque, and the outstanding athletes have been announced.

For accumulating 210 points in sports this year, Sybbe Green named the outstanding athlete Mary Nelson Smithwick with 100 points, also won awards as outstanding athletes.

Outstanding in the various sports were Frances Drane in volleyball; Nellie Truslow in volleyball; Mary Lou Pratt in swimming; Nancy Riddleberger in tennis; V. Smith in hockey; Sarah Childs in softball; Nell Fulghum in badminton; Tumpie Hudson dancing; and Betsy Ann Evans in the posture contest. These girls received medals.

Win Stars

For placing third in a polo horsemanship contest at Meredith, Mary Pierce won a blue and white felt star. Nancy Riddleberger won a star. Mary Nelson Smithwick and Barbara Pope, who took second and third place in the tournament were awarded stars as they are already in the Letter Club.

The swimming team, which responds to an all-star team, another sport, is composed of Harriett Barnwell, Jo Cooper, Jo Ann Darden, Sarah Lou Davis, Barbara Pope, Mary Nelson Smithwick, Jo Ann Darden, Frances Drane, Sybbe Green, Nellie Truslow, Musette Brown, Nell Fulghum, Tut Barbee, Betty McAllister.

For her competent management of the golf team, Ann Lanier has been awarded a star.

Softball Team

Rose Potter and Helen Barbee were the only All-Star softball players to win stars. The other members of the team, who already have stars, are Sande Childs, Barbara Pope, Mary Nelson Smithwick, Jo Ann Darden, Frances Drane, Sybbe Green, Nellie Truslow, Musette Brown, Nell Fulghum, Tut Barbee, Betty McAllister.

The winner of the ping-pong tournament was Mary Nelson Smithwick.

The Mu's continued their winning streak and defeated the Sigma's to win the softball tournament. To the Mu's we say congratulations, and to everyone we offer this quotation from a poem by Grantland Rice, "For when one great Scorer comes to measure against your name, He writes that you won or lost, but how you played the game."

Miss Cate Directs Choir

A joint concert of the Sigma Cecilia chorus, under the direction of Miss Geraldine Cate, and the Raleigh Male Chorus, under the direction of Clifford Bair, presented Friday night, May 28, at 8:30 in Saint Mary's auditorium. The singers were accompanied by a string ensemble.
