

Vol. Xo. No. 12 0

1948

n

gI

J. C.

Will

chief

ather nkins

infre

-491

Sain

of th

mar

Saint

mai

lation

amin

dran0 ie is

11ph

Sign

001

tor

s stat

aid

ghter

Clu

y, Ju nd W

Her

and of nati

ead

it. heatre

versit

th A val

ciat

Mar.

chol

ooin

es

W

vh0

vho vhile n shor ller, the st Sain il th

in Care

Gre

ther

instru

Sylvia Newson Wins As 'Posture Queen'

Betsy Carter, Catherine Thomas Take Second and Third Place

Sylvia Newson, a Sigma from Charlotte, copped top honors in the recent posture contest at SMS and Was crowned Posture Queen in as-^{sembly} April 29. Coming close behind Sylvia to win second place was Sigma Betsy Carter; and another Sigma, Catherine Thomas, placed third.

Graded individually on walking, walking upstairs, standing, and sitting, other entries in the contest were Sigmas Nancy Hannah and Jean Allan Price. Mu's were Betsy Evans, Mary Catherine English, Martha Upchurch, Martha Mc-Guirk, and Barbara Parrish.

Sponsored by the Letter Club, of which Virginia Smith is president, the climactic crowning of the queen Was preceded by a good posture campaign. Posters, an assembly pro-gram, and "I've been slumping" tags added to the effectiveness of the cam-Paign.

Peggy Misenheimer was crowned Miss Slump since she wore a tag having the greatest number of additional checks for slumping.

Judges in the contest were Miss Elizabeth Bason, home economics instructor; Dick Dickey, State baskethall player; and Ainslie Pryor, director of the Raleigh Listle Theater.

Martha Dabney Jones, dean of stu-dents, announces that "A decided ^{in provement} has been noticed. Let's ^{keep} it up !"

Bob Spilman, a KA at State from Statesville, is the newly elected "Beau of the Belles." See why?

Edwards M. Gwathmey Will Speak at SMS For Finals, June 7

Dr. Edward M. Gwathmey, President of Converse College, Spartanburg, S. C., will deliver the commencement address at 10:30, June 7, in Saint Mary's auditorium.

Dr. Gwathmey has been president of Converse since 1933. Prior to that he was a member of the faculty of William and Mary and director of the Norfolk division of William and Mary. He is a graduate of the University of Richmond and received his Ph.D. at the University of Virginia and his LL.D. at the University of South Carolina.

He is married and has three children, two of whom are students at Converse.

Judges Choose Bob Spilman 'King' of SMS in Contest

Bob Brunson, Preston Andrews, Don Evans. Tom Gower Also Take Places of Honor

For a whole week scads of goodlookin' men have been literally hanging from the walls of Saint Mary's study hall. This group of luscious looking homo sapiens composed the gallery for the Beau of the BELLES contest.

At last! The judges have made their final decision and all eyes turn to that handsome "hunk o' man" who holds the key to the hearts of all Saint Mary's girls. He is none other than Bob Spilman of Statesville. This 22 year old Adonis goes to N. C. State where he is majoring in Kappa Alpha and minoring in tex-

Bob also attended Augusta Military Academy and Davidson College.

Lelia DuPre Wins As New Secretary Of Hall Council

Lelia DuPre, Rome, Georgia, will succeed Sarah Barbee as secretary of the Hall Council next year. Chosen in run-off elections Monday and Tuesday, she defeated Phyllis Costner, Betsy Shepherd, Rosa Little, and Robbie Robertson.

During Lelia's first year at SMS she has received Hall Council training as a hall representative. Recently she was tapped by the Order of the Circle, Saint Mary's Honor society, and she has been an active member of the YWCA.

Last year at Rome High School Lelia was a member of the staff of her school paper, a member of the band, and was in the senior class play.

Circle Taps Five New Members Into Society

Drane, Brown, DuPre, Hamel, Moore Receive Highest Honor Given at Saint Mary's

The Circle, Saint Mary's honor society, tapped Frances Drane, Jeanne Brown, Lelia DuPre, Nancy ceremony of the year Tuesday night. April 27.

To be chosen a member of the Circle is one of the highest honors that a Saint Mary's girl can receive. They are chosen from the sophomore, junior, senior and business classes on the basis of dependability, stability, driving force, school spirit, and individuality.

During the war he served in the Army Air Corps. Bob admits, without hesitation, that he prefers blondes to all other types of females. When sports are mentioned his heart about" clothes. Congratulations, you lucky individual. We all l-o-v-e you!

Bob Brunson of Wilson walked off with second place. He attended Wake Forest and the University of Pennsylvania. For some strange reason Bob is wild about Cuba. His gorgeous picture was entered by Nellie Truslow.

Preston Andrews, third place win-ner, also goes to N. C. State, where he is a PIKA. This goodlooking 22 year old is the brother of Blanche Andrews and hails from Charlotte.

Dan Evans, Betsy Evans' brother, copped fourth place. During the war this attractive 23 year old served in the Navy. He is taking a post graduate course at Carolina where he is a Kappa Alpha.

Cudly Tommy Gower, nephew of Jane, crawled away with fifth place. He is pushing 18 months, has a great wit about him, and thoroughly enjoys admiring his beauty in the mirror.

Judges for the contest were Jane Lassiter, editor of the Twig at Meredith; Johnnie Stevens, editor of the annual at Peace; and Mrs. Doris Neeley, Saint Mary's librarian.

Yowell Names Temporary Editors for Next Year

Betty Ann Yowell, editor of the Belles, has announced temporary editors for the paper next year. These editors, who were approved by C. A. P. Moore, faculty advisor, are serving in their new capacities the last three issues this year.

The newly chosen editors are Catherine Campbell, Assistant Editor; Lucille Best, News Editor; Alice Lide, Feature Editor; Barbara Wooten, Headline Editor; Connie Newton, Editorial Editor; and Barbara Miller, head copyreader.

Letter Club Entertains With Picnic at "The Hut"

With hot dogs, marshmallows, and many good eats the Letter Club entertained at a picnic supper at the hut Tuesday, April 27.

New members of the Club who attended were Mary Blair Bowers, Ann Moore, Eleanor Hope Newell, Charlotte Wallin, Sylvia Newsom, Rose Potter, Sara Ann Proctor, Robbie Roberson and Dot Teague.

SMS Letter Club Presents Comic Skit Directed By Prof. E. Barbee

To introduce the posture camalgn, to the student body, Saint ry's Letter Club, of which Virsinia Smith is president, presented a comical posture skit Tuesday, parbee the way given in arbee, the program was given in auditorium during assembly period

Tut, the guest professor lecturer Barbee, decked in a long robe, bened the program. While she was Coursing on posture, two lady gos-Kines, elopped down the aisle and louder at their friends' bad budly discussed their friends' bad

The woman in black, Jo Darden, hisband had died of T.B. because mourning down the aisle. Her slumped. She wailed throughout in the balcony. Plant Succeeds Hines As Chief Dance Marshal Meredith Plant, Macon, Georgia,

Peggy Misenheimer and Edith

Allison illustrated the "deb slouch," will succeed Gene Hines, Greenwood, as chief dance marshal next year. Hamel, and Ann Moore in the third Chosen in an election April 27, Meredith defeated Virginia Cobb, Ann Burnette, and Frances Clark.

(See page 4, col. 1)

During her first year at Saint Mary's Meredith has been a dance marshal, a member of the BELLES headline staff, the Woman's Auxiliary, the Dramatic Club, the Swimming Club, and she is a Sigma. Last year at Miller High School in Macon she was a cheerleader.