Freshman, Sophomore Classes Elect Officers To Serve For '48-'49 Term

Perkins, Oettinger, Williamson,
Jennings Chosen by Sophomores

Cynthia Perkins, Evelyn Oettinger, Betty Ann Williamson, and Lyn Jennings emerged victorious from the sophomore class elections, October 27, as president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively. All old reputations for themselves last year that led to their being elected class officers for the school year '48-'49.

"Cindy" Perkins from Florence, South Carolina, is in her second year at Saint Mary's. She kept the records in line last year as secretary of the Freshman Class, and participated in Stage Coach work.

Twice vice-president of her class, Evelyn Oettinger, Kinston, has joined in many extra-curricular activities, among them the Swimming Club.

Betty Ann Williamson, newly elected secretary, is from Cerro Gordo. She is known at Saint Mary's because of her accomplishments in the Choir and Glee Club.

The "money-man" of the Class is Lyn Jennings, from Ponte Vedra, Florida, and she has proved her ability by being elected twice consecutively as class treasurer. She also participated in the Dramatic Club and the Woman's Auxiliary.

FULTON LEADS FRESHMEN

Barbara Fulton, Tina McNulty, Nedra Gilmore, and Lou Ann Watkins were selected as officers of the Freshman Class at a meeting held October 28. Rachel Cozart was chosen president in a meeting the week before.

Barbara Fulton, Walnut Cove, is the vice-president. Last year at high school she was the manager of the basketball team. She is a Mu, on the Stagecoach staff, and is a member of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Tina McNulty, Columbia, S. C., was chosen secretary. Last year at high school she was president of her home room. She is a Mu.

Nedra Gilmore, Nichol, S. C., was elected treasurer. She is a member of the Doctors' Daughters and Granddaughters' Clubs, and is a Sigma.

Legislature body member is Lou Ann Watkins. She is from Henderson, and is a Mu.
