Students Present 'Peace On Earth,' Radio Nativity Drama, Monologues

Joe Callaway, Entertainer, Actor, Speaks On Current Broadway Plays

Ellen Rixey Interviews Joe Callaway

Joseph Callaway, sponsored by the Saint Mary's dramatic department, gave a lecture in the school auditorium on December 9.

Mr. Callaway presented reviews and criticisms of some of the most outstanding plays now on Broadway. Mr. Callaway recommended "Mr. Roberts," a story of sailors on board a mail-carrier ship, from which he cited several humorous incidents: "A Street Car Named Desire," a moralistic play; "Inside U.S.A.," a musical comedy which he considered one of the best plays of its type, and "Command Decisions," which is a very serious play concerning the war. Mr. Callaway also gave sketches from several other plays.

After his lecture, he held a discussion period, during which time he answered various questions asked by the audience.
