Students Pick New Officers, Editors

Fulton, Brundage, Best, Bowles
Head Government, Publications

Saint Mary's student body recently elected Helen Brundage, chairman of the hall council; Aurelia Fulton, vice-president of the student body; Betty Bowles, editor of the Bulletin; and Lucile Best, editor of the Stage Coach in recently held elections.

Helen Brundage, a junior from Tryon, has been at Saint Mary's for three years. This year she has served on the honor council and Bulletin. She is a member of the Altar Guild, the Glee Club, and the Sigma Pi Alpha. She is also vice-president of the Y.W.C.A., and editor of the Student Handbook for next year.

Aurelia Fulton, Walnut Cove, will be vice-president of the student body for the coming year. Aurelia served as associate editor of the Stage Coach and president of the Canterbury Club this year. She is also a dance marshal and an active member of both the Dramatic Club and the Altar Guild. A Mu, Aurelia is captain of the Letter Club and member of the Mu basketball team.

Betty Bowles, Statesville, who has been an active worker on the Bulletin staff for the past three years, is also a member of the Stage Coach staff, Sigma Pi Alpha, the Y.W.C.A., the Dramatic Club, and the E.A.P. literary society. As secretary of the sophomore class last year and president of this year's junior class, Betty, a Mu, also belongs to the Letter Club, the first basketball team, and the Swimming club.

Lucile Best, Clinton, has been associate editor of the Stage Coach this year. Lucile is also legislative body representative of her class, the head cheerleader, a committee chairman in the Canterbury Club, and secretary of Orchesis. Lucile's position as news editor of the BELLES shows her interest in other publications as well as the Stage Coach.

Huske, Gaither, Ray Capture Elections

Gaither, Ray Win Honor Council Posts; Huske Leads Class

Rosalie Huske was elected president of the senior class and Jo Gaither and Betty Ray were elected honor council representatives in elections held immediately preceding spring vacation. Other candidates for senior class president were Jo Gaither, Sara Ann Proctor, Betty Ray, Anne Cahoon, and Carolyn Kizer. The other candidates for honor council representatives were Betsy Brown, Carolyn Kizer and Anne Cahoon.

Rosalie, a junior from Fayetteville, is a new girl this year. She is secretary of the legislative body, on the nominating committee, in the Canterbury Club, and a Sigma.

This is Jo Gaither's second year at Saint Mary's. She is vice-president of the Granddaughters' Club, vice-president of the Altar Guild, on the Stage Coach advertising staff, honor council, Bulletin staff, in Sigma Pi Alpha, Glee club, Canterbury Club, and is a Sigma.

During her first year at Saint Mary's, Betty Ray has taken an active part in school activities, especially as president of the junior class. She is in the Canterbury club, Sigma Pi Alpha, Granddaughters' club, choir, on the Stage Coach staff, BELLES staff, and a Mu.

SMITH LEADS DAY BELLES

Ann Badger Smith won the election for president of the day students on Monday, March 28. Other candidates for the office were Eliza Chipley, Ann McKenzie, and Barbara Daniel. Eliza Chipley was Ann Badger's opponent in the final run-off.

Ann Badger is a third-year student at Saint Mary's. She is a member of the Stage Coach advertising staff, the hockey and basketball teams, and is a Mu.

Sigma Pi Alpha Has Annual Convention

Dance and Banquet Highlight Meeting of Eighteenth Congress

Saint Mary's Pi Chapter acted as host to members of Sigma Pi Alpha, honorary foreign language fraternity, which held its annual meeting in Raleigh on April 9.

Following the registration of the delegates, who arrived from Catawba, Peace, Meredith, Mitchell, E.C.T.C. and State College, a business meeting was held at 2:00 p. m. in the auditorium. After the welcome delivered by Miss Martha Dabney Jones, the national president, John Upchurch, addressed the gathering.

The Pi Chapter entertained at a reception and tea in the Smedes parlor immediately following the business meeting.

A banquet and dance were held Saturday evening at the Woman's Club for members and advisers of Sigma Pi Alpha. Heading the banquet program was the invocation delivered by Dr. L. E. Hinkle, followed by the presentation of notables by Dr. A. M. Fountain.

Phyllis Costner, president of the Pi chapter, introduced the principal speaker of the evening, Dr. Rhoda E. Edmeston. Following Dr. Edmeston's address, Dr. Hinkle made the award presentations. The election and installation of new officers brought the convention to an end.

Saint Mary's members of the Pi chapter who served as committee chairmen in planning the event were the following: Barbara Miller, registration; Helen Brundage, identification; Betty Anne Yowell, dance plans; Aurelia Fulton, dance decorations; Ann Moore, directing; Blanche Andrews, refreshments for tea; Jackie Mur-
