TOWN TALK

In spite of approaching exams, the day students took time off to enjoy the parties and final dances of the closing school season. Those who took a recess from exam cramming this past week-end are Janet Linker and Phyllis Kelly; these two were sponsors for the Freshman Dance at State. It seems as if "Kissable Hicks" passed the endurance test, for she was there with her latest love. June Bullard deserted Raleigh last week-end; she went home to see her old crowd in New Bern again. She says it was grand, but it sure meant havoc on exams;

Mary Mar and Bert declare that Chapel Hill was the center of attraction last week-end. They attended Carolina's Finals and reported a gay time. Ask 'em about the Skit Club!

With all the last minute preparations of graduation and all that studying before them, the seniors this week-end were a little less relaxed than our underclassmen. After graduation we will be losing some of our best girls; Rita Burton will no longer be charging through the day students' room with her make-up on for play rehearsal, and Nancy Duckett won't be looking for her sociology book. Betty Debnam won't be worrying about English and Anne Dewey will no longer yell, "O.K., girls! Let's get this room straightened up!" With Margaret Morris gone there'll be no one here to open the door for early arrivals at eight o'clock, while Jinny's smile and Joyce's many talents will be just as sorely missed.

Everyone will be leaving now for summer vacations. The day students take this opportunity to wish everyone a wonderful summer. See you all next fall!

THE GRADUATES' FUTURES

It's going to be a great day for about ninety seniors and thirty sophomores when they receive their diplomas on June 6. Anne Burnette doesn't seem to be too anxious to get away from this school life; she plans to go to the first term of Carolina summer school just to get the hang of things over there. She's going to school there next fall, too. No more of the school life for Ann Johnson and Ruth Morrisett! They are heading straight for a house party at Virginia Beach. Charlotte Holmes plans to see the Atlantic from the Virginia shore also. Charlotte and Johnson are both going to R.P.I. next year. Mary Jo Wagner and Ann Duncan will be right with them. Ruth Morrisett and Catherine Campbell are going back to Lynchburg and Randolph-Macon.

Betsy Shepherd and Betty Foreman plan to tour Europe this summer. Another girl who will be seeing those far-away places is Frances Drane. She plans to go to the "land of the Eskimo"—Alaska. Wedding bells will be ringing on three occasions—Mary Smith, Katy Evans, and Jo Ann Pinmer seem to have the same plan in mind.

Morehead and Wrightsville will be popular places for Saint Mary's girls as usual. Peggy Williams plans to go to both. Come September 1, she plans to take up residence in Chapel Hill. Tiney Guion's and Liba Kornegay's calendars follow this same plan.

Rosalyn Senseney's and Ann Whitener's summer plans are indefinite at the present, but they are positive about going to South Carolina next year. For Pat Ambrose, Ellen Rixey, Nelle Clark,

Jackie Murray, Phyllis Costner, and Helen Roberson there's only one Carolina, and that one is North Carolina.

Betsy Carter and Betty Byrnes are going up to New York to Parson's School of Design. Jeanne Brown, Anne Bradley, Betty Langley, Lelia DuPre, and Ladre King are going down to Georgia. Martha Wallace is going still farther south to Florida to school.

Mary Giles Stewart, Nancy Spoolman, Mary Catherine English, and Martha Zachary make up the Woman's College delegation of boarders, and Carolyn Watson, Barbara Miller, and Nancy Bogart are going to be day students.

First on Mary Suratt's list is Glen Rock, N. J. Then she is going to Florida, Alabama, and the Adirondacks. Frances Clark hopes to realize her lifelong ambition and work as a receptionist in a doctor's office. Virginia Cobb is still undecided between Salem or Duke. Marjorie Story will stay in Raleigh, but transfer to Meredith.

Mary McNaughton will go to Wesleyan, Connie Newton to E.C.T.C., and Minor Jordon to business school. Most of the Belles seem to follow the regular pattern which is, of course, Carolina. Dot Teague, Rosa Little, Marion Turner, Ruth Sikes, Sue Lanier, Betty Ann Yowell, Sally Thomas, Betsy Jones, Jean Hoggard, Caro Davis, Edith Allison, Ann Townsend, and Frances Minter are all going over to the Hill.

The sophomores are getting that Virginia Beach yearn also. Lila Camp and Betty Bevan have hopes of a house party there. Lila and Betty are both returning to

"GhostRiders" Tops Hit Parade Heights

The ten top tunes of "The Hit Parade" seem to have coincided with the choices of the Saint Mary's Belles! Vaughn Monroe's Victor recording of Ghost Riders in the Sky is too good to miss. The song, by the way, took the number one spot again for the second time. Forever and Ever still held its own as number two; Perry Como's recording of it is excellent, and its flipover is song number eight, I Don't See Me in Your Eyes Any More. "Our Best to You" proved that Need You deserved to be tune number three. Jo Stafford has recorded it with You're Adorable as its flipover. Still in the top ten is Again; Mel Torme's record of it with Blue Moon on the other side proves to be a fine combination. Don't miss it! Capital has put out Margaret Whiting's recording of the number four tune, Someone Like You; Raleigh's disc jockeys judge it to be one of the best.

From the New York production, South Pacific, has come Some Enchanted Evening to be number seven. Perry does a good job of enchanting his listeners on his recording of it. Changing the rhythm a bit, Tommy Dorsey's Huckle Buck provides a good shagging tempo. Chicken Shack Boogie will probably be heard at most of the beaches this summer along with these top ten. And speaking of beaches—put a nickel in the juke box, Trade Winds, 'cause here we come!

Saint Mary's this fall. Buttercup McGuirk will be back at Saint Mary's next year too. Buttercup plans to take in Alabama and Ponte Vedra this summer.

Pat Cohoon and Mary Ann Robinson will transfer to Duke next year. Pat is looking forward to Nags Head this summer; Lyn Jennings is leaving for Florida and Rollins. Cynthia Perkins plans to spend the summer in Philadelphia deciding whether to go to University of Delaware or Smith, and Alice is also going north, to Wellesly. However, she is in no hurry to leave South Carolina and Ocean Drive!

Amelia Townsend and Carol Mahon are going to Converse. Carol's summer plans include Pawleys, Myrtle, and Linville. Ruth Maultsby is going to a business school in Wilmington.

Among those returning next year to Saint Mary's are Ida Creel, Becky Moose, Evelyn Oettinger, Stella Cobbs, Tonia Rowe, Caroline Colby, Franky Allen and Ann Nicol. Mary Ruth Ruble is getting a trip to Florida for her graduation present. Bee Douglas is returning to Saint Mary's next year, but meanwhile Pawley's Island is on her agenda.

Emma Lou White is still debating between Mary Washington and Saint Mary's. She has a New York trip planned for this summer. Millie Cobb is coming to Saint Mary's, but in the meantime she can't wait to get to Morhead. Betty Cheek is looking forward to going to a wedding in Mississippi—not her own. She's coming back to Saint Mary's next year, too. Pat George is going home to Chapel Hill and be a day student at Carolina next year.
