Anne Dunn, of Greenville, visited Miss M. D. Jones and thanked her for not letting her do what she wanted to do one night. It seems that Anne, by complying with Miss Jones' wishes, met the boy she is now engaged to. Anne is now studying at Eastern Carolina Teachers' College.

Sarah Anne Proctor and Gloria Farnell visited their old friends here at Saint Mary's recently. They seem to be enjoying Carolina.

The faculty house has practically ceased to be a faculty house this year; four new girls have almost turned it into a dormitory. Betty Bullington, of Spartanburg, South Carolina, also calls the faculty house her home. Betty is a sophomore. Students Present Stunt Night First East Wing Wins Prize

Presidents Explain Clubs To New Girls

Evelyn Oettinger, assembly chairman, opened the year's first assembly program in the auditorium September 26. The major purposes of the meeting were to introduce the various school clubs to the new girls and to acquaint everyone with the seating arrangement.

After everyone was settled in her correct place, Louise Milliken, president of the Order of the Circle, opened the program by describing the Circle as an organization which involves the principles of service, fellowship, citizenship, and scholarship. Membership in this organization is based upon individual merit.

Clairene Harris spoke of the aims of the Beacon, the honorary organization for high school girls, and the qualifications necessary for membership.

Alice Hicks, president of the Letter Club, explained the main purposes of the athletic program and urged all girls to take an active part in the activities.

Sigma Pi Alpha, the national modern language society, introduced by its president, Katherine Armistead, is also an honorary organization which places scholarship at the head of its requirements.

Following were summaries of the purposes of the voluntary membership clubs and announcements of meetings. The Glee Club was introduced by Betty Ann Williamson, the YWCA, by Nancy Woodruff, the Dramatic Club, by Rebecca Moose, and the Canterbury Club, by Edith Rogers.

Dramatic Club Picks Moose As President

Saint Mary's Dramatic Club elected its officers for the present school year, Thursday, October 4.

Rebecca Moose, of Boone, will serve the club as president. Becky has been at Saint Mary's for the past four years. She is a member of the Canterbury Club, a server, and a Mu. Becky received her speech certificate last year and has been active in the Dramatic Club plays during her four years at Saint Mary's. Becky is Hall Councilor for East Third Smedes.

Katherine Armistead, of Kinston, has been chosen vice-president of the club. Kit, a senior, is a second year girl at Saint Mary's. She is president of the Sigma Pi Alpha and a member of the Glee Club, Canterbury Club, and Hall Council. Kit is a Mu and has also taken part in previous plays.

Juliette Fulghum, of Raleigh, is the new Dramatic Club secretary. Juliette has been active in the club during her two years at Saint Mary's. She is a Mu cheerleader and a member of the Stage Coach advertising staff.

Betty Ruth MacNair, of Wilson, was elected publicity chairman for the club. "Mac" is a new girl and is taking the business course.

Latest Styles From Paris Win Applause: Minstrels Tie Second

Students of Saint Mary's gave their annual stunt night in the auditorium Friday, September 22.

First East Wing took the prize with their most original hat fashion show, direct from Paris. The hats modeled were styled by the girls themselves. There was a "mail hat" made from letters and an "Indian creation." The "clean cut hat" was made from lamb skin. The "hat of convenience" was especially designed for the girl who sews or needs to do any last minute stitching. The "Carolina hat" consisted of everything from the Confederate flag to a bottle opener. The "picture hat" was elegant with various pictures pasted around the brim, and the "N.B.C. hat" resembled a television set. The "cold hat," especially for people with colds, was made entirely of removal handkerchiefs. The "up-to-date hat" was very handy for people who like to know the date, for it was made from calendars. Other hats modeled were the "old fashioned hat," the "cigarette hat," and the "dream hat."

HALLS TIE FOR SECOND PLACE

West third Smedes and second West Wing tied for second place. Both of these halls gave minstrel shows. Third place went to second Holt for their skit, "Filming of a Silent Movie."

OTHER SKITS

Other skits and their halls were a quartet by the day students, "Ballet Class" by second East Wing, "T.B. and the Cotton Pickers" by third East Wing, "The Things We Did Last Summer" by first Holt, "Round the Clock at Saint Mary's" by third Holt, "Modern Melodrama" in pantomime by second Smedes, a quiz program by East second Smedes, "Cinderella" by first West Wing, My Saint Mary's Girl in pantomime by third West Wing, "Sorry Stolen Show" by East Rock, "Stop the Baby" by first West Rock, "Cinderella" by second West Rock.

Orchasis Elects Dorris, Buchley As Club Leaders

Orchasis elected its officers in the gym September 26. The members chose Libba Dorris as president and Lane Buchly as secretary-treasurer.

Libba, a junior, lives in Raleigh. She is a former member of the Beacon and the Dramatic Club, a Mu, and also a member of the Canterbury Club.

Lane is a sophomore from Fort Belvoir, Virginia. She is active in the work of the Canterbury Club, the Glee Club, the Swimming Club and the Sigma's.

Orchasis is a dancing club which was organized at the University of Wisconsin. The dancing teacher there asked her students to start an Orchasis if the opportunity ever arose. Now the clubs are so numerous that they almost form a sorority.
