Sigma-Mu Teams Pick Captains For Games

Morson and Broughton Will Play Teams in Tournament

The Sigma and Mu basketball teams have elected their captains for the forthcoming tournament. The Sigma's elected Nancy Woodruff and the Mu's elected Louise Milliken. Both girls were first string forwards on their teams last year.

Louise is president of the Circle, secretary of Hall Council, president of the Mu's, vice-president of the Doctors' Daughters' Club, and a member of the Canterbury Club, Granddaughters' Club, and Letter Club.

Nancy is president of the YWCA, a vice-counselor, and a member of the Letter Club and the Glee Club.

Both teams are working hard for the first game of the tournament, which will be played February 22. The Sigma-Mu basketball tournament is always one of the high lights of the athletic season and competition will be strong. The Sigma team has won the basketball championship two years in a row and do not want to relinquish their claim this year.

The athletic department has succeeded in scheduling two games with Hugh Morson and Needham Broughton high schools for February 10. The Sigma's will play one of the high school teams and the Mu's will play the other team. The pairings for the games and the time of each will be announced later.

Lauritz Melchior, Opera Tenor, Will Perform At Raleigh Music Concert

Raleigh Civic Music Association will present Lauritz Melchior, Metropolitan Opera tenor, at the Memorial Auditorium tonight.

The sixty-year-old Swedish born singer is now a naturalized American citizen. Mr. Melchior has sung command performances for kings, given concerts for veteran hospitals, and appeared in four motion pictures. He is especially noted for his performance of Wagnerian opera.

One of Lauritz Melchior's favorite pastimes is hunting. He has been on several safaris in Africa as well as rabbit hunts in the south. His favorite food is rare beef and Swedish smorgasbord.

He actually caught his wife. One day, while in his back yard, he saw a burning plane nose-diving toward the earth. One of the women who survived the wreck is the present Mrs. Melchior. The opera star was able to catch her from the flames of the burning plane.

George Roth will accompany Mr. Melchior during his program, which will consist of Steig Sol (Rise, Sun) by Backer-Lunde, Junker Nils Sojanger till Lutan (Swedish) by Andreas Hallen, Med en Primula-veris (With a Violet, Norwegian) by Edvard Greig, Foraarssang (Danish Spring Song) by Fini Henriques.

The second portion of the program consists of piano solos by Mr. Roth entitled Mazurka in A by Chopin and Liebested from "Tristan and Isolde" by Wagner-Lizst.

In the third part of the program will be Siegmond's Love Song from "Die Walkure" by Richard Wagner, Traume, and Walther's Prize from "Die Meistersinger," also by Wagner.

Part four will be comprised of Tschaikowsky's None But the Lonely Heart, Dungan's White Jade, and The Two Grenadiers and Dedication by Schumann.

Mr. Roth returns again in solo for the fifth part of the program. His selections will be Bolero by Ravel and Goblin Dance by Dvorak.

The concluding part of the program will return Mr. Melchior, singing Spring, Come Back to Vienna by Spielman, Lonely Night by Hubay-Stoll, the popular Some Enchanted Evening by Rodgers, and Youman's Without a Song.

Day Students Give Talent Show Program

The day students gave a talent show for the assembly program January 18.

June Bullard, president of the day students, was in charge. Elizabeth Nooe, posing as a social reporter for a Raleigh newspaper, introduced the girls on the program. Jean McGhee served as messenger in the newspaper office.

Naney Lee, accompanied by Jeanette Bull at the piano, did an aerobic dance. June Bullard sang Summerlime, accompanied by Emily Fisher at the piano.

Catherine Bikle, Mary Ann Eaddy, Anna Ball Arthur, and Connie Telfair, wearing "backwoods" costumes, featured in a melodrama, 'Twas a Dark and Stormy Night.

Jeanette Bull, the entertainer from the Saddle Club, wearing a riding habit, played a piano solo, Almost Like Being in Love.

In conclusion, Hagwood, portrayed by Juliet Fulghum wearing a yellow organdy dress with matching picture hat, and Hinkle, portrayed by Libba Dorris wearing a man's outfit, gave a clever pantomime duet, She's a Lady.
