Juniors Give Final Dance For Seniors

The Saint Mary's Juniors will give the annual Junior-Senior dance in honor of the senior class in the gymnasium 8:30 through 12:00 Saturday, May 5.

The members of the junior class decided that the theme will be Deep Purple. Under the guidance of Margaret Cheatham, chairman, the decoration committee has decided that the first two lines of the song Deep Purple will be used to carry out the theme. Strips of lavender and purple crepe paper will cover the ceiling, and silver stars and a lighted moon will shine on the dancers.

Other members of the decoration committee are Marian Faison, Sue Harrison, Ruth Hines, May Holton, Nell Boone Crofton, Sally Hackney, Mary Gage Hammond, Lois Perry, Pat Tankard, Anna Redding, Pat Boesser, Kay Daniel, and Buncy Robinson.

Jan Winders, chairman of the refreshment committee, announced that punch, cookies, and nuts will be served. Other members of the refreshment committee are Virginia Allen, Jess Gant, Ann Nelson, and Shep Rustin.

Connie Edwards, chairman of the band committee, Ann Harless, Betsy Clarke, and Becky Hurt have secured Roy Cole and his band to play for the dance.

Invitations have been extended to all members of the faculty. Bishop and Mrs. Penick, Dr. and Mrs. Stone, Miss Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Moore, and Miss Morrison have been asked to be in the receiving line.

The figure committee, King Risley, chairman, Mary Stuart McKee, Virginia Turley, Peggy Costner, and Lane Buckley, has decided that the figure will begin at 10:30. In the figure will be Anne Rixey, president of the Student Government Association; Ann Nicoll, secretary of the Student Government Association; Martha McGuirk, chairman of the Hall Council; Stella Cobbs, Grace Gordon, Virginia Turley, and Sandra Donaldson, Honor Council members; Virginia Hall, treasurer of the Senior class; Ann Penton, treasurer of the Junior class; Eunice Saunders, secretary of the Senior class; Ann Patterson, secretary of the Junior class; Margaret Ann Sasser, vice-president of the Senior class; Nancy Dawson, vice-president of the Junior class; Kitty Fisher, president of the Business Class; Al White, president of the Senior class; and Alice Hicks, president of the Junior class.

Saint Mary's Holds May Day Festivity

Saint Mary's will hold the annual May Day Saturday afternoon on the front campus at 3:30 o'clock. This year's theme will be a fantasy based on the song Over the Rainbow. Members of Orchesis, a modern dance group, under the direction of Mrs. William C. Guess, will sponsor the event.

Sandra Sims, May Queen, will be featured as Iris, the goddess of the rainbow, and the May court will represent the six colors of the rainbow. The court includes Katherine Armistead, Pat Boesser, Juliette Fulghum, Kitty Fisher, Grace Gordon, Peggy Hooker, Ann Miles, Virginia Mowery, Ann Rixey, Traques Saunders, Mary Strickland, and Harriet Tew.

The plot centers around Tonia Rowe, a carefree little girl who runs and skips at play until, wearied by her frolics, she falls asleep. She dreams of a make-believe land beyond the rainbow. A star bends low, and the wakened child makes a wish. She then finds herself in Rainbow land, ruled by beautiful Queen Iris and her court.

A crowd of merry lemon-drops welcomes her. The little girl, joins them. When they melt away, two friendly bluebirds appear and invite her to join their flight. Suddenly, she realizes that the birds have led her over the rainbow.

The Raleigh Canterbury Club and the Saint Mary's Canterbury Club will have a joint meeting May 20. In the near future the club will receive a charter from the National Canterbury Association.

Seniors Plan Musical Comedy For Follies

The Senior Follies of 1951, entitled "Saint Mary's On Site," will be presented Wednesday, May 9, at 8:30 in the Auditorium. The Follies is a musical comedy consisting of six scenes and a finale. All seniors take part in the program.

The theme of this presentation is aspects of life at Saint Mary's as uncovered by a young novelist interviewing persons connected with the school.

All the work on the play has been done by three committees: the dialogue committee, Mimi Lynch, chairman; the music committee, Margaret Gaston, chairman; and the stage committee, Kit Armistead, chairman. The dialogue committee wrote the dialogue and lyrics for the songs.

The Senior Class has continued the precedent set by last year's senior class of not having a faculty advisor or any outside help. The seniors have written and produced the program entirely on their own.
