Orchesis Announces Toyland Theme For May Day Festival

Cameron Directs May Day Pageant

Orchesis, modern dance club, announces that the theme for May Day 1952 is "Toyland." The grandfather of two children asks an imp to take his grandchildren to toyland where they see toy soldiers, puppets, French dolls, toy fairies, teddy bears, and princess dolls. The princess dolls will be the May Court. Miss Peggy Cameron is director of the pageant.

Glee Club committee is Jan Winders, chairman, and Joanne Trowbridge, Joanne Trowbridge, chairman, Kay Baker, Lane Buchly, Kit Cook, Betty Dent, Alice Jones, Gene Overbeck, Ann Penton, Helen Setzer, Jan Winders, and Emily Urquhart compose the choreography committee.

Ann Patterson, chairman, Anne Penn, Alice Jones, Peggy Costner, Nell B. Crofton, Alice Hicks, and Nancy Dawson are on the props committee. Ann Nelson, chairman, Jan Winders, Anne Penn, and Ann Bailey will plan the music.

Lane Buchly is chairman of costumes with Shep Rustin, Marian Faison, Anna Redding, Ann Harless, Kay Baker, Bunce Robinson, and Laura Hays. Connie Edwards, chairman, Carol Landis, Rose Mary Courie, and Patsy Daniels form the program committee.

Helen Setzer and Mary Ann Eaddy will narrate. Ann Penton is chairman of publicity, along with Ann Bowen, Margaret Cheatham, Elizabeth Lynn, Lois Perry, and Patsy Daniels.

William Masselos Will Give Concert

William Masselos, talented and popular young pianist, will give a concert in Saint Mary's auditorium April 24. This year he has played on Piano Playhouse and with the Philharmonic Orchestra.

Mr. Masselos received a scholarship to Juilliard School at the age of eight. He continued his studies there for ten years. At eighteen he made his debut in New York at Town Hall.

Since that time Mr. Masselos has given five New York recitals. He has also played at the White House. In 1947 he received the prize as the most promising young pianist of the year, given by the Federation of Music Clubs. The concert April 24 will be Mr. Masselos' fifth appearance at Saint Mary's.
