The banquet was occasioned for the smoking of the Peace Pipe between the Cowboys (Mu's) and the Indians (Sigma's) and was held on the top of "Old Smokey" in the wild and woolly west. To Saint Mary's

Our schooling days are over,
A new life now appears;
Our hearts are filled with mem'ries,
Our eyes are filled with tears.

It's not that we're afraid of life
Nor the heartbreaks that unfold;
It's just that now when school is out
Our little world seems cold.

It's up to us to hold our aim
High on the road of Life,
To stand up for things which we believe
To overcome all strife.

But when we cross the bridge of Life
If we obtain life's plan.

We'll look back then and say with pride,
"Thanks to your helping hand."

LILLIAN TRIPLETT.
