

The Belles

OF ST. MARY'S

Vol. XIX, No. 11

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

March 22, 1957

NEWLY ELECTED SMJC OFFICERS

Top row, 1. to r., Caroline Cobb, newly; Dickie Robinson, vice-president; Jessie Allen, chairman of Hall Council; Louise Jones, president of Day Students. Bottom, 1. to r., Michael Gardner, editor of "Belles;" Sally Barnes, editor of "Stagecoach;" Beth Morrison, editor of "Muse;" and Ann Rountree, president of Senior Class. These girls will assume their new duties in the near future.

SMJC Students Elect Robinson

Dickie Robinson was elected vice-president of the Student Government for '57-'58 on Wednesday, March 6. She is from Littleton.

Dickie has been at St. Mary's for two years. Last year she was a member of the Beacon, the May Court, and a Dance Marshal. This year she is an Honor Council representative, a member of the YDC and the YWCA, news editor for The Belles, and a member of the May Court.

SMJC students recognize their new "Veep" as a born leader. Her outstanding good looks, poise, and ability combine to make Dickie well-liked and respected by all.

Spainhour Gives Certificate Recital

Mary Spainhour, senior organ pupil, gave her certificate organ recital on Sunday, March 17, at 5:00 P.M. Mary is from Lenior.

Her program consisted of Choral-Preludes by J. S. Bach, selections from Opus Sacrum (In Nativitate Domini) by Maleingrau, and three selections from A Cycle of Short Pieces (Opus 154) by Karg-Elert..

Mary is a student of Mr. Russell Broughton and her recital was the result of three years instruction at St. Mary's. She is a member of the choir and vice-counselor on 2nd West Rock. Congratulations to Mary for her excellent recital.

Chairman of Hall Council Is Allen

Jessie Allen, from Greensboro, was elected Chairman of Hall Council on Wednesday, March 6. Jessie has attended St. Mary's for three years.

Jessie has been very active in extra-curricular activities. She was a member of the Beacon during her freshman year. She was also in the YDC and Dramatics Club. During her sophomore year, Jessie was on The Belles and Stagecoach staffs and served her class as president. This year, Jessie has added the Altar Guild and duties of a Sigma cheerleader to her list of extra-curricular activities.

Congratulations to a wonderful girl who will indeed live up to the expectations of those who elected her to this office.

Students Choose '57-'58 Marshals

The marshals were elected on Wednesday, March 20. They are: Annie Gray Calhoun, chief; Jane Bellamy; Sadie Carol Etheridge; Lou Johnson; Ease Pennington; and Jenny Whitehurst.

Annie Gray is a member of the Dramatics Club, Granddaughters' Club, YDC, and Stagecoach business staff. She is a Mu. Jane is a member of the Granddaughters' Club, the Dramatics Club, and the Stagecoach business staff.

Jenny Whitehurst belongs to the Dramatics Club, The Belles staff, the YDC, the Letter Club, and Orchesis. Sadie Carol is a member of the YDC and a Sigma. She was an active member of the basketball team.

Lou and Ease both room on 1st West Rock. Lou was in the recent play, and Ease hails from Virginia. Both are on The Belles staff and belong to the YDC.

Honor Council Members Chosen

Shirley Smith and Ann Shepherd were elected Senior Honor Council Representatives on Thursday, March 14. Shirley will serve as Secretary of Student Government for 1957-58.

Shirley, from Greensboro, came to St. Mary's this year. She is a
(Continued on page 4)

Day Students Elect Jones

Louise Jones, a junior, was elected president of the Day Students on March 7. This is Louise's first year at St. Mary's. Louise is a member of the Honor Council and Sigma Pi Alpha. She is a Mu.

The duties of the president of the Day Students are many and varied. They include such things as presiding over that group and representing them at meetings of the Student Government officers. Congratulations go to Louise on her new honor.

Rising Seniors Choose Rountree

Ann Rountree was elected president of the Class of '58, on Tuesday, March 12. She is from Greensboro, and this is her first year at St. Mary's.

Ann is a member of the Dramatics Club, the legislative body, and is a Mu. In high school Ann was the accompanist for the orchestra and held classroom offices. She was also a member of the Torchlight, the National Honor Society.

The entire school joins the Junior Class in congratulating Ann on becoming president of that group.

SMJC Publications Pick New Editors

Three outstanding juniors were elected editors of the three St. Mary's publications on Wednesday, March 6. Michael Gardner is the new editor of The Belles; Sally Barnes, Stagecoach; and Beth Morrison, The Muse.

Michael, who hails from Greensboro, wears the blue of a Mu cheerleader, is a member of The Belles staff, YDC, Orchesis, and Dramatics Club. She also took part in the recent production, "Peg O' My Heart."

A Wilson girl, Sally, was a member of the Sigma hockey team. She also participates in the YDC, and the YRC. She belongs to both the Stagecoach and The Belles staffs. Sally is vice-president of the Dramatics Club and also participated in the latest play.

A Belle from Lynchburg, Va., Beth was Literature Editor and Editor of Departments for her high school literary magazine. She was also a columnist for the school newspaper and was presented the National High School Poetry Association Award there. At SMJC Beth is a member of The Muse staff, Granddaughter's Club, Doctor's Daughters Club, Orchesis, and Junior Unification Committee. She is also a Mu cheerleader.

Congratulations go to Michael, Sally, and Beth on their newest accomplishment.