

Belles Recognizes Faithful Service Of Chapel Helpers

A stranger visiting our chapel for the first time would probably be surprised to find that girls have taken over the duties usually carried out by boys. These girls serve as acolytes, servers, and crucifiers. They are seniors appointed by Mr. Hughes.

Eric Huske, Dottie Pierson, and Helen Corbett are the acolytes. Their duties include lighting the candles before every service. Ann Powell and Catherine Dent serve at the Holy Communion services. One server is present at the early service held every Sunday morning. They also take turns serving at the eleven o'clock services. Trisha Huske and DeeDee DeVeré are the crucifiers. Carrying the cross, they lead the choir into the chapel.

Of course, the duties carried out by these girls are minor incidents in the Spiritual life which centers around the Chapel, but these eight feel that it's an honor to serve in such a way. The Belles feels that these eight girls should be given the recognition which they deserve for giving their time toward adding to the religious inspiration of others.

The Alumnae Council Is Planning A Luncheon For Senior Class Members

The Alumnae Council extends an invitation to the members of the Senior Class to a luncheon on Saturday, April 6, at the Reinlyn. This is the first time that such a luncheon has been held. The Alumnae Council is having the luncheon because they want to do something for the seniors and at the same time to enlighten the seniors as to the functions of the Alumnae Association. Mrs. James Murray Webb, president of the Alumnae Association, will make a short talk.

The Alumnae includes any student who has attended St. Mary's. The seniors will become Alumnae upon their graduation in June. It is hoped that they will become active members then. The Alumnae office will gladly provide any information concerning chapter locations and functions of this group. Being an active member of the Alumnae Association is one way to always remain close to the life at St. Mary's.

Beckoning Belles

Mary Ann Keith messed up the works the other day when she walked off with the Little Store book. Did she get you shook, "Slats"?

Congrats to the juniors on winning the song contest. Some people still love sentiment.

* * *

The weather is really something around here. One minute you can sleep under a sheet, and then the next minute there's snow falling. I'm getting confused, but the flowers, the birds, and the St. Mary's furnace are also confused.

* * *

Dragon couldn't bring herself to give up campus slips for Lent. I don't blame her if giving them gives her pleasure.

* * *

Miss S. E. Jones gave up cigarettes and is now sporting a pipe. n'est-ce pas, Dickie?). Some people are really clever when it comes to wiggling around things.

* * *

The "Follies" were the greatest ever, and I didn't forget to pull the curtain, Kim. They simply weren't ready on stage.

* * *

The star of "Peg O' My Heart" belongs to Betsy Lipford. His name is Ricky, and he eats Dash.

* * *

Congratulations to Biggers and Stuart. What is 2nd Smedes coming to?

* * *

Speaking of the play, did you notice the costumes? So well suited to the personalities of the actors (?) and actresses.

* * *

Michael will be "Boss girl" of this sheet next year. Well, I, for one, intend to back her up. That is, if she'll let me.

* * *

Best of luck to Beth Morrison on the Muse and to Sally Barnes on the Stagecoach. Both will need everyone's support.

* * *

Frances Pearson was campused again . . . accumulation of points. Poor Francois.

* * *

It seems we have a new girl in school. Mags Kicks is her name.

* * *

Congratulations to Weezie Hill! Charmed, I'm sure!

Pitter Platter

By Jennie Proctor

The Glee Club celebrated St. Patrick's Day two days early this year. The occasion was "Operation Smoke Bomb Hill" which provided entertainment for the servicemen's annual St. Patrick's Dance at Fort Bragg. After a delicious bag supper on the buses which were sent from the base, the girls were ready and eager to present a variety show consisting of tap dances, impersonations, piano renditions, solos, and a group of popular songs rendered by the entire chorus. Lee Arbogast was Mistress of Ceremonies. Along with the chorus, Marilyn Zschau, Carolyn Myers, Chee Davis, Helen Jones, Brooks Newton, Julia Fuller, Ann Byrd, Sally Lewis and Jennie Proctor are to be congratulated on making the variety show such a success.

The Belles' favorite songs this week are:

One: "I'm Walking" as recorded by Fats Domino.

Two: "Young Love" as sung by Tab Hunter.

Three: George Hamilton's "Only One Love."

Four: "Till" by Henry Rene.

What? Nothing by Elvis Presly??

Him: "I hope you'll dance with me tonight."

Her: "O certainly. I hope you don't think I came down here purely for pleasure."

THE BRAIN OF A SENIOR AFTER THE FOLLIES!!!
