

The Belles

OF ST. MARY'S

Vol. XXII, No. 6

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

January 23, 1959

THE "SNOW QUEENS" OF ST. MARY'S

Standing (L. to R.) Sally Bruce, Betsy Lipford, Dana Borden, Georgia Cobb, Jane Smith. Kneeling (L. to R.) Anne Jefferson, Anne Wright.

L. to R. — Jane Hayes, Anne Edens, Corty Creech, Linda Vick, Mary Dale, Sallie Marcotte.

Posture Queen Chosen

In an assembly on January 8, the Letter Club sponsored a POSTURE QUEEN contest as a climax for Posture Week. Each hall previously chose a representative for the contest. These girls were observed and eight were chosen as finalists for the program. The ones presented in assembly were: Erwin Parrott, Johanna Watkins, Sharon Cates, Eliza Southall, Tennis Bowers, Joan Prevost, Cretia de Loach, and Carol Hardy.

The panel of judges selected Tennis Bowers as Posture Queen and Virginia Anderson was made Slump Queen. Nan Bailey and Georgia Cobb were Mistresses of Ceremony.

Piano Repertoire Classes Held

The second in a series of piano Repertoire Classes was held in Mr. Peery's studio Monday night, January 12th. Students appearing on the program were: Emmalee Harris, Ann Smiley, Elizabeth White, and Sara Jane Griffin who played compositions by Debussy, Schubert, Kabalevsky, and Moszkowski. Mr. Peery played the Piano Sonata No. 3 by Norman Dello Joio. These classes are planned so that students develop ease and self control in playing for small groups. Others who played earlier this year are: Kit McLeod, Florence Nash, Mary Alice Hayes, Sara Harris, and John Ruggero.

EXAMINATIONS SCHEDULED

The schedule has been posted for First Semester Examinations, which run through the week of January 26 to 31. Morning exams will begin at 9 A.M. and afternoon ones at 2 P.M.

Monday, January 26

MORNING

English 21, 31
Typing
Geography 7

AFTERNOON

Bookkeeping 17
English 5, 7
History of Art 29
Home Economics 23
Math 21, 31

Tuesday, January 27

MORNING

History 5, 7, 21, 31
Shorthand 11
Harmony 31

AFTERNOON

Bible 21
Business English
Hygiene 21
Sociology 33

Wednesday, January 28

MORNING

French 5, 7, 21, 23, 31
German 21, 23

AFTERNOON

Spanish 5, 7, 21, 23, 31

Thursday, January 29

MORNING

Biology 23
Chemistry 7, 27
Latin 3
Theory 21

AFTERNOON

Algebra 3
Economics 31
Geometry 5
Home Economics 7, 9
Psychology 31

Friday, January 30

MORNING

American Government 29
Bible 22
Latin 5

AFTERNOON

American Literature 27
Shakespeare 25

Bridge Tournament Nearing Finals

Some of the non-athletes as well as Letter Club members have been participating in a Bridge Tournament between the Sigma's and the Mu's. The results have been:

The winner of McMillan-DuBose and Edens-McLeod match will play Howard and Mayer for the Sigma Championship. These girls will then play the Mu winners of the Davenport-Fisher and Borden-Copeland match for the Tournament winner.

RCMA Presents

On Wednesday night, January 7, the Civic Music Association presented The National Ballet of Canada. The presentation was in three parts, Les Sylphides, Ballad, and Coppelia. The story of the ballet was about the lord of a manor who had declared a festival in celebration of a new bell he had given to a town. That day also marked the betrothal of the lovers, Swanhilda and Franty. The gaiety of the scene was interrupted by a toy-maker who demanded and received restitution for the havoc played by Swanhilda in his workshop. A divertissement ensues depicting the hours of dawn, prayer, and work, and the townsfolk danced a galop to bring the joyous festivities to a close.

The stars of the ballet were Celia Franca, David Adams, and Lois Smith.

SIGMA-MU BASKETBALL

Sigma-Mu basketball teams have been organized to compete against each other during the winter season. The Mu representatives who are seeing active play are: Carol Hardy, Lucy Milward, Susan Purdie, Betty Wright, Blair Maddison, and Frances LaMotte. For the Sigma's are: Nancy Sjostrom, Kate Young, Martha Winstead, Sara Griffin, Anne Edens, Hannah Bell, Betsy Lipford and G. Hofler.

In a game on Wednesday, January 14, the Mu's won by the score of 32-29.

HAPPY

EXAM

CRAM!