

SENIOR SAINTS

BEVERLY POWERS

Town: Bennettsville, S. C.
 Hair: Perhaps bouffant—it just depends
 Eyes: For Glenn
 Always seen: with Buzzy
 Always Heard: "What should I do?"
 Pet Peeve: Tests after big week-ends
 Favorite Frat: KA
 Ambition: To get the other ring that matches the diamond
 Hobby: Collecting pennies to buy cokes
 Utopia: a home for two with you-know-who

CARLETON SAVAGE

Town: Raleigh
 Hair: "teased" and often lavender
 Eyes: saucy
 Always seen: with an apple
 Always heard: "... hey?"
 Pet Peeve: Tests after week-ends
 Favorite Frat: only the worldly
 Ambition: To marry a million!
 Hobby: practicing letter writing
 Utopia: Nassau

JO SHEPHERD

Town: Washington, D. C.
 Hair: waved over eyes
 Eyes: Blind after weekends
 Always seen: in nightgown
 Always heard: "Boy, you're not kidding."
 Pet Peeve: campuses
 Favorite Frat: W.B.A. ("Where The Boys Are")
 Ambition: New York
 Hobby: snowing boys
 Utopia: To be a Fashion editor for Vogue

MARY SHEPHERD

Town: Washington, D. C.
 Hair: in rollers
 Eyes: in a little blue case
 Always seen: in an Austin-Healy
 Always heard: "And let me tell you..."
 Pet Peeve: People who won't walk quietly
 Favorite Frat: SAE
 Ambition: To be a Southern Belle
 Hobby: calling 6810111, extension 3608
 Utopia: Macon, Georgia

LINDA RAMSEY

Town: Jacksonville, Florida
 Hair: short, thank goodness
 Eyes: 20-10
 Always seen: unfortunately
 Always heard: unfortunately
 Pet Peeve: red tape
 Favorite Frat: NAACP
 Ambition: to be a Carolina co-ed
 Hobby: peeking and painting
 Utopia: U.N.C.

LESLIE REDDING

Town: Asheboro
 Hair: goes with her eyes

Eyes: Irish

Always seen: comforting Mary Ann
 Always heard: "I know I failed it"
 Pet Peeve: that odious science
 Favorite Frat: He goes to Clemson
 Ambition: First Woman President of A.M.A.
 Hobby: Studying
 Utopia: Poitiers and surrounding areas

HELEN REID

Town: Savannah, Georgia
 Hair: null and void
 Eyes: Kaleidoscopia
 Always seen: Box 263
 Always heard: S.F. P.M.
 Pet Peeve: "Sociables" who drink Pepsis
 Favorite Frat: Kappa Sig
 Ambition: to be domesticated
 Hobby: working on it
 Utopia: Ivy-covered cottages with coke-cap lane

LII LII RIDENHOUR

Town: Concord, N. C.
 Hair: Leased to Standard Oil Company (During the week).
 Eyes: Sky blue pink contacted caverns
 Always seen: on the phone, at the mailbox
 Always heard: "But, Atky..."
 Pet Peeve—Fastidious roomy
 Favorite Frat—It's not diplomatic to designate
 Ambition: Emancipation
 Hobby: Sociological projects involving remote ethnic groups
 Utopia: changes with the weather

JO ANN ROCHOW

Town: North Miami, Florida
 Hair: frosted
 Eyes: hidden behind lashes
 Always seen: studying
 Always heard: I'm so upset
 Pet Peeve: That zoo crew
 Favorite Frat: oh, sure
 Ambition: to see Molly study
 Hobby: snipe-hunting
 Utopia: The first week in September

G. G. SAUNDERS

Town: Winston-Salem, N. C.
 Hair: rather kinky... on occasion?
 Eyes: Always searching—you guess what for
 Always seen: Throwing 'um down... as of late
 Always heard: I'm sure he's just playing it cool
 Pet Peeve: Inconsistency... wonder why?
 Favorite Frat: Prefers more lofty things
 Ambition: A rich banker... good luck
 Hobby: Playing the role with the alley cats
 Utopia: an idealized society... shafts excluded

SAINT SALLIES

Old South Parties continued on the weekend of April 14 and 15 when Augusta, Georgia, was invaded by University of South Carolina rebels. Among those seen with fine southern gentlemen were Mary Lee Hinson, Beverly Powers, Cornelia Hines, Vickie McKenzie and Harriett Rogers.

The wedding of a former St. Mary's student, Caroline Clark, attracted many St. Mary's girls. Martha Pat Bell, Salli Harper, Vickie Chubb, Bee Pitt, Sophia Pike, and Beth Bellamy were seen around Tarboro that week-end.

The same weekend East Rock evacuated St. Mary's and went to Topsail Beach while Cummins Beville and Sally Stevens visited Dr. Guerry's alma mater.

Congratulations to Burnley Kinny who got pinned April 14!!!

On the weekend of April 21 and 22, St. Mary's girls went off in all different directions. Jackie Baublitz and Betty Gayle Sanford were impressed by the V.M.I. Cadets while Vickie Chubb, Martha Pat Bell, and Susan Keel partied at Hampton Sydney.

The Pikas at Carolina decided to hit the beach this same weekend. Susan Poe, Gay Davis, Marty Watkins, Martha Van Noppen, and Sandra Tapp seemed to enjoy the combo that played for three days.

Spring Frolics at Davidson attracted quite a few Saint Sallies. They were Sarah Broadhurst, Cleve Fletcher, Brooke Davila, Dee Tillery, Robin Causey, Rosemary Adair, Ann Benson, Cummins Beville, Beth Grady, Harriett Rogers, Forrest Williamson, Alice Carr, Karen Cooper, Lane Norman, Ann Niemeyer, and Mary Peyton.

I.F.C. was also the weekend of April 21. On Friday night were the usual frat parties. Saturday featured the Coasters at a concert in the afternoon and the Drifters at a dance that night. Sunday also was filled with parties. Some of the girls partying in Raleigh were Betty Lynch, Betsy Dunn, Becky Elmore, G. G. Saunders, Robin Pleasants, Suzanne Smith, Mary Christopher, Jane Harris, Nanne Chalgren, Lida Taylor, Fan Wilson, Kim Marsden, and Ann DeLa Vergne.

Seniors Beauty Contest Is Great Success

On April 12, at 8:15 P.M., Trudie Johnson and Carter McAlister strolled across the gym floor to the tune of "St. Louis Woman", played by St. Mary's notorious pianist, Sue Creech. Thus the Beauty Contest sponsored by the Senior Class opened.

From the stage, $209.50 worth were viewed packed within the gym. Truds and Cart, mistresses of ceremonies, welcomed St. Mary's faculty and students, members of State's KE, KA, PiKA, SAE, and Sigma Chi Fraternities, and special guests, Senators Copeland and J. C. Eagles.

Eagerly awaiting the contestants were Judges Herbert Shellans, Vic Durant, Willy Earl Keel, Dane Hamilton, and Sandy Tate representing St. Mary's faculty, the KE House, PiKA House, KA House and SAE House, respectively.

The first part of the contest roared off with the twenty girls running for "Campus Casual". Dressed in various designs of sportswear, Betsy Switzer, Ann Hundley, Carolyn Broun, Val Hodgson, Winston Conner, Cecile Thebaut, Pam Voliva, Hadley Morgan, June Wall, Mary Jane Deadwyler, Janie Judd, Sally Wright, Dede Keyes, Sandra Tapp, Cydne Wright, Jackie Baublitz, Koko Ottley, Eloise Horner, Nona Walker, and Beth Bellamy strolled before the viewing judges and audience.

After a final group appearance of the "Campus Casuals", the famous "Cold Cuts" took over the scene, blasting out with numerous new goodies and some favorite old tunes. Enjoyed by one and all, the music soon ceased in order that the second part of the program might begin.

Gracefully appearing before the judges clothed in exquisite forms of Sunday dresses were Cinda Grantham, Frances Leonard, Tay Ashford, Jean Flanagan, Tot Hofler, Mary Brodie Jones, Mary Jane Meacham, Betty Jones, Carleton Savage, Sandra Scott, Mary Moore, Betsy Eagles, Sophia Pike, Rowena Brinser, Haynes Walker, Cynthia Anderson, Mary Christopher, Joanna Dayvault, Margaret Glenn, and Ginny Heron, the contestants for "Boy's Choice".

The girls bowed in unison; then the "Cold Cuts" reappeared singing their theme song "Cold Cuts" while the judges gathered to decide upon the "Campus Casual" and the "Boy's Choice". After a thrilling session of creative verses sung by the vocal and instrumental group, Muff Nabers presented the special guests, the senators, in order that they might present the winning contestants.

Senator Joe Eagles announced Sally Wright as winner of the "Campus Casual". Sally, representing 3rd East Wing, hails from Rome, Georgia, and is a Junior here at St. Mary's. Then Senator Copeland announced the "Boy's Choice" winner, Betsy Eagles, daughter of Senator Eagles. Radiantly smiling Betsy received her crown like a queen, and the tremendous amount of applause echoed throughout the gym for the two winners.

The Seniors wish to express many thanks to all those people who contributed in any way to make the entire evening such a success!!