Watson, Taylor, DuPre To Head Student Government

CIRCLE INDUCTS FIVE NEW MEMBERS

Roses Watson Elected President

The new president of the Student Government Association for the year 1963-64 will be Roses Watson, an old girl from Columbia, S. C. The new president has been very active in the Choir and Glee Club for four years. She is also a member of the Doctors' Daughters Club and the Granddaughters' Club. As a sophomore at St. Mary's, Roses was a member of the Beacon. This year she is president of the junior class.

Alumnae Fete Seniors

Balentine's Restaurant in Cameron Village was amply crowded Thursday night, March 21, by St. Mary's seniors. One hundred and forty-three seniors gathered there for the annual Alumnae Association banquet given in honor of the seniors.

The girls gathered in front of Smedes at quarter of six and were chauffeured from there by day students who graciously offered their services. Upon their arrival at Balentines the girls were greeted by Mrs. Thomas C. Powell, President of the Alumnae Association.

The banquet itself was laid out in Smorgasbord style. There was food of every imaginable kind and plenty of it to insure no one's leaving hungry. The desserts occupied the seniors for quite some time.

There was no set entertainment arranged by the Alumnae. Since this meeting was one of the last times the seniors would be gathered together as a group, the sponsors felt that they would rather entertain themselves—and they did.

Last Tuesday night the Circle braved a chilly rain to induct new members of the group. Elected to membership in the Circle, one of the highest honors a St. Mary's girl can receive, were Shirley Keedwell, Nelson Pemberton, Mickey Singletary, Sally Stevens and Belle Williams.

Shirley Keedwell, treasurer of the senior class, is a hall counselor on 3rd Penick. From Emporia, Va., Shirley is also a member of the Young Democrats Club and May Day.

Yanceyville is the home of Nelson Pemberton, a four-year St. Mary's girl. Nelson has been a very active Sigma for four years and is vice-president this year of the Sigmas. Nelson also serves as secretary of Hall Council, treasurer of the Granddaughter's Club, and sports editor of the BELLES. A counselor on West Wing, Nelson is a member of the 1963 May Court.

Another new member of the Circle is Mickey Singletary of Princeton, N. J. This year Mickey is vice-president of the senior class and head of its projects committee. Mickey is also a member of the May Court, the Young Democrats Club and Hall Council.

A four-year girl from Shiloh, N. C., Sally Stevens is Editor of the BELLES, chief Crucifer, and hall counselor in West Roek. Last year Sally served as president of the junior class and as a member of the Legislative Body.

A Raleigh Girl, Belle Williams serves as president of the Day Students. In this capacity, Belle is also a member of the Honor Council, the Legislative Body, and a Day Student counselor. Last year Belle was dance marshal for the junior class.

DuPre To Head Hall Council

Elected on March 25 as Chairman of Hall Council was Alice DuPre. Alice, also an old girl, is a member of the Choir, the Dramatics Club, and the Altar Guild. This year Alice is vice-president of the junior class and chairman of its projects committee. Alice is from Charleston, S. C.

Sophomore Class Holds Banquet

The annual Sophomore Class Banquet was held on March 14, 1963, at the Angus Barn. The banquet officially began at 6:00 p.m. when Susan Spalding, the president of the class, welcomed the guests, Dr. and Mrs. Stone, Dr. Guerry, and Mrs. Nicholson, the class advisor. Immediately afterwards Mary Ravenal and Betsy Rudisill started the fun by reading a poem in epic style about various members of the class.

The girls spent the next hour eating the delicious food served them. The menu included appetizers, a tossed salad, filet mignon, and baked potatoes. Throughout the entire meal individuals made toasts to each other and to the guests. These toasts were a high light of the banquet.

After everyone had eaten all she possibly could, the entertainment committee, headed by Mary Jim Baskerville, provided various types of after-banquet fun. Dianne Ricks, performed her famous imitation of Mr. Tate, while some of the girls imitated members of her class. Charactures of several teachers were drawn by Flora Melvin and presented by Mary Jim Baskerville, who also sang three selections from "West Side Story". The banquet ended with the class singing folk songs accompanied by Flora Melvin and Monica Goubaud at the guitar.

Taylor New Vice President

St. Mary's has elected its new vice-president of the Student Government Association for 1963-64, Bet Taylor from Chapel Hill. Bet's responsibilities will include student chairmanship of Orientation Week next fall, chairmanship of the Legislative Body and the Constitution Committee within that body, and membership on the Honor Council. Bet already has one year of experience on the Honor Council, since this year she has served as one of the junior class representatives to that body.

During this year Bet has also been a member of the Choir, the STAGECOACH staff, and the Granddaughters' Club. Last year in Chapel Hill Bet was editor of the school yearbook and one of the moderators on a weekly television program.
