Assembly Head and Editors Complete Elections

St. Mary's recently elected Jackie Myers, Chairman of assembly; Martha Hardee, editor of the Stagecoach; Carol Wilson, editor of the Belles; Perry Grimes, editor of the Handbook; and Lucy Brown, editor of the Muse.

Jackie has as her duties that of submitting to the president of the Student Government Association the name of the faculty member desired as advisor, of planning the weekday assembly programs and presiding over the assemblies, of securing the permission of the President of the College to cancel a scheduled week day assembly, and of presenting to the incoming chairman of assemblies a written report commenting on the value of the year's programs and setting forth suggestions for improvements. At St. Mary's Jackie has served on the May Court and is a Sigma cheerleader. While at Lexington High School Jackie served as editor of the annual, a marshal, and was a senior superlative.

The duties of Martha as editor of the Stagecoach are to appoint an annual staff, to make assignments to the staff, to supervise the work of the staff, and to lay out the annual copy for the printer. Martha, who is also from Lexington, has served on the Stagecoach staff this year, and also on the Legislative Body. At Lexington High School Martha was a marshal, a senior superlative, and assistant editor of the school newspaper.

As editor of the Belles, Carol Wilson has as her duties to appoint girls to serve on her staff, to supervise the writing of the articles, to lay out the copy before the paper goes to press, and to supervise any Belles activities. Carol served on the annual staff at Mount Olive High School, and she was also a class officer and a marshal. This year Carol served as a member of the Belles news staff and has become a member of the Letter Club.

Being editor of the Handbook Perry has to appoint a handbook committee, to divide the handbook into sections to be revised and rewritten, to get the sections from the committee, to check them, and to lay out the handbook for the printer. This year Perry has served on the Honor Council and she is also chief Mu cheerleader. Last year Perry was a member of the Beacon at St. Mary's. Perry is also from Lexington.

Also recently elected was the Editor of the Muse. Lucy Brown will serve as Muse editor next year. Her duties include presiding at meetings of the Muse staff, supervising the selection of material to be included in the Muse, and the publishing of the Muse. Lucy is a sophomore from Martinsville, Virginia.

LETTER CLUB HOSTS BANQUET SIGMAS KEEP PLAQUE

Winning the athletic plaque for the second year straight, the Sigmas again walked off with the honors last night at the Letter Club banquet. The Sigmas beat the Mus by twenty points. The Letter Club members were hosts for the student body at the annual picnic dinner which was held this year on the soccer field.

Speaker at the banquet was Mrs. Ruth W. Fink. Mrs. Fink, who is head of the Women's Physical Education Department at UNC, spoke to the group on "The Role of Sports in Girls' Lives Today." Mrs. Fink is quite a qualified speaker in that she has been outstanding in physical education through out the nation.

Following Mrs. Fink's talk, the awards were presented to the outstanding player in each sport. Those showing outstanding skill and sportsmanship were Mary Ann Creech, speedball; SuSu Dixon, posture; Betsy Ross and Alexa Draxler, bridge; Carol Wilson, basketball; Harriet Williams, ping-pong; Betsy Phifer, badminton; Jane DeLoach, volleyball; Sallie Adams, Sea Saints; Jane DeLoach, Orchesis; Lola Kearney, Caperettes; Barbara Hall, softball; Louise Rose, track; Anne McEachern, riding; Diane Woodard, bowling; Gretchen Craig, archery; Nina Andrews, tennis; Ann Cheatham, golf; and Perry Grimes, cheerleader.

After these awards Miss Lou Jones presented the awards to the girls who had accumulated the most athletic points during the year. The first place award for the highest number of points went to Betsy Ross with 310 points. Barbara Hall won second place with 270 points. Third place award went to Helyn Watson, who had accumulated 255 points.

Also at the banquet the new athletic officers for next year were announced. Helyn Watson was re-elected as president of the Letter Club. Heading the Mus will be Ruggie Gooding as President and Carol Wilson as Vice-President. The Sigma officers are Barbara Hall, President and Anne Underwood, Vice-President.

Upon presentation of the awards the student body was served a picnic dinner of steaks.

Senior Day Sports Fun

Senior Class Day, held on Tuesday, May 12, 1964, started a new tradition on St. Mary's Campus. As the name suggests, the day was set aside for the glorification and preservations of the Class of '64.

The day's activities began with an assembly program designed to let the seniors satisfy all their grievances against the members of the other classes. A ghost court sentenced those accused of violations. Mike Hill, Marian Alice Overby, and Mareille Pritchett were asked to let down their curly locks. The long-time practicing "Cold Cuts" led by Linda Connelly and Monica Goubaud sang "Everybody Loves a Lover." These are just two of the several punishments which created much fun and school spirit.

The festivities were continued at 3:00 on the soccer field with each of the classes competing for the trophy of the day. Among the events were a three-legged race, a limbo contest, and a tug of war. The Junior class proved the winner of the day with a total of 32 points. After the presentation of the award, a delicious picnic was enjoyed by all.

The purpose of the Senior Day and the wearing of the colors (navy for seniors, burgundy for juniors, red for sophomores, and green for freshmen) was to draw the classes closer together and to have a good time.

Thomas To Lead Senior Class

The Juniors have elected Dixie Thomas, a new girl from Winston-Salem, to lead the Senior Class next year. This year Dixie has been busy serving as Treasurer of the Junior Class. Also she is a Sigma Cheerleader.

Senior Class President is an important office because the president has various responsibilities, not only to her class, but the entire school as well. One of Dixie's main duties will be to plan the New Girl-Old Girl Party which is during Orientation Week. She will act as liaison between the Senior Class and Alumnae Association.

The juniors have also elected Lynn Wilson as the new Honor Board member from the rising Senior Class. Lynn is a new girl from Charlotte, N. C. Her duties as a member of the Honor Board include attending all meetings of the Honor Board and encouraging active co-operation with the S. G. A. The Honor Board member elect also attends meetings of the Honor Board from the time of her election although she does not vote until she is inducted into office. She and the other S. G. A. officers act as a temporary Honor Board in the fall until the new Honor Board members are elected.

Kneeling are Mary Ravenel, Lucy Brown, and Perry Grimes. Standing are Mike Hill, Martha Hardee, Carol Wilson, and Jackie Myers.
