

The Belles

OF ST. MARY'S

VOL. XXX, No. 2.

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

October 21, 1966

DEDICATION CEREMONIES REVEAL NAMES OF NEW BUILDINGS

Tuesday, October 11 was the day for the dedication of St. Mary's two new buildings, the Sarah Graham Kenan Library and the Margaret Jones Cruikshank Dormitory. Many people attended the ceremony, for the dedication was an important event for St. Mary's.

The new library was dedicated to Sarah Graham Kenan. Mrs. Kenan was a member of St. Mary's Class of 1893, and she has always been a great benefactor to the school. In making her contribution, she upheld the philanthropic tradition begun by her great-great grandfather who helped in the founding of the University of North Carolina.

Mrs. Kenan, who has been called a woman vitally interested in education," truly deserves the honor of the dedication of the new library.

The new dormitory was dedicated to Margaret Jones Cruikshank, the valedictorian of St. Mary's Class of 1896. Mrs. Cruikshank was the first president of St. Mary's, and she remained at the school from 1932 to 1946.

Mrs. Cruikshank helped St. Mary's

during the difficult years of the depression of the 1930's and World War II. The dedication of the dormitory was earned by a person who contributed much of her time and of herself to St. Mary's.

Following the dedication, Mrs. A. B. Stoney, representing the Board of Trustees, presented contributions for the cornerstones of each of the new buildings.

The gift for the cornerstone of the Kenan Library was the minutes of the executive committee of the Board of Trustees authorizing the building of the new library. The minutes of the finance committee of the Board of Trustees authorizing the building of the Cruikshank Dormitory were given for the cornerstone of the new dormitory.

Dr. Mabel M. Morrison, who represented the faculty, presented a St. Mary's catalogue for each cornerstone of the two buildings.

Margaret Stevens, representing the student body, gave two copies of the October 7 edition of the Belles for the cornerstones.

SENIORS ELECT CLASS OFFICERS

On Wednesday, October 5, St. Mary's senior class elected, by secret ballot, their new officers. Lucile McKee of Raleigh, who was elected president last year, presided over the senior assembly.

The new officers are: Kinsey Sabiston of Carthage, N. C., vice president; Gilmer Edmunds of Halifax, Virginia, secretary; Ann Copenhaver of Roanoke, Virginia, treasurer; and Laura Whitley of Raleigh, senior Dance Marshal.

Kinsey Sabiston says she is unsure of her plans after graduating from the University of North Carolina, but she has Y.D.C., Y.W.C.A. and the Dramatics Club to keep her occupied now along with her duties as counselor on third Holt.

Gilmer Edmunds, who wants to be "one of the Four Tops," is also a counselor, on second Penick, and a member of Y.R.C. She belongs to Sigma Mu and is on the Business Staff of the Stagecoach.

Ann Copenhaver, who works in the dining hall this year, is a counselor on Third Penick and is a member of the Y.W.C.A. Her major, she says, will be elementary education.

(Continued on Page 3)

Glee Club, Speakers and Guests at Dedication.

Eight New Sea Saints

On Monday night, October 10, the new Sea Saints were tapped. The Sea Saints, headed by Ginny Gray, is a water ballet club.

The Sea Saints held their first tryouts on September 29. On October 6, the final tryouts were held. The new members, who were initiated on Monday night, are Cheryl Lee, Ann Brady, Chris Sylvan, Cathy Walp, Jill Bagwell, Becky Robinson, Beth Thomson, and Sweetie Seifart.

MEMBERS OF ATHLETIC TEAMS ARE CHOSEN

On the Monday following the annual Sigma Mu Tapout, girls who were interested in trying out for the Sigma or Mu team met on the speedball field. The girls were judged on their apparent ability in handling themselves on the field and as a member of a team.

The new members of the Mu team are Carla Heaton, Beverly Randolph, Keith Richardson, Courtenay Tayloe, Rose Ann Thompson, Orlean Drennen, Helen Meyer, Sally Harris, Tadge Pennington, Connie Johnson and Jo Betts Barrett.

The new girls selected for the Sigma team are Lu Dixon, Kaye Laster, Dolly Smith, Lynne Dunstan, Sweetie Seifart, Haywood Bridgers, Sally Mann, Betsy Mason, Pat White, Cathy Cline, and Beth Harris.

The Sigma-Mu rivalry begins officially on October 24 with a speedball game between the Sigmas and the Mus. This intermural competitive spirit continues throughout the year. For instance, there is a posture contest, a bridge contest, a swimming meet, and a tennis meet.

Three Short Plays Are Planned For Thanksgiving

The Drama Club has selected three excellent short plays for its fall presentation in November. This group of plays will be directed chiefly by St. Mary's students Jean Moorhead, Martha Morgan, and Susan Hutaff.

The Prize Play, written by Mary Chase, author of the Pulitzer prize winner Harvey, will star Ann Garwood as the master of ceremonies, Harriet Day as the little girl, Merrie England as the vampire Cerise O'Toole, and Joan Wickham as the school teacher.

The second play, The Shoemaker's Wife by Hans Sachs, is the most famous of medieval farces. Susan Hutaff will be the Shoemaker and Mattie Simmons will be his wife. Mary Burhoe will play the part of Fritz.

The third play, The Drapes Come, is a brand new play which has recently been telecast on National Education Television, and has been presented on off-Broadway. It is an avant-garde play by Charles Drenson, who is now studying at the Yale Drama School. The play is a psychological study starring Sue Owens as the mother and Carra Yancey as the daughter.

OUT, ABOUT AND AROUND SMJC

October 25—May Day Films will be shown in the auditorium.

October 27—Senior Class fashion show will be presented in Assembly.

November 3—The Friends of the College presents Erica Morini, violinist, The Chamber Symphony of Philadelphia at William Neal Reynolds Coliseum at 8:00 P.M.

L. Whitley, G. Edmunds, K. Sabiston, A. Copenhaver, L. McKee.

com-

fairs.
th in nd in rolina,

Mary's
i Dr.
t dat-

ersonal
job is duate.

really
but I teach-
ly en-
f St.

is

Play

I

ed for duction
at St.
To be Father-
produc-
"The
al muishing
ir love 1920's,
ic and

ead is ortray-

a Rose
of the bonnet.

school-
Lena
ers in-

Ann
Bryan;
Davis;

friend)
also in

Bittl-
gh tachoru-

ted mus-

Bulle-Dra-

e pr-
cret-