

Back row: Whittle, Dixon, Grove, Crockett. Front row: Fulghum, Vaughan, Nash, Smith, Brothers.

JUNIORS ELECT LEADERS

On Friday, November 4, the junior class elected (by secret ballot) their officers for the 1966-67 school year. Nominations were held Thursday in the auditorium.

Arabella Nash, an "old girl," from Tarboro, N. C. was elected president. Arabella has participated in many activities at St. Mary's and is presently a member of the Choir, Altar Guild, and the staffs of both the Belles and the Stagecoach. She is president of the Granddaughters' Club, served as freshman class treasurer, and was a member of The Beacon.

The vice president, Lynn Fulghum, comes to St. Mary's from Pensacola, Fla., where she was junior and senior class secretary, a member of the Girls Sextet, and on the Student Council. Lynn was also a member of the Keyettes and was Homecoming Queen while in high school.

Serving as secretary will be Martha Vaughan, an "old girl" from Edenton, N. C. On the May Court her sophomore year and also treasurer of her class, Martha is a member of the Belles staff and the Letter Club.

Lu Dixon, from Farmville, N. C., will "guard the gold" of the junior class this year. While in high school Lu was elected Governor of Girls' State and was co-editor of the annual. She was also secretary of the Student Council and chosen for the All-East team in basketball.

Another "old girl," Debra Grove from Wilmington, N. C., will serve as dance marshal this year. Debra was on the May Court last year and also served her sophomore class as dance marshal.

Two "old girls," M. C. Whittle and Juliet Smith from Martinsville, Va. and Kinston, N. C., respectively, will serve as junior class representatives on the Honor Board. As a member of the Honor Board last year, M. C. was also on the Altar Guild and in the Beacon.

Juliet, who was a cheerleader at Granger High School in Kinston before coming to St. Mary's, is presently junior class editor of the Stagecoach. She is also vice president of the Granddaughters' Club and a member of the Dramatics Club for the third year.

The junior class representatives of the Legislative Body are Suzanne Crockett and Gray Brothers. Suzanne, from High Point, N. C., served on the Legislature in high school where she was also a cheerleader. She was senior attendant in the Homecoming Court and was elected to Who's Who in American Seniors.

Serving as E. Y. C. president in Morganton, N. C., Gray was also vice-chairman of the French Club and Homecoming Sponsor of the Monogram Club. This past summer Gray was a volunteer worker with mentally retarded children at the Western Carolina Center in Morganton.

SUSAN BYARS TO HEAD FROSH

The freshman class of St. Mary's elected their officers Tuesday, November 8.

The officers are: Susan Byars of Dunedin, Florida, president; Sally Harris of Raleigh, vice-president; Patti Key of Southport, N. C., secretary; Deanna Kreiser of White Stone, Virginia, treasurer; Ann London of Pittsboro, N. C., Legislative Body; and Lynne Dunstan of Elizabeth City, N. C., dance marshal.

Susan Byars' last year's school activities include being a member of the Student Congress and the annual staff at Dunedin High School.

At Broughton, where Sally went to school last year, she was president of the French Club and sergeant at arms of her homeroom.

Patti was in the Beta Club, the homecoming court, and was also secretary of her class for two years.

Being a cheerleader and a member of the Glee Club were Deanna's activities at school last year.

At Pittsboro High School Ann was a representative to the Student Council and was a member of the Glee Club, the Art Club, and the Beta Club.

Lynne's activities at Elizabeth City High School include being a cheerleader and a member of the Pep Club.

SIX SOPHOMORES VOTED TO CLASS OFFICES

The new officers for the sophomore class this year are Georgia Herbert, Margaret Highsmith, Betsy Bittle, Jo Betts Barrett, Hannah Craven, Betsy McAlister, and Mardy Gray. On November 1 nominations were held and on November 7 the voting took place.

Georgia Herbert, the Honor Board representative for the underclassmen, was elected by the freshman and sophomore classes. She is from Columbia, S. C., and last year was the freshman representative to the Legislative Body. This year she is in the Choir and on the Belles staff.

The new president, Margaret Highsmith, was on the Belles staff and in the Y.W.C.A., Y.D.C., and the Granddaughters' Club both last year and this year. She is from Fayetteville.

Betsy Bittle, from Durham, is the vice-president. Her freshman year she was in the Glee Club and on the Belles staff and this year she is on the Muse and Stagecoach staffs, in the Choir and the Vocal Ensemble.

Jo Betts Barrett, the new secretary is from Greenville. She has been on the Muse staff and in the Y.W.C.A. and Y.D.C. both years.

Hannah Craven is the treasurer and is from Lexington. Both last year and this year she was on the staff and in the Y.W.C.A. and Y.D.C. This year she is also in the Choir.

The new Legislative Body member is Betsy McAlister from Fries. Last year she was president of the freshman class and served on the Legislative Body. Both years at Mary's she has been in the Glee Club, Choir, Letter Club, Granddaughters' Club, and The Ensemble. This year she is also in the Ensemble.

Mardy Gray, from Whiteville, is the sophomore class dance marshal. She was in the Glee Club, and was a Sigma cheerleader both her freshman and sophomore years. This year she is in the Y.W.C.A. and Vocal Ensemble.

Left to right: Margaret Highsmith, Jo Betts Barrett, Georgia Herbert, Marty Gray, Betsy Bittle, Hannah Craven.

Left to right: Ann London, Sally Harris, Susan Byars, Deanna Kreiser, Lynne Dunstan, Patti Key.