

Mrs. Paschal stands guard at Cruikshank.

Introducing New Housemother, Mrs. Paschal

Mrs. Paschal, the new dorm mother for Cruikshank dorm, was born in Winston-Salem. She now lives in Raleigh. She has previously been a dorm mother at Carolina and Peace. In comparing Peace and St. Mary's, she said that there is not much difference except for closing hours.

However, in comparing St. Mary's to Carolina, she said she prefers St. Mary's because of its size. She prefers a smaller school because one gets to know the girls better.

Mrs. Paschal has retired three times, but she always returns to being a dorm mother. She misses the girls when she is away and feels more at home in the dorm.

She loves the girls at St. Mary's because they are all so friendly. When asked if she liked the "St. Mary's Hilton," she emphatically replied, "Yes."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Wedding Bells

Former SMJC graduate (1966) Suzanne Poole, will marry Cleve Wright on January 28 in Colonial Heights, Virginia.

She was a Cold Cut and a Circle member while at St. Mary's. After graduation, Suzanne transferred to Salem College.

The prospective groom is a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity at UNC.

The couple plans to live in Chapel Hill and to continue their education.

Fraternity Sweethearts

Ann Copenhaver and Eleanor Fisher have been elected as sweethearts of the Sigma Nu and Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternities, respectively, at N.C. State

Sea Saints Program

The water ballet participants of the Sea Saints plan to have their swimming presentation on February 21-22.

Competition between the Sigmas and Mus is at a peak, as shown by the present score, which is tied at 85 points each. The intramural basketball games ended with the Sigmas claiming the title by winning three of five games played.

Basketball All Stars were announced in assembly, and they are as follows: Lu Dixon, Nancy Wood Foreman, Connie Johnson, "Flake" Kellogg, Sally Mann, and Susan Slover.

Games with neighboring schools began here on January 9 when St. Mary's defeated Peace by a score of 60-27. On January 11 St. Mary's hosted Meredith and beat them by a score of 29-6. St. Mary's

The girls have worked diligently ever since they were chosen as Sea Saints for this program.

The Sea Saints are under the direction of Mrs. Barr. Ginny Gray is president.

Coffee and Cookies Served During Exams

Throughout the week of exams, beginning on Monday night, Mr. Bell will serve coffee and cookies at 9:30 p.m. in the Smedes kitchen.

Pay Registration Fee

All students who are planning to return to St. Mary's must pay their registration fee of $15.00 before February 1, or they will be placed on the waiting list. Those on the waiting list cannot be guaranteed a room for 1967-68.

Pay Mrs. Hamm in East Rock before leaving for exam break.

ST. GENESIUS INDUCTS FOUR

(Continued from Page 1)

plus others. He was a member of Mrs. Stamey's first cast at St. Mary's.

Mr. Connelly had lead roles in "I Remember Mama," "Only an Orphan Girl" and many more.

White Elephant Sale Was Big Success for Juniors

The Junior Class had its White Elephant Sale on Thursday, January 5.

The sale was a complete success. Approximately one hundred and fifty dollars was collected.

Lynn Fulghum, vice president of the Junior Class, was in charge of the Sale with Arabella Nash, president of the class, helping her. The class was divided into eight groups with each group having a chairman.

The chairmen of these groups were: Rose Ann Thompson and Celie Smith, Decorations; Laurie Heffner, Refreshments; Courtenay Tayloe, Raffle Committee; Suzanne Crockett and Jennie Andrews, Pricing of Items; Caroline Green and Jane Marzoni, Setting up Booths; Kaye Lasater and Susan Slover, Publicity; Gayle Sellers and Susan Davis, Collection Committee.

There was a wide variety of items on sale ranging from soap to clothes. Food was also sold.

SIGMAS AND MUS NOW TIED visited Peace on January 16, but they defeated us by four points. We are scheduled to meet Carolina at Chapel Hill on February 8.

While basketball was going on, the Sigmas and Mus were playing pingpong and badminton with members of their own teams. In the end the winners of the Sigmas and the winners of the Mus challenged each other in the final play-offs.

All Star Mu, Karen Davis, captured 15 points in both pingpong and badminton by defeating All Stars Martha M. Vaughan and Margaret Kelly, respectively, who clinched 5 points each for the Sigmas.

Seniors Have Banquet at the Angus Barn

Thursday night, January 12, at 6:00 p.m. the seniors held their annual class banquet at the Angus Barn.

Dr. and Mrs. Stone, Miss Richardson, and Mr. and Mrs. Weiner were the guests of honor. Laura Whitley presided as mistress of ceremonies. The benediction was given by Dr. Stone.

Everyone then enjoyed a steak dinner. After the dinner, toasts were given by various seniors in honor of their officers.

Ginny Gray and Arabella Nash began the evening program with several songs. A short skit followed entitled "The Sound of Money" under the direction of Caroline Huggins. Lynn White starred as Mitzia, Mary Stirling as Captain von Tripe and Margaret Burgwyn as Mother Obscene.

STUDY HINT

A Do-Not can easily remove temptation to take too many

No more explanation needed—exam-study is rarely successful

Lisbet Robinson has the right to a little solitude and a lot of concentration.

New Orchesis Members Are Chosen

The Orchesis, the advanced dance group at St. Mary's, held its Monday night, January 16, following girls were chosen in Orchesis: Sabra Aldred, Ashley Ettinger, Susan Berg, Derin Uyanik, and Watkins.

The members of Orchesis will be featured in the Day program.