Granddaughters Honor Relatives With a Tea

On Wednesday afternoon, March 1, the members of the Granddaughters' Club of St. Mary's honored their mothers, grandmothers, and friends with a tea from three o'clock until five o'clock in Smedes' Parlor.

In addition to the honored guests, the faculty of St. Mary's was invited to attend the tea. The guests enjoyed talking with many of their friends whom they had known at St. Mary's while the members of the 1966-1967 Club served punch and coffee, luncheon sandwiches, mints, and nuts.

The Welcome Address was given by Miss Arabella Nash, President of the 1966-1967 Granddaughters' Club. Miss Jane Augustine, the Alumnae Secretary, introduced Mrs. W. Grady Stevens, the President of the Alumnae Association. Mrs. Stevens gave a short address on the history and purposes of the Granddaughters' Club.

The Musical Program began at four o'clock. Miss Hutton Kent, accompanied by Jeannette Holt, played two pieces on the flute. Susan Carrison, Virginia McSwain, and Laura Walter played selections on the piano.

Sarah Chamblee and Dottie Nahikian each sang one solo. Finally, the Vocal Ensemble, under the direction of Miss Geraldine Cate, sang several numbers.

This is the first time that the Granddaughters' Club has given a tea such as this one, and it should be noted that three generations of St. Mary's ladies were present at the tea.

Mr. Geza De Rosner Will Lecture on the Inca Empire

On Monday, March 13, at 8:30, Mr. Geza De Rosner will present a lecture and film—"The Saga of the Inca Empire".

In preparation for this lecture, two assembly programs were given. The first was given by Mrs. Stoops and Mr. Nichols. In their program, they called attention to two early American civilizations, the Mayas and the Aztecs, which together with the Incas, were the victims of Spanish Conquistadors.

The second assembly program was given by Miss Haig and Mr. Bill Siddell. A record, "The Virgins of the Sun God" was played. Ima Sumac, who claims to be an Inca princess, sang the song. (Most of the program was of European music, including an outstanding event when "Greeting Cards" by Mario Castelnuovo-Tedesco was performed publicly for the first time in the United States by Miss Haig and Mr. Siddell.)

Geza De Rosner was born in Hungary. He was educated in Budapest, Vienna, Paris, and the United States. He was a representative of Hungary in various international sports. He still is a tennis player, skier, skin diver, and participates in many other sports.
