

The Belles

OF ST. MARY'S

VOL. XXX, NO. 11

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

April 14, 1967

Nancy Matthews, Debra Grove, Eleanor Fisher, Mary Clark Whittle, Susan Davis, and Martha Vaughan.

MARY CLARK WHITTLE HEADS MARSHALS FOR 1967-68

On April 6 in Assembly, the nominations for marshals for 1967-1968 were announced. The nominations from the committee were: Misses Susan Davis, Eleanor Fisher, Lynn Fulghum, Debra Grove, Hutton Kent, Nancy Matthews, Becky Robinson, Gayle Sellers, Martha M. Vaughan, Cathy Walp, Mary Clark Whittle, and Cary Hancock.

The girls nominated from the floor were Misses Cheri Jones, Susan McKenzie, and Bagley Waddill. Jane Patrick, chief marshal for 1966-1967 read the duties of the Chief Marshal and the other marshals.

The Chief Marshal must assume the duties not specifically assigned to the marshals; must see that the duties of the marshals are carried out; and must drop a handkerchief to mark the final dismissal of students at the close of the academic year.

The other five marshals must act as ushers for the chapel services and

SMJC Celebrates 125th Anniversary With Cantata

On Thursday, April 6, the Glee Club and Choir presented the Centennial Cantata as a part of the observance of the 125th anniversary of the founding of St. Mary's.

The Cantata was composed by Russell Broughton in 1942. Mr. Broughton was the head of the music department at St. Mary's for 25 years.

Several alumnae joined the Glee Club and Choir for the presentation of the Cantata. These alumnae were Betty Asbill Anderson, '57, Jeanne Smith, '65, Donna Banks, '66, Meg Christian, '66, and Julie Dunn, '66.

Before the Cantata the St. Mary's Alumnae Association had a tea honoring faculty members and Wake County Alumnae. Those who were for other formal occasions, and check attendance at the weekly assembly programs.

Monday, April 10, the marshals for the year 1967-1968 were announced. The Chief Marshal is Miss Mary Clark Whittle from Martinsville, Va.

The other marshals are Misses Susan Davis from High Point, N. C., Eleanor Fisher from Salisbury, N. C., Debra Grove from Wilmington, N. C., Nancy Matthews from Atlanta, Ga., and Martha M. Vaughan from Edenton, N. C. The new marshals will begin their duties on May 21, Communion Sunday.

Drama Department Presents Play By Tennessee Williams

"The Unsatisfied Supper" by Tennessee Williams was presented Thursday, April 13, in assembly.

Mary Burhoe was the student director under Mrs. Stamey's supervision.

Those who participated in the twenty-minute play were Jan Weltons, Susan Hutaff and Elizabeth Freeman.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Robert Holding, Dr. and Mrs. Stone, Rev. and Mrs. Robert Baird, Miss Edith Richardson, Dr. Mabel Morrison, Margaret Stevens and Lucile McKee.

Also receiving guests were Mr. Robert Connelly, Miss Mary Ellington, Miss Mary Ruth Haig, Miss Lou Jones, Mrs. Frederick Fish, Mrs. Robert Stoops, Mrs. E. J. Stamey, and Miss Ruth Lineberry.

Mrs. Harlan Brown welcomed alumnae to an exhibit of Centennial scrapbooks in the Sarah Kenan Library.

SGA ELECTIONS COME TO END

NEW OFFICERS ARE INDUCTED IN CHAPEL CEREMONY

Margaret Stevens Gives Final Speech to Students

The new Student Government officers for 1967-68 were inducted in a ceremony held in the chapel April 14.

"Come Labor On" was sung by the student body as the processional. The officers for 1966-67 were seated in the front of the chapel facing the students. At this time Margaret Stevens, the outgoing president, spoke for the last time.

The new officers then walked individually from the back of the chapel and exchanged places with the old officers. Mary Holden Harrell, president of the SGA for 1967-68 delivered her first speech to the students.

The school hymn was sung for the recessional.

As of April 14, the Student Government Association is headed by the new and old officers.

Ann Pollard Is New Secretary of Hall Council

Ann Pollard, a new junior from Fayetteville, N. C., was recently elected Secretary of Hall Council for the 1967-68 school year.

This year Ann is in the Granddaughters' Club, the Y. W. C. A., and she is an acolyte. She is also a Hall Representative from Second Cruikshank, and she served on the Nominating Committee.

As Secretary of Hall Council, Ann will be a member of the Hall Council, the Disciplinary Committee, and the Minor Offense Committee. She will inform students of their penalties by means of written notification. After each committee meeting, she will make a written report of the penalties and submit it to the Dean of Students.

At the end of the academic year, she will prepare an annual report of the work of the Hall Council and submit one copy to the President of the College and file the other copy with Student Government records.

OUT, ABOUT AND AROUND SMJC

- April 14-16—Germans at UNC
- April 15—Righteous Brothers at Dorton Arena
- April 15—Stoneybrook Steeple Chase in Southern Pines, N. C.
- April 22—The Temptations in Duke Indoor Stadium
- Junior Class Car Wash on Back Campus
- April 27—Belles Song Contest
- April 29—Jubilee Weekend at UNC
- Joe College Weekend at Duke
- Greek Weekend at Wake Forest
- IFC at State

Freshman To Attend Governor's School

Miss Joan Sandlin, a freshman from Lumberton, N. C., has recently been asked to attend the Governor's School in Winston-Salem, N. C. this summer. This program honors high school students who are gifted in a special field of study. Joan plans to study social studies.

Ann Pollard, Secretary of Hall Council.

com-
ffairs.
both in
and in Carolina,
Mary's
ed Dr.
st dat-
ersonal
job is adequate.
really
but I teach-
ly en-
of St.
ns
Play
II
ted for
duction
at St.
To be Father-
produc-
s "The
ful mu-
inishing
eir love 1920's,
sic and
lead is portray-
en Rose
s of the
ubonnet.
school-
y Lena
ters in-
h Ann
Bryan;
Davis;
(friend)
also in a Bittle
igh ta
e choru
ected
mu
Bulley
Dra
ice pr
ecret
ather
er.