PUBLICATION EDITORS ELECTED; NANCY MATTHEWS IS TO BE ASSEMBLY CHAIRMAN

As the Student Government Association elections are nearing completion, the positions of Assembly Chairman and editors of the various school publications for 1967-1968 have been filled. The girls filling these offices were elected by the votes of the entire student body, and all of the girls were nominated as candidates by the Nominating Committee.

The new Assembly Chairman is Miss Nancy Matthews, a junior from Atlanta, Georgia. Nancy's chief duties will be to plan and preside over the weekday assembly programs.

During her junior year at St. Mary's, Nancy has been a member of Orchesis, and she has served as the editor of the typing staff of The Stagecoach. Nancy was a contestant in the recent Glamour Contest, and she was named to the St. Mary's Honor Roll in recognition of her academic achievement.

Miss Bobbie Bell of New Bern, was elected Editor of the Stagecoach, the school yearbook. Bobbie is a member of the Junior Class, but this is her third year at St. Mary's.

Bobbie has worked on The Stagecoach staff during all of her three years at St. Mary's, serving as a typist for one year and as assistant class editor for two years.

In addition, Bobbie is the circulation editor of The Belles and a Sigma cheerleader. She has been named to the St. Mary's Honor Roll during each quarter of her junior year.

The new editor of The Belles, the school newspaper, is Miss Lyndee Wall, a junior from Lexington, North Carolina. Lyndee has gained much experience by working with her high school newspaper and by serving on the news staff of the 1966-67 Belles.

Lyndee is also a member of the Granddaughters' Club, the Young Democrats Club, the Y.W.C.A., and the Sigma team.

Miss Alice Smith, a junior from Columbia, South Carolina, was elected Editor of The Muse, the school's literary publication. Alice is a member of the writing staff of The Muse, and she will assist the current editor in the publication of the May issue.

During her high school years, Alice served on the Student Council and wrote for her school's literary yearbook. She has also written for the National Poetry and National Essay Anthologies, and she has had one of her short stories published in American Girl.

In addition to serving on The Muse staff, Alice is an acolyte, a member of the Drama Club, and a member of the Mu team.

Alice has also been named to the Honor Roll each quarter of her junior year.

The new Editor of the Handbook is Miss Lu Dixon, a junior from Farmville. Lu has served on the Handbook Committee this year, and she was one of the assistant editors of her high school yearbook.

In addition, Lu is treasurer of the Junior Class and a member of the Choir, the Granddaughters' Club, the Sigma-Mu Sports Team, and the Letter Club.

JUNIORS PLAN TO SPONSOR CAR WASH ON APRIL 22

The Junior Class is sponsoring a car wash on April 22 to raise money for the class treasury.

The car wash will take place on the driveways beside Cruikshank Dormitory.

Special attention will be given to cars owned by students at both State and Carolina.

The money will be used to present a gift to the school at the end of the year.

"South After Sundown" Is Theme For Freshman- Sophomore Dance

The Freshman Class honored the Sophomore Class at their annual dance on April 8 in the gym. All year the freshmen work toward this dance. The slave sale was held earlier this year to raise money for the dance.

The theme, which is kept a secret from the sophomores until the time of the dance, was "South After Sundown."

Skeet Pittman headed the decorations committee.

Two murals of a Southern mansion and a showboat were on the walls. In one corner leading outside was a bridge over a pool with flowers surrounding it. Outside, a trellis covered with camellias and ivy was on the wall. Tables with candles and flowers were at one end of the gym.

The combo featured at the dance was "The Impacts." Mrs. Doshier, the Freshman Class advisor, and the entire class worked hard to make the dance — successful.

Banquet Held For Juniors At Angus Barn

The rustic interior of the Angus Barn was the setting for a banquet, honoring the rising Seniors of S.M. J.C., which was held on Tuesday, April 11th at 6:00.

Special guests for the event were Miss Richardson, Dr. and Mrs. Stone, Mr. Connelly, and Mr. and Mrs. Baird.

Arabella Nash, president of the Junior Class, welcomed the guests. Toasts were made by certain students to the officers of the class.

After a delicious meal, entertainment was provided by a "fashion show" which traced the stylish clothes of the girls of St. Mary's since her beginning in 1847.

Background music, popular during each era, accompanied the presentations.

Approximately one hundred and fifty happy girls returned to St. Mary's after a night of fun and good food.

families must be called upon for their opinions and suggestions.

The petition asking that at the beginning of the college year parents be offered the choice whether they wish to grant their daughter blanket parental permission for overnights taken in Chapel Durham, and at the student's except for vacations, necessitate parental survey.

Often petitions have been which do not come under the Legislative Body's jurisdiction. Through talks with the library, a committee was formed to deal with library questions. The Legislative Body did not have any voice in the library's actions, but it did initiate committee's formation.

It is always good to discuss the Legislative Body officers to be petitioned because these help the student and the Legislative Body to understand the reasons aims behind the petitions.

The Legislative Body is means finished with its business this year. The Petition, Policy, Constitution committees are working hard. In early May will be an assembly to discuss of the business carried out by the Legislative Body this year.
