

The Belles

OF ST. MARY'S

VOL. XXX, NO. 12

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

MAY 12, 1967

NEWLY FORMED TENNIS CLUB HAS SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Miss Jones Coaches Team

The St. Mary's Tennis Club, just formed this year, had a winning season in competition with older and more experienced clubs of regional schools. Coached by Miss Jones and captained by Dale Lambdin, the club defeated, in regular seasonal play, Peace 3-1, Duke 12-1, UNC 6-2, and captured every match against Meredith.

On April 21 the club traveled to Chapel Hill for the Carolina Invitational Collegiate Tournament and advanced to the semifinals in both singles and doubles, with Dale Lambdin and Susan Slover in the singles and Weegie Martin and Nancy Wood Foreman the doubles team. The girls also played mixed doubles with the N. C. State team in the fall and found that they were able to compete with the boys quite successfully.

There has been great enthusiasm and support for the club from the students as well as the faculty. Many students have avidly followed the club's progress and Mrs. Beam and Miss Ellington have not only been to every game but have also chauffeured the girls to the various other schools.

A great deal of admiration for the club stems from the fact that it is composed of prep school and first and second year college girls but competes with clubs which are made up of four year college girls and graduate students.

Because there has been an unusually high level of competition within the club, the tennis ladder has changed throughout the season with the exception of Dale Lambdin who remained number one. Often several girls were tied for a rank and the performances of all the members were very close.

The Belles thanks Miss Jones for developing this brand new club into a winning team in its first year and Dale Lambdin says of her, "Miss Jones gave up a lot of her time and was quite dedicated. We are very fortunate to have someone of her caliber here at St. Mary's."

Members of the club are: Dale Lambdin, Betty Davenport, Weegie Martin, Cissie Fitzpatrick, Susan Slover, Keith Richardson, Anne Blackburn, Claire Robinson, Lynn McQuilkin, Nancy Wood Foreman, Connie Johnson, Cathy Cline, and Jane Snider.

Six members of Tennis Team: Weegie Martin, Dale Lambdin, Nancy Wood Foreman, Susan Slover, Connie Johnson, Anne Blackburn.

Letter Club Holds Banquet For Presentation of Athletic Awards

The dining room of St. Mary's was the site for the Letter Club Banquet held on May 11, 1967. After a satisfying picnic supper the '66-'67 President of the Letter Club, Bidy Ager, announced this year's athletic awards. They were as follows: speedball, Betsy McAlister; basketball, Lu Dixon; volleyball, Sandra Wallace; bridge, Lucy Turner and Michele Millichap; badminton, Karen Davis; ping-pong, Karen Davis; posture, Sherry Cole; Sea Saints, Ginny Gray; Orchesis, Sherwood Wright; Caperettes, Clarine Pollock; softball, Margaret Kelly; golf, Sally Harris; tennis (doubles), Cissy Fitzpatrick and Betty Davenport; cheerleaders, Janet Hicks and Arabella Nash.

Archery, tennis (singles), riding, and bowling results were not available at the time of publication.

May Queen Elizabeth Downey. . . Before and After

MISS ELIZABETH DOWNEY REIGNS OVER '67 MAY DAY

A Midsummer Night's Dream Is Theme for Performance

The annual May Day festivities were presented on May 5 and May 6 amid throngs of spectators. The theme this year was A Midsummer Night's Dream.

For the first time, St. Mary's had a night performance to alleviate some of the usual Saturday crowd.

A Midsummer Night's Dream concerns the wedding of Theseus and Hippolyta and the love story of Lysander, Demetrius, Hermia, and Helena. Theseus was portrayed by Derin Uyanik, and Hippolyta, the Queen of the Amazons, was Livy Miller. The other lovers were Anna Holbrook, Martha Garrett, Jeanne Saussy, and Nancy Matthews, respectively.

Linda Stott was Puck, Sherwood Wright was the Queen of the Fairies, and the King of the Fairies was portrayed by Mariana Dickey. Jean Healy, president of Orchesis, was Nick Bottom, a weaver.

FORTY-EIGHT JUNIORS TO SERVE AS COUNSELORS FOR '67-'68 SCHOOL YEAR

On the night of May 3, 1967, many excited Juniors were informed that they had been chosen to serve as counselors for the '67-'68 school year. The job of serving as a counselor is both hard and demanding, but the experience is richly rewarding.

As stated in the annual, "To be chosen as a counselor a girl must possess the qualities of character, dependability, understanding, and patience. Counselors are important not only in helping girls adjust to their new life at St. Mary's, but also serve as a valuable and essential friend to each girl at St. Mary's."

The following girls have been chosen to serve as counselors:

Mary Ann Allen, Kathy Baley, Becky Bell, Bobbie Bell, Carolyn Bertie, Anne Blackburn, Anne Brady, Becky Breeden, Gray Brothers, Jo Crawford, Suzanne Crockett, Lilibet Daniel, Susan Davis, Lu Dixon, Judy Dunn, Nancy Earnhardt, Betty Ferguson, Lynn Fulghum, Jessica Gillespie, Ginger Gregg, Mary Holden Harrell, Cheri Jones, Jan Leonard, Jill Leonard, Susan Leonard, Sallie Mann, Jane Marzoni, Nancy Matthews, Susan McKenzie, Arabella Nash, Ann Pollard, Beverly Randolph, Molly Richardson, Becky Robinson, Gail Sellers, Patsy Slater, Susan Slover, Alice Smith, Juliet Smith, Edie Thomas.

(Continued on Page 4)

com-

ffairs.
both in
and in Carolina,

Mary's
ed Dr.
st dat-

personal job is adequate.

really
but I teach-
highly en-
of St.

ns
Play

II
ted for duction
at St.
To be Father-
produc-
s "The
ful mu-
inishing
their love
's, 1920's,
sic and

lead is portray-
en Rose
s of the
ubonnet.
school-
y Lena
ters in-
h Ann
Bryan;

Davis;
(friend)
also in
a Bittle
high ta
e choru
ected
mu
Bulley
Dra
ice pr
'ather
er.

Circle Inducts Five In April Walk For Seniors

On April 18, the Circle of Saint Mary's walked and five more girls were inducted into this honor society. They were Evan Aretakis of Raleigh, Elisabeth Anderson Keller of Clayton, Nancy Middleton Smith of Lindale, Georgia, all seniors, Susan Taylor Davis of High Point, and Mary Holden Harrell, of Snow Hill, juniors.

Selection for Circle membership is the highest honor in the college. These girls are chosen for their service, citizenship, and scholarship.

OUT, ABOUT AND AROUND SMJC

- May 19—Reading Day
- May 20—Second Semester Exams
- May 26—Commencement Play
- May 27—Class Day; Glee Club Concert
- May 28—Baccalaureate, 11:00 a.m.
- May 29—Commencement, 10:30 a.m.