

Derin Uyanik, '67-'68 Day Students President.

Derin Uyanik Is New President Of Day Students

The Day Students met on April 13th and elected Miss Derin Uyanik as their President. Patricia Grimes, Sandra Holsonback, Barbara Jones and Elaine Russos were also nominated.

Derin attended high school here at St. Mary's, and has been an active student. She is a member of Orchesis and had a leading role in May Day. Derin has helped with the plays by heading the make-up committee. She is also the Day Students' Representative to Hall Council. She writes for the Belles, and she is an excellent horseback rider. The Day Students consider themselves very fortunate to have Derin as their President.

MOVIE REVIEWS

(Continued from Page 2)

to be outstanding if portraying such men as the totally despicable and ruthless Cromwell or the innocent, admirable Thomas More? A similarity is realized suddenly in "Blow-Up" and "A Man For All Seasons" in that the question of reality is raised again. How could a man actually maintain such a respectable character and standards or how could such a corrupted and misled majority exist as did in sixteenth century England?

No doubt you could have thought about these movies for the rest of that weekend.

Glamour Announces Winners in "Ten Best Dressed College Girls" Contest

In February the Belles sponsored a fashion show to select from six students a representative for Glamour's "Ten Best Dressed College Girls" Contest. Rita Daniels, Hayden Legg, Nancy Matthews, Chris Sylvan, Laura Whitley, and Bennett Blackley (who was chosen as St. Mary's representative) modeled school clothes, daytime suits, and evening wear.

Recently a letter was received announcing the ten winners from a total of 369 contestants.

They are Mary Patricia Cogau, Sweet Briar College; Suzanne Grace, Bennett College; Mattie Hall, Stephens College; Kathy Krishner, Vernon Court Junior College; Nicki Martinus, University of California at Santa Barbara; Pamela Pastusak, Thomas More College; Winifred Portenoy, Bradford Junior College; Mary Lon Ricciuti, Villa Julie College; Linda Smith, Pembroke College; and Leslie Stowell, Whittier College.

These girls will appear in Glamour's August issue.

Long Anticipated S. D. Finally Arrives

The long-anticipated Senior Day finally arrived on May 9, 1967. In assembly, all-campus awards were presented to both students and faculty members who have made outstanding "contributions" to life at St. Mary's.

Margaret Burgwyn presided over the program that was presented by the seniors in the form of a mock "Academy Awards."

At 4:00 on the athletic field the seniors sponsored relay races for all four classes. The events and winners were: Ping-Pong race-Freshmen; Three-legged race-Seniors; Potato Sack race-Seniors; Wheel Barrow race-Juniors; Backwards race-Sophomores; and the Limbo-Leighton Holmes (Junior).

A picnic supper was served following the races. After dinner the results of the relays were announced. Tied for first place were the Seniors and the Juniors with thirty-four points each. The Freshmen were next with twenty-two points, followed by the Sophomores with twenty points.

Henri Freeman, Lucy Turner, Molly Leary, Ginny Gray, Margaret and Libby Keller.

Six Girls Join "Cold Cuts" After Last Senior Try-Out Of Year

Six more seniors have been added to the Cold Cuts. They are Margaret Burgwyn from Woodland, Henri Freeman from Bennettsville, Ginny Gray from High Point, Libby Keller from Clayton, Molly Leary from Richmond, and Lucy Turner from Pink Hill.

This was the last time that seniors would be taken into this traditionally senior group. The tryouts will be on Monday, the rising seniors who will be as the nucleus for next year's Cold Cuts.

The present Cold Cuts number twenty-three and have expanded from a group of seven at the beginning of the year.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Former St. Mary's Girls Marry
Nelson Pemberton and Julia Taylor, both former St. Mary's girls, were recently married. Barbara Hauser is engaged. Another graduate of SMJC, Mary Fou Tong, of Fairfax, Alaska has had a baby boy.

Graduates of SMJC receive outstanding recognition
Debbie Ellis was voted best Chi Omega pledge at the University of Georgia.

Lesley Wharton, '66, was elected President of Granville Towers at UNC.

Meg Christian, '66, won the talent show at Carolina. She will now go to the state contest which will be televised Saturday night.

Rae Herrin, '66, has recently been elected to the office of Secretary of the SGA at the University of South Carolina.

New "Little Sister" on campus
Mary Lou McGowan, a senior from Columbia, S. C., was chosen as a Little Sister of Minerva to the SAE fraternity at State.

St. Mary's art student paintings accepted for art competition
Meredith Maynard has had two paintings accepted for the Annual Student Art Competition at State. The names of the paintings are Seascape II and White.

Seniors win song contest with spirited verses
At the annual Belles song contest, held in assembly, the seniors, attired in flowered, shifts and beach hats, placed first, but followed close behind by the enthusiastic sophomore class. The event held to promote school spirit, was judged by Michael Smith, Mr. John U. and Mr. Ken Nichols.

NEW COUNSELORS

(Continued from Page 2)
Molly Urquhart, Martha Aghan, Bagley Waddill, Wall, Laura Walter and Warren.

New Day Student counselors are Elaine Russos and Mims.

Derin and Livy as King and Queen.

May Court winds the May Pole

Linda Stott as Puck

Nancy and Martha as two lovers