WEST ROCK . . . HOME OF THE VAN ROACH FAMILY

By Jan Leonard

The West Rock girls, already somewhat crowded, are cheerfully moving their luggage out of the second floor trunk room in order to give Rhonda Van Roach and family a larger space in which to live. The need for more room became obvious when Rhonda announced to the West Rock inhabitants that there would soon be additions to the Van Roach family of seventeen.

It is hoped that having a new and larger home will eliminate Rhonda's habit of taking the children out at 2:00 A.M. for exercise. Not only is it unhealthy for them to be up at that hour, but it also resulted in a near tragedy for baby Rugby Van Roach.

It seems that a visitor, not used to the frolicking children, accidentally kicked Rugby and injured the knee on his fourth right foreleg. Luckily, the infirmary knew just what to do: after several sun lamp treatments, Rugby's leg is as good as new.

Crowded conditions are affecting not only the Van Roaches, but also other comrades in West Rock. Several nights ago, Nancy Nat Matthews, in a great hurry to shower before the eleven o'clock curfew, lunged into the shower only to find that she had intruded upon Frieda Fly and was standing on her freshly shampooed wing. Frieda was naturally upset over the intrusion, and Nancy, being quite high strung, is still recovering from the unexpected embarrassment.

The West Rock lodgers are now planning a demonstration to request that the maids no longer use the area under the steps to store their cleaning items. It seems that Sylvia Silverfish's twins, Samantha and Silas, are suffering from acute asthma due to the Ajax cleansing powder in their bedroom.

Teresa Termite, who was forced to move out over the summer recess, sent a note to Mrs. Adams to announce her return after the Thanksgiving holidays. Everyone is planning a great celebration to welcome Teresa. June-Bug Jo Crawford has even donated her bedboard to the welcome home gifts for Teresa who reported that the simulated wood in the new dorms at State can not compare to the ancient flavor of West Rock.

The excitement about Rhonda's new arrivals and the expected return of Teresa Termite has been marred by the untimely and tragic death of Tillie Tarantula. Tillie, a favorite in West Rock, was mortally wounded when Laura Leech Walter stepped out of bed late one night. The unsuspecting Tillie was, at the time, deeply engrossed in her reading of The Spider Queen.

Although West Rock is no longer the same without Tillie, everyone readily agreed that the accident was not Miss Leech's fault. Miss Leech, however, has been inconsolable and is just now emerging from seclusion.

In honor of Tillie, Minerva Moth and her followers graciously agreed to erect a shrine to Tillie in the Minerva Moth Memorial Grounds. These grounds, located

Sigmas Win Speedball New Girls Defeat Old Girls

The speedball game on Wednesday, November 7, climaxed an exciting season, with the Sigmas victorious 11-8. Since each team had won two games, Wednesday's match was the championship game.

The turnout was larger than that of any other game. More school spirit was exhibited at this game, and the participation of all the girls made the game more interesting.

The Sigmas were handicapped by the loss of Captain Lu Dixon, who was injured in Monday's game.

Rosie Hammond, Martha Vaughn, Sallie Mann, Nancy Biggs, Betty Kellogg, Susan Foltz, and

Jessica Gillespie led the St. Mary Morrison Pennington, Eskridge, Sue Willingham, Lerly Randolph, Connie Johnson, Sealy Cross, and Sally Hart the Mus.

The Sigmas obtained an 6-0 lead, but the Mus closed gap to 6-5. The Sigmas went ahead to an 8-6 lead in the part of the game. With four minutes to play, the Mus scored a drop kick to tie the score. The Sigmas wrapped up the game the final minutes with a point score, making the final 11-8.

The traditional old girl-new game was played on Monday, November 13. Lu Dixon was the ary captain of the old girls. Nancy Biggs led the new girls.
