

THE BELLES WISHES YOU A Merry Christmas AND A Happy New Year

"Little Match Girl"

Orchesis Presents Christmas Program

The Christmas performance of the Orchesis at St. Mary's was presented on the night of December 11 in the auditorium. The story of "The Little Match Girl" was interpreted through ballet involving members of Orchesis. The girls were directed by Mrs. Bailey, ballet instructor; the choreography was done by the girls themselves. Beautiful dancing and expressive interpretation made a beautiful and unforgettable performance.

The Orchesis members portrayed the following parts in the story: Susan Lutz, the Little Match Girl; Debbie Horton, the Grandmother; Gayle Cantrell, the Candy Cane; Susan Summers, the Russian Gypsy; Julia Barfield, Raggedy Ann; Alison Davis, the Ballet Doll; Carolyn Coughenour, the Chinese Doll; Susan Byars, the Lady on the street; Becky Tuttle, the Snowflake; and Laura Holloway, the Orchid.

1969 MAY QUEEN

Jr. Class Advisor Chosen

Mr. King has been elected the advisor of the junior class. He assumes the responsibility of guiding their class throughout this year.

Mr. Jamie King, the junior class advisor, is new on the faculty at St. Mary's this year. He teaches chemistry. He received his education at Cornell, N. C. State, and Harvard. Mr. King has taught at several places, including N. C. State, Oxford, N. C., and Newton, Massachusetts. He is very interested in drama and has played character parts in plays, including his part in Harvey. Mr. King is presently working toward his doctorate in plant physiology at N. C. State.

Mr. James King

5-DAY SCHEDULE

that the college can return to the old schedule.

4. Other schools are on the five day schedule. It works fine for them.

5. It is a question of whether this is the right time and right schedule. The schedule is not the best. A better one could be worked out during the summer.

6. Most important, are the students emotionally and intelligently mature enough to handle the 5 day week?

The proposal passed by a majority vote.

CIRCLE AND BEACON GIVE PARTY

'Twas the 16th of December, and all through the school
Not a person ceased over the books to gruel
Until outside they heard such a clatter
That they ran to the parlor to see what was the matter.
And there to their wondering eyes did appear
The like of goodies that they hadn't seen all year
Punch and cookies there were not few
And in the middle of the floor was St. Nicholas, too.
Go to the parlor, 7:30, the 16th
of December.
There the Circle and the Beacon
will be your charming hosts
And make this party something about which to boast.
