GRADUATION PLANS SET

Baccalaureate Speaker Announced

The 1968-69 Baccalaureate Sermon will be given by the Reverend L. Bartine Sherman on May 25 at the 11 A.M. service in the St. Mary's Chapel.

Mr. Sherman, who was born in Wuchang, China, received an A.B. from Princeton University in 1946 and a B.D. from Virginia Theological Seminary in 1949. He was ordained to the priesthood in December 1949. Prior to earning his degrees, he served with the Naval Intelligence in the Japanese Language Section from 1942-46.

The churches that Mr. Sherman has served have been St. Andrew's in Charlotte, St. Mark's in Mecklenburg County, St. Peter's in Charleston, S. C., and St. Philip's in Durham. He has also acted as the Episcopal Chaplain to the students at Davidson, at the University of North Carolina, and at the Citadel.

Mr. Sherman served as the Examining Chaplain for the Diocese of South Carolina in 1957 and is presently the Examining Chaplain for the Diocese of North Carolina. He has been the chairman of the Division of College Work in the Diocese of South Carolina from 1954-1957 and the chairman of the Department of College Work in the Diocese of North Carolina from 1959-1961. From 1963-1966 Mr. Sherman was a member of the Standing Committee for the Diocese of North Carolina, and in 1964 he was a fellow of the College of Preachers. Presently, he is the dean of the central convocation in the Diocese of North Carolina and chairman of the Durham-Orange County Episcopal Council.

Judge Campbell To Speak At Commencement

The commencement speaker for this year is the Honorable Hugh B. Campbell, who has served as a member of the North Carolina Court of Appeals since 1967. Before this, he was a member of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, having been appointed by Governor Hodges in 1955.

Judge Campbell was born in Waynesville, North Carolina. He graduated from Amherst College, Amherst, Massachusetts with a B.A. degree in 1929. While at Amherst he excelled both academically and physically, becoming a member of Phi Beta Kappa and receiving four varsity letters in baseball. In 1932, he graduated from law school at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a degree of J.D. He was admitted to the North Carolina bar in 1931.

Judge Campbell has practiced law in Goldsboro and Charlotte. He now lives in Charlotte with his family, where he is a member of St. Martin's Episcopal Church. He has served as a senior warden and as a vestryman, and is still active as a layreader.

TRADITIONAL STEP SINGING PLANNED

On Sunday May 25th at four o'clock, St. Mary's will have her annual step-singing. Each class makes up two songs, one about St. Mary's and one about the individual class. The seniors sing to the juniors; then, the juniors sing to the seniors. The underclassmen also sing. After the singing, each class steps up to the position of the class ahead to represent the ending of the old school year.

Walker Holmes, Fire Marshal; Marshall Young, Senior Honor Board Representative; Barbara Miller, Secretary of Leg. Body.

REVEREND L. BARTINE SHERMAN.

CLASS DAY SET FOR MAY 24

As part of the commencement program for the graduating sophomores and seniors, Class Day will be held May 24 at 10:30 A.M. for the sophomores and 4:00 P.M. for the seniors.

The program for both ceremonies will be the same. The sophomore class president, Pam De Vere, and the senior class president, Sealy Cross, will welcome the guests. After Beth McLean, senior, and Amy Carr, sophomore, lead the guests in a prayer, the class secretaries will call the role for the last time and the school song will be sung.

The class history will then be read, succeeded by the class prophecy. Following this the Last Will and Testament will be read in which each girl leaves something to one of the up-coming classmen.

After the presentation of academic awards by Dr. Stone, Class Day exercises will come to an end with the singing of the "School Hymn" and a benediction by Mr. Baird.

FINAL SENIOR ELECTION HELD

The senior class has added three more names to its list of officers for next year. Marshall Young, Barbara Miller, and Walker Holmes fill the positions of Honor Board member, Secretary of Legislative body, and fire captain. Marshall, a Charlotte native, was an active student at Myers Park high school. While there she was class treasurer, a member of the Honor Society, and a junior marshal.

From Ahoskie comes Barbara Miller, secretary of Legislative body. In high school Barbara was a member of the Beta club, SGA, freshman class president, and a marshal.

HONORABLE HUGH B. CAMPBELL

Glee Club To Give Commencement Concert

The St. Mary's Glee Club will present its final concert this year on Saturday, May 24. It will begin at 8:30 in the St. Mary's Auditorium. A flute solo will be presented by Kathy Heinback who will be supported by the glee club. Sarah Chamblee will sing a solo, "Vocalise," by Chenoweth. The first half of the program will include music from "Stabat Mater" which concerns the Crucifixion and the Virgin Mary. Other music includes "Holiday Song" by Schuman, "On A Clear Day You Can See Flowers," "Green Leaves of Summer" by Tiomkin, "Cabaret", and "Hail, St. Mary's." "Cabaret" and "Hail, St. Mary's" were arranged by Mr. Bulley.

"Jane Eyre" To Be Presented May 22-23

St. Mary's annual commencement play will be given on May 22nd and 23rd in the auditorium. This year's play will be "Jane Eyre" adapted for the stage by Jane Kendall from Charlotte Bronte's novel, Jane Eyre.

St. Mary's students participating in the play include Helen Whitener as Mrs. Fairfax, Anne Holcomb as Leah, Debbie Cline as Grace Poole, Bev Hollingsworth as the woman, Ann Glenn as Adele, Carmen Elliott as Lady Ingram, Paula Edmunds as Blanche, Mardy Gray as Mary, and Stannie Farrish as Jane Eyre. On May 22, Jane Eyre will be played by Becky Reid, Stannie Farrish's understudy.

The play is set in early nineteenth-century England. Jane Eyre, a young orphan, is going to Thornfield Hall as a governess to a French child. There is a great element of mystery within the story. While living at Thornfield Hall, Jane meets many strange persons and views many unexplained occurrences.
