Paradise Lost . . .

MARY E. LEE

Paradise Lost

— by all students the minute they walk in the front door of Smedes on that first day.

Paradise Found

— by Mr. Currin when some of the students tried it and actually liked it.

— by the members of the organization "Judge people by the way they look," when the petition to wear pants to Sunday meals failed to go through.

— by M. Barnhart when her sophomore English class decided to stay for the whole class.

— by Bible students when Mr. Hobgood canceled all classes for the rest of the year, a burning bush having told him to "Let my people go!"

— by the high school students when the administration gave in to their outrageous demand for carnations on the dining room tables.

— by anybody in room 210 1st West Smedes any night of the week.

Kissing is just so much chemistry,

H It has to do with the craving for salt.

A The caveman found that salt cooled him off in the summer. He also found that he could get more salt by licking his neighbor's cheek.

P Also he found that it was more interesting if the neighbor was of the opposite sex.

. . . then everybody forgot about the salt!

TO ALL YOU LOVERS!

become leaders in their communities."

Academic Dean

President of academic affairs.

Becoming interested both in more challenging work and in returning to North Carolina, he came to St. Mary's.

"I've known about St. Mary's all my life," commented Dr. Miller, "mainly from past dating experiences."

Although he has no personal advisees, he says "My job is to help the students graduate. I'd like to help everyone."

Stated Dr. Miller: "I really enjoy being a dean, but I wouldn't want to give up teaching, either. I am thoroughly enjoying every aspect of St. Mary's."

SMC Thespians To Present Play

by Tonia Bryan, II

Tryouts were conducted for the first Drama Club production of the 1973-74 season at St. Mary's on Aug. 28-29. To be performed the week of Father-Daughter Day, the fall production is Sandy Wilson's "The Boy Friend," a delightful musical about a girls' finishing school in France and their love life problems. Set in the 1920's, it is filled with the music and dancing of the time.

Cast as the female lead is Catherine Blankenship portraying Polly Browne. Karen Rose is the fussy headmistress of the school, Madame Dubonnet. Maisie, that "Madcap" school-girl, is represented by Lena Johnson. Other characters include Hortense, Leigh Ann Raynor; Dulcie, Sugar Bryan; Lady Brockhurst, Janet Davis; and as Tony (the Boyfriend) Roy Dicks. The cast also includes Coco Pollard, Beca Bittler, Don Key (a noted Raleigh talent) and members of the chorus.

The production is directed by Harry Callahan, with music supervised by Michael Bullock.

The president of the Drama Club is Mebane Ham, vice president is Sugar Bryan, secretary is Karen Rose, and Catherine Blankenship is treasurer.
