DANCE CLUBS HOLD WORKSHOPS

by Carter Warren

The Dance Clubs have all been busy lately with workshops and try-outs. The participation in the workshops was excellent and the dancers really appreciate everyone trying out. New members in caperettes are Poo Herring and Liza Lamb. Scottish Dance has three new members: Sharon Kerr, Lee Patton and Rachel Woodruff. Orchesis did not take any new members.

The Dance Clubs are preparing to take Fall Festival to several schools and hopefully some civic organizations. However, Spring Festival is right around the corner and the majority of the dancers' time will be spent in preparation for it. Orchesis is also doing a chapel service in the near future.

EXTRAMURAL BASKETBALL TEAM PREPARING

Though the score was close, the St. Mary's Extramural Basketball team experienced its first loss January 19th to Davidson County Community College. With Coach Sandy Sappenfield, the team practices one hour per week plus it participates in Sigma Mu basketball.

The members of the team are Nan Smith, Emily Bass, Francie Rock, Wimberley Burton, Katie Cole, Paula Sneed, Liz Spicer, Liz Wright, Elynn Faircloth, and Pam and Vicky Evans.

Prior to their first game the team had only one practice and now with practice frequently held the future looks good for the team. The skill is there and after some conditioning, they should be hard to beat.

The team will play home and away matches with Davidson County, Meredith, Salem, and the NC State extramural team. Home games are on February 8 with State, February 16 with Salem, and February 21 with Meredith. The games are exciting and students are encouraged to come out and support the team.

Students cheer for St. Mary's Basketball team.

Headsdown!

"Headsdown" shouts Miss Mary Lida Alexander in giving instruction to members of St. Mary's Golf team. Just beginning practice, the team will begin matches in March and continue for a month. The team is composed of six members.

Last year, a team was not fielded due to lack of interest, but now there is interest and the team looks forward to a good season.
