

Applause! !

"ST. MARY'S STAGES POWERFUL DRAMA" proclaimed Nell Joslin Styron of the Raleigh News and Observer. Laura Ann Richardson, Sidney McCain, Jayne Lynn Townsend, Vivian Stevens, Lynn Bedinne, Hope Dooner, and Maria Ma were among the cast of Mr. Callahan's staging of "The House of Bernada Alba." Frederico Garcia Lorca's play explores the frustrations of women without men. A familiar situation to St. Mary's students? The cast should be commended for their production. "A HISSING CAULDRON OF MOLTEN STEELE." . . . and to set the record straight . . . Hope Dooner portrayed the raunchy Bernada who brought "the only lightness to this heavy drama."

