Valentine Program is by Dramatic Club

Valentine Evening the Dramatic Club gave as a regular program, a Valentine stunt. Those on the program were divided into four groups. Each group presented an original stunt. The first, with Barbara Freeman, leader, presented a drama portraying the origin of Valentine's Day. Group two, Sara Blackader, gave "Rival Complications." Group three, Edward Harter, gave "Insights into the Future." The last group, Ray, gave "Heart-Throbs." The program was interesting because of creative ability as well as dramatic presentation. "Valiant," a one act play, is the Club has selected for presentation in the state contest concerning this and other works. The program was discussed at the meeting. The leadership of the new club, Miss Mae Plemmons, is launching into an open sea of possibilities.

so much good in the worst of times, much bad in the rest of the world. Will behaves any of us are at fault with the rest of us.
