Diamond Chatter

By Ray Bowman

The Lions are working hard these days trying to get some of that bad baseball out of their systems, and they are getting prepared to win a few games.

Smoky Joe Bradley, veteran slow-ball pitcher from last year's corps of twirlers, is back in harness again and is tossing for "C."

Everyone seems scared to make any league suggestions; so the writer will make one himself.

American League New York, St. Louis, Washington, Philadelphia, Detroit, Chicago, Cleveland, Boston.

National League New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, Boston, Brooklyn.

There was recently a press notice to the effect that Lloyd Waner, the Little Poison of the Poison Twins, would be married this fall.

The big Sultan of the Swat missed his first homer of the season by inches in a game with Fort Worth last Wednesday.

"Baldy" Riddle is leading the entire club in hitting, having made his appearance at the bat only one time in the role of a pinch hitter.

There are a good many native Tar Heels now on the payroll of the big time clubs. Garland Braxton, port-sider, who led the American League in effectiveness in 1928, puts his feet under the table of the Washington Senators.

Backing Our Team

This thing of backing a team is very easy and yet it is a milestone on the road to victory.

Anyone who can rally and support a team—winning or losing—is a man.

Now in regard to our coming contests on the diamond, which will be very difficult as the schedule shows, let's begin right.

book does not show victory every time. We wish that everyone would fall in line and do his very best.

All who believe in what I have said and are willing to gack our team let me see you at the coming games. "Manager Snowic."
