

MEANDERINGS AROUND

As is usual with publications of this type, the editor is so lazy that he forgets to hand in anything that could be transformed into a so-called humorous column. Therefore, and not to the contrary withstanding, I wish to bring before you several profound problems that are worrying me no end.

Problem one—
Why are all C-2 pictures so dumb looking? Answer: Look at the original. No more needed.

Why does Claude Royal go on the C-1 sloopine? Answer: Your guess is as good as mine.

Why don't we win a football game? Answer: Because the other side gets more points than we do.

After sharpening your wits on the above questions and answers we pass on—and out.

I wonder if—
Exams are as hard as tests?
What constitutes a "crush?"

If the parlor dates are—er—interesting.

When the clubs are going on picnics?

If this issue will ever get to press?

If Jim Cherry ever rings the bell on time?

Who it is sings at 5 o'clock in the morning right above my room window?

(Note: The last named had better stop or there is going to be another Canary Murder Mystery, only this bird is no canary; sounds like a crow).

If I had Valentino's eyes, Buddy Rogers' hair, Richard Dix's chin, Al Jolson's voice, and John Gilbert's way with women, I'd be an insurance agent.

The spirit of some of our collegians seems to be condensed into liquid form and is to be found in the hip pockets of the loyal alumni.

"Oh, look here! It says that a fellow has invented a device for looking through a brick wall."

Claude Royal (excited): "What does he call it?"

"A window, sap."

Among the Faculty

Professor Carr, Dean of the College, has returned to Mars Hill after completing his work for a Doctor's degree. To many students Dean Carr is new but all are glad to see him return to our campus.

Miss Minnie M. Harms, Cordill, Oklahoma, is teaching Spanish and German and assisting Mrs. Roberts in the French department. She is a graduate of Bethel College, Kansas, and an M. A. graduate of the University of Kansas. Miss Harms has three years' experience as a teacher. She has to her credit fifty-nine college hours in Spanish and has studied two years under private tutors in Chihuahua, Mexico. We are glad to welcome such a teacher into our midst.

Miss Rowanetta S. Allen is teaching biology while Mr. Trentham is away on leave of absence. Miss Allen graduated from the American University, Washington, D. C., with the A. B. degree and summa cum laude, which speaks for itself as to her scholarship. Miss Allen completed a standard normal course and taught four years before entering the university.

Miss Julia Evelyn Coon of Caney, Kansas, is a graduate of the University of Kansas with the B. M. degree in Voice. During the past year she took special training in Voice and Piano in the Kansas City-Horner Conservatory of Music. We welcome Miss Coon and realize that she will help maintain the highest standards of music at Mars Hill College.

Mr. Gordon M. Juredine takes an important position among our faculty members as head of the Chemistry department. Mr. Juredine left Union University in 1921 with A. B. and M. A. degrees to his credit, and received his M. S. degree from Syracuse University. He has four years' experience as a teacher, having taught in the University of Maine and other schools. Mr. Juredine has taken an active part in the religious life of the campus for which the student body is grateful.

Mrs. Annie McCall Millstead, or rather Mother Millstead, has come among us as a God-sent blessing. Last year many of us felt lost when Mother Stapleton left us, but surely God told Mother Stapleton of our need and she found Mother Millstead and sent her here to watch over us. Our new mother gave up a very prosperous business in Oxford, Missouri, to come to Mars Hill to be Housemother for the boys' dormitories.

The presence of several teachers of last year is missed on the campus this year. Miss North is studying in Europe this year. Coach Furches is studying at the Y. M. C. A. Graduate School and at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee.

Dr. and Mrs. Vann have moved to their fine home near Danville, Virginia, where Dr. Vann is practicing medicine.

Mr. Trentham is at school at Duke University working for his Master's degree.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins are at Vanderbilt University this year. Mr. Wilkins is studying medicine, and Mrs. Wilkins is continuing work toward a higher degree.

Miss Patton will teach voice in the schools of Mecklenburg County this year.

PHILOMATHIANS HOLD PROGRAM; ELECT OFFICERS

ceived by all those present with much approval and applause.

Thomas L. Dysard gave, as the following number on the program, a declamation entitled, "The Return of the Gods," written by Edward T. Harrell, one of the former Philomathians of Mars Hill. By his magnificent delivery Mr. Dysard's speech was regarded a very successful and beneficial part of the program.

"The Rosary," a violin solo by Marvin Connell with Miss Martha Biggers at the piano, was the next number on the program. Mr. Connell's talent and technique brought for this number much applause.

As a continuation of the program, a very interesting and convincing debate was presented. The query was "Resolved, That the United States Should Grant Immediate and Complete Independence to the Philippine Islands." The affirmative was upheld by Clark L. Jones and George Gibbs, while W. Scott Buck and Nelson Jarrett represented the negative. The climax came in the rebuttal which resulted in a victory for the negative, by decision of the judges. The debate was considered one of the outstanding this year, and caused considerable commend by those present.

Some of the visitors who were recognized were Mother Biggers, Miss Martha and Miss Mary Frances Biggers, Mr. Shaw, Miss Shaw, and Miss Allen.

As it was the regular time to elect new officers, and the business session was entered into immediately after the program. The following were elected: DeForest Hasty, president; William Beal, vice-president; Leonard England, recording secretary; Thomas Dysard, corresponding secretary; Marvin Connell, censor; Mr. Mayo, chaplain; W. Scott Buck, expression critic; James Cherry, English critic; Frank Dale, inside sentinel; William Kennedy, collector of dues; Graydon Jordan, fines collector; Andy Fox, chief marshal; Jeffrie Freeman, librarian; Wade Baker, Chorister; Elliott Harrell, reporter to Hilltop.

Win a Prize!

Frocks and Frills, "the collegiate Shop" of Asheville, is running a limerick contest over Radio Station W. W. N. C. each evening at 9 p. m. Listen in and send your limericks to their shop. Beautiful prizes awarded every two weeks.

They are also editing a Collegiate Diary, "Betty Jean's Diary." Listen in and send in any suggestions that you may care to make.

M. H. Dramatic Club Perfect Organization

Series of One-Act Plays Will Be Presented.

The Dramatic Club of Mars Hill College had its first meeting, held recently, and elected the following officers: president, Miss Ruth Cooper; vice-president, Mack Moore; secretary, Miss Ruth Whitmire; treasurer, Ray Tolbert; reporter, Paul Fox; sponsor, Miss Wengert.

It was decided that the club should meet twice a month, the meetings being on the first and third Tuesday nights of each month. The program at these meetings will consist of a one-act play. The two best players from each play are to be the cast in the three one-act plays which will be given in the early spring.

The first regular meeting of the Dramatic Club was held October 8. The chief interest of the program being the play, which was winner in the original play contest in the state, entitled, "Where There Is Love," a fantasy in one act. The characters were as follows: Lise, Belle Howell; Rosa, Helen Woody; Aunt Henriette, Julia Graham; Jean, Mack Moore; Suzette, Marguerite Greene; Father Louis, Boyd Brown; Pierrot, George Hayes. Director, Ruth Whitmire; stage manager, James Smart; lights manager, Tom Dysard; costumes, Neva McCoy.

Each member of the cast was well suited to his or her part and the play was a success. The members of the Dramatic Club are very promising in their ability, several having had much work in Dramatics. They hope to be able to give the public several excellent entertainments this year.

Euthalians Would Abolish Jury System

Anniversary Representatives Are Elected.

The Euthalian Literary Society held its regular meeting Friday night, October 11. The program proved very interesting and was enjoyed by all.

The program consisted of a declamation by Paul Reese, an oration by Levie M. Dilday, and a debate, "Resolved, 'That the Jury System Should Be Abolished.'" Gregory Dyches and T. S. Jones appeared to have such an opinion and upheld the affirmative side of the argument in a creditable manner; while T. L. Austin and J. D. Carr opposed it and fought back very persistently. They did not, however, influence the judges' opinion as was shown when the decision was rendered in favor of the affirmative. Following the debate J. B. Lawrence rendered an interesting selection which was followed by some laughable jokes by T. E. Rippy.

There were several visitors present. Among them were Mother Millstead, several old Nons, and others along with quite a number of new students.

In the business session that followed the society completed the election of representatives for its anniversary program. The following representatives have been chosen: for orators, J. L. Holmes and C. H. Hamby, alternate, Milton Hamby; for debaters, W. C. Capel, Boyd Brown, W. E. Abrams, and A. T. Usher, alternates, Ray Tolbert and T. W. Regan; for declaimers, Preston Gibbs and Mack Moore, alternate, Paul Reese. With the above men representing the society we feel sure that they will give it a creditable representation.

One reason why part of the world is sane, says Wm. Feather, is that it can't afford to be anything else.

CO-OPERATE

much to enable us to reach and maintain the worthy goal we are striving for. We hope that each president, vice-president, secretary, chorister, and pianist has taken on a new zeal in his or her work from attending one of the classes taught. We feel that each one is more capable of doing the task than he or she was before God sent us such loyal and faithful workers. We are thankful to Him for Mr. Morgan, Miss Beck, and Miss Coleman who came from the Sunday School Board, and for our own faculty members who helped with the study course, Messrs. Moore, McLeod, and England.

B. Y. P. U.

We have enrolled in B. Y. P. U. approximately 210. The enrolment is of the student body in B. Y. P. U. and steadily climbing. Our aim is 80% every B. Y. P. U. A-1. The general officers are: director, Edd Fox; associate director, T. Carl Brown; general secretary, Mamie Perry; associate secretary, Mary Mull; treasurer, Thelma Hoyle; pianist, Grace Elkens; and chorister, John Samuel Cain.

Our thoughts are now turning to the B. Y. P. U. convention which will meet with us next spring. This will be one of the most beneficial religious gatherings Mars Hill has ever experienced. Get to work now! Make your B. Y. P. U. the best one on the campus! Let's show other unions in state what the Mars Hill unions do.

Y. W. A.

On Friday evening at 8 o'clock the Y. W. A. council met at the church. All old and new members were especially urged to attend. After the singing of a hymn Miss Wingert led the opening prayer.

Neva McCoy, the president, presided. She expressed her appreciation of seeing so many young ladies really interested in God's work at Mars Hill. She told what Y. W. A. meant to any young lady today. She then explained the purpose of the joint meeting.

There are six circles on the campus. Each circle has its president and its own officers. The circles meet every other Friday evening in its respective dormitory. Then one Friday night out of each month a joint pro and business meeting is held.

A very impressive program rendered by Julia Graham, Mull, Ruth Franklin, Theo C and Patty Moore. Fifty-seven were initiated and are now ready to do some real work for Mars Hill W. A.'s.

We have to live with our selves to know. We are desiring the days go by to be able to ourselves straight in the eye. not want to stand and look setting sun, and hate ourselves the things that we have done. go on singing in our hearts, "On, Toiling On, On for Our So Dear."
