MANAGERS ARE SELECTED FOR INTRAMURALS

Baseball Pilots Are Selected.

Yarborough was chosen as general manager of the baseball teams. Under these numerous managers were to represent the various teams in sports.

MARS HILL NINE READY TO OPEN BASEBALL SEASON

pects for Successful Campaign Seem Bright.

but two months ahead of in which time they must play fifteen or more games, the Lions are to start their first game this end, with two of their down-ry rivals, Boiling Springs and rford College.

are only six letter men back last year's squad, but much pro-gram material has been displayed the Coach Roberts this season. The main weakness to be noticed this season is the lack of pitch-terial and the lack of hitting-ith in the infield. The defensive is only fair so far, but with a more experience of the rookies should cause Coach Roberts no

The Lions have not shown the form expected of them this year. Their fielding is ragged and the necessary batting punch is sadly lacking. The pitching thus far shown has been nothing to go into hysterics about and the players look pretty green. But the boys do have a great spirit, and that counts a lot. However, Coach Roberts will soon iron out these spots and the team will be ready to go.

The "M" Club award for the most valuable basketball player, an engraved basketball, goes to Andy Fox. No one could be more deserving than this hard-working center. Andy was the only man to play in fourteen games. The club and school are both proud of the Burnsville lad.

The New York Giants offered 'Hot' Hendricks a three-year contract. Hendricks promptly refused, saying he was going to play ball in Florida this year. He said he would rather be known as "Margaret's Seminole flash" than anything the Giants could dub him. Bradley Taylor heard this. Last reports from the hospital say the "Seminole Flash" is doing as well as could be expected.

Big "Fuzz" Anderson made a big hit in his debut with the Hollywood club of the Pacific Coast League. "Fuzz" pitched six innings against Detroit and allowed but two hits. "Fuzz" is a former Mars Hill athlete.

DIAMOND DOPE

The Lions will open their 1931 season on a foreign field, when they meet Boiling Springs and Rutherford Colleges on a week-end road jaunt down in the flat country.

Two games, scheduled with Asheville High, to open the season with, have been cancelled, causing the locals to get a late start with their diamond engagements this spring.

Paul Briggs, star pitcher, is expected to join the team again this spring. Briggs was not out for the first two weeks' practice, but his appearance will greatly strengthen the team.

The team is composed of almost entirely new men so far. Dale, Webb, Albritton, and Camnitz are the only fixtures, with the rookie positions subject to any change which Coach Roberts should see fit to make.

With Briggs' appearance, Camnitz will most likely be shifted back to an infield post. This move would greatly strengthen the inner barracks.

Coffee and Leeper are two likely candidates for this year's edition of the M. H. C. team. Both are good fielders and hitters, Coffee being an outfielder and Leeper a third-base-man.

This year's team will have to step some to develop the punch of the baseball clouters last season. But two men on the last year's team batted under .300 per cent.

The Lions should be in the thick of the race for state honors this year. Coach Roberts has a husky bunch of swatmen this year, and with a little more experience and some good strong backing, the team should make a good showing along the baseball route.

CAM'S COLUMN of Sports Chatter

The Lions open the season Saturday, April 4th, by playing the strong Rutherford team at Connelly Springs. In the past three years, Mars Hill has engaged Rutherford in six games. The Ramblers have emerged victorious in four of these contests. Rutherford College has captured the state title each of these years. Come on, Lions, let's break the jinx!

The Lions have not shown the form expected of them this year. Their fielding is ragged and the necessary batting punch is sadly lacking. The pitching thus far shown has been nothing to go into hysterics about and the players look pretty green. But the boys do have a great spirit, and that counts a lot. However, Coach Roberts will soon iron out these spots and the team will be ready to go.

Believe it or not—"Hot" Hendricks says he sent his Atlanta girl a valentine so he would get the last letter. The funny thing, she has never written him and so she still holds the honor of receiving the last letter.

"Cueball" Suttle is not going to put his football picture in the Laurel because his face was not properly powdered.

"Jew" Campbell says that a "cat" has nine lives, so she must have nine loves. "Jew" states he has captured one, but wonders who the other eight are that have one apiece.

A bunch of old-timers were in the room the other night, reminiscing over the old athletes and wondering whatever happened to them. We have listed all we can remember who are now in athletics, and their accomplishments.

Burke Furches, two-letter man at High Point; now coach of Bakersville High.

"Bill" Dockery, Furman football squad, now coach at Walnut High School.

Sam Miller, Freshman baseball at Wake Forest, now at Wake.

Henry Furches, letterman at High Point, basketball and football, now at High Point.

Dean Plemmons, letterman in football at Lenoir-Rhyne, now in Asheville.

Harry Isenberg, football squad at Furman; no one knows where "Ike" is.

Tracy Gaines, now coach at Green Creek High.

"Fuzz" Anderson, now with Hollywood, California, as a pitcher. He is making good.

Better fellows than these have never gone out from Mars Hill campus. They gave a lot for the school when they were here, and the Alma Mater is justly proud of them.

- May 21—C-2 vs. Phi.
- May 22—Eu vs. Melrose.

All baseball games will begin at three-thirty, with the exception of Saturday games, which will begin at two o'clock.

These double-headers will be seven innings; teams mentioned first in the schedule will play first.

All games will be called at five-thirty, regardless of innings played.

Team managers will keep a record of all games played and turn this in to Andy Fox immediately after each game is played.

The umpire in charge of games will have complete charge of all playing and conduct of the game.

Man will be put out of game and not be allowed to play in any other games for any kind of unsportsman-like conduct.

Two Games Already Played

The intramural baseball elimination series began last Wednesday afternoon. The A-4 Class succumbed to the superior twirling of "Buzz" Falls, who allowed five scattered hits in his first game. The Bateman aggregation was unable to collect hits when they meant runs.

On the following afternoon the Seniors licked the Freshmen by the tune of 16-7. No superior baseball was evident. "Buzz" Falls, working on the mound for the second consecutive day, was pounced on for hits during the seventh inning that permitted the Seniors to take a commanding lead over their rivals. Falls allowed ten hits, and Wood, for the Seniors, yielded six hits.

ENGLAND WINS PHI-HIGH SCHOOL DEBATE MEDAL

Paul Buck Places Second in Annual Contest

The Philomathian Literary Society held its annual high school debate contest last Friday evening. Richard England, brother of the immortal Jasper, won over three other contestants, to receive the gold medal that is annually presented by the society. Paul Buck placed a close second.

The query for debate on this occasion was: "Resolved, That the U. S. Government Should Recognize the Soviet Government of Russia." The contestants were: Richard England, Paul Buck, James Lumley, and Theodore Cutchins. All four speakers presented convincing arguments in contending both sides of the question. The affirmative, composed of Buck and England, gained a 3-0 decision over the negative. The rejoinder of England caused much favorable discussion by all present. The judges for the contest were college seniors who were members of the Phi Society. The medal will be presented the winner at the Commencement exercises.
