NOSIN' 'ROUND

Cecil Coffey has a tremendous amount of reserve power which should help the team a lot this year. He kept his society pin for three full hours the second day he wore it.

We hear that all the boys in Brown Dormitory are wearing gloves now. Hurts your profession, doesn't it "Sarge?"

Marion Justice wants to know why some freshman called him "Zip."—Be sure your sins will find you out.

"Knob" Leeper is trying to get three boys shipped. Don't you dare let him, Louise.

Biology Lab. Note: Allen Suttle found an amoeba the other day, but when he reached out for it, it eluded him. Better luck next time!

Despite the rapid approach of winter, Bradley Taylor seems to be "thawing." Line will please form on the right.

Brothers are not all alike—Jasper England was always slow, but Dick believes in an early start. Dick is another prolific writer who is cheating Uncle Sam's postal system.

Dot Johnson, in a special interview, said, "He is a might sweet boy," and shyly fingered her Statesville High ring.

Someone scalped Reeves Colville the other day. No, you're wrong, it was the barber.

Keating Pharr strode impatiently up and down Spilman Porch the other night. Yes, the Senior picnic was mighty slow in returning.

The music department covers more ground than any other department on the campus; it goes from A to Z—Annie to Zula.

It was a lucky break for "Doc" Murphy when Sara Corpening was asked to write an article on girls, athletics. "Doc" obligingly furnished all material needed, and it took several "business sessions" to get the material ready.

"Joe E." Brown started to the Volunteer Band the other night with a trumpet.

Elizabeth Blanton thinks the Sunday School Course "Working With Juniors" would be helpful as well as very interesting. How about it, Lewis Jr.?

Mildred De Weese thinks Mrs. Shaw should serve "Championship Coffee" in the Dining Hall.

Elizabeth Corpening has subscribed for the "Progressive Farmer" since she is planning to become a farmer's wife.

A PREACHER'S FAREWELL

Probably it is an old story, but anyway it's full of logic: A preacher had been greatly discouraged and sought a new field of labor. He happened to have a friend in the governor, to whom he appealed, and not in vain. He got a political job. In taking leave of his flock he said:

"Brothers and sisters, I must say goodbye.

"I don't think God loves you, because none of you ever die.

"I don't think you love each other, because none of you ever get married.

"I don't think you love me, because you have not paid my salary.

"Your donations are moldy fruit and wormy apples—and by their fruits ye shall know them.

"I am going to a better place. I am going to be chaplain of the penitentiary.

"Where I go ye can not yet come, but I go to prepare a place for you, and may the good Lord have mercy upon you. Good-bye."

GRADUATE GOSSIP

Dr. W. A. Sams, of Marshall, was some time ago mentioned in the Asheville Citizen's "Folks Worth While in Western North Carolina" column.

Sixteen alumni are teaching in Madison County six-months schools this year.

The Asheville Citizen tells of C. H. Alder, who is in New York City, a modernistic interior decorator. His art is recognized in the leading modern circles.

Robert McIntyre is associated with Judge Varsar in the practice of law at Lumberton, N. C. McIntyre took his law course at Wake Forest.

A. S. Ballard, principal of the Nashville (N. C.) High School, visited the campus a short time ago.

Rev. E. F. Hardin, pastor First Baptist Church, Lincolnton, was a visitor to the Hill during the summer.

William McCall is located at Jacksonville, Florida, where he is a drug-gist.

Russell McCall, also of Jacksonville, Fla., holds a position with the General Electric Company.

J. O. Scoggin has been elected State Representative from Laure and Rockcastle counties, Kentucky. His majority was nearly 300. He resides at Ottawa, Ky.

The campus was very much surprised to learn of the wedding on September 27, at Greenville, S. C., of Mae Bragg to Mr. Boyd Spunlock.

Gerald Johnson, of the Baltimore Sun, in one of his lectures on journalism at the Writer's Assembly at Ridgecrest last summer, closed with "With all thy getting, get understanding," a phrase which has stood for a quarter of a century, at the top of all the college stationery.

graduate of that high school, is quite capable of holding the office to which she has been elected, having held the same position for two years there. Expressions of delight have been heard as to the sponsor of the class, Mr. McLeod and Miss Patty Moore being selected. Both are popular among the students, and are known for their efforts in assisting the students in any way possible. Miss Moore, graduated from Mars Hill in 1931, and returns as secretary of the College.

The cheer leaders, Agnes Stack and Turner Rogers, with Martha Stack and Charles Alexander, form one of the strongest cheer teams the Hill has had. Miss Stack comes to Mars Hill from Fruitland Institute, having graduated last spring. During her stay there she was cheer leader and is highly recommended. Turner Rogers comes from the Statesville High School and shows the earmarks of a professional.

The C-2 cheer leaders are well known on this campus. Miss Stack was a member of the cheer squad last year and has proved her ability to hold this position. Charles Alexander was for two years the captain of the cheer squad at Shelby High School and has greatly assisted in that work since being on the Hill.

The C-1 class have expressed their appreciation to Marion Justice, president of the C-2's for his assistance in the formation of their organization.

I used to think I knew I knew, But now I must confess The more I know I know I know, I know I know the less.
