

CLUB FEATURES SHAKESPEARE

Original Plays Presented at Earlier Meeting of Dramatic Club.

An out-of-doors meeting of the Dramatic Club was held on May 3, a Shakespearian program being presented. Catherine Rollins read an article on the opening of a new Shakespearean theatre in London. Ruamie Squires read a selection entitled "Will Shakespeare's Widow." A scene was presented from "As You Like It," cleverly enacted by Hazel Herndon, Joe Farmer, and Frances McFarlane.

The program of the club on April 27 utilized the writing talent of its members. Two original five-minute plays were presented. The first, written by Mildred Moore, was entitled "A Little Incident." It was enacted by Pearl Howell, Paul Berry, and Ollin Owen. The action took place in a college classroom. The second play, written by Virginia Lloyd, was entitled "Take it Away." It was enacted by Virginia Lloyd and Tom Moore. The action took place in the home of a young girl as she received her first beau.

Y. P. U. OFFICERS PLAN NEW YEAR

Unique Installation Service Is Held Sunday.

The newly elected B. Y. P. U. officers in their first regular meeting started their term off by planning new work for next year. The retiring officers gave each one a bit of advice as he started into his term of office. Much enthusiasm was shown by the new officers, and they are now laying plans for a standard B. Y. P. U. department with one of their many goals the State banner.

Last Sunday the new officers were installed in a most unique way. The installation service was carried out in a wedding ceremony with Mr. J. A. McLeod officiating. Miss Dorothy Crutchfield, as Miss B. Y. P. U. was the bride. Mr. Ollin Owens, newly elected director, was the groom. Mr. Director and Miss B. Y. P. U. were united as co-workers in Christ.

The department will start making its yearly reports this week and asks the cooperation of all officers.

The clamor for more social privileges at Lenoir Rhyne has been checked by the emphatic refusal of the trustees to extend such privileges.

The semi-annual convention of the North Carolina Collegiate Press Association was held at North Carolina College for Women, April 21, 22, 23.

The Hornet, weekly campus news of Furman University, was about the most daring "April Fool" edition we have so far seen. Prominent headlines announced the conversion of the B. S. U. reading room into a gambling den, etc., etc. Spicy and quite pleasing!

Y. P. B. ELECTS NEW LEADERS

In a special meeting held April 24, the Y. P. B. elected the following officers to carry on the work for the coming year:

President, Ruby Hayes; vice president, L. C. Childs; recording secretary, Ossie Bullard; treasurer, William Hill; department heads, publicity, Dora Sue Brooks, Christian citizenship, Reed Wood; chorister, Ben Kirby.

On May 3, at a regular meeting, the new officers were installed and a very effective program was rendered concerning the nature and meaning of the Y. P. B.

The Y. P. B. is a new organization and has taken a firm stand for what is right not only in the lives of its members, but in the lives of all Mars Hill students.

Unusual Meeting Held by M. C. Group

Plans Made For The Annual Picnic.

The Ministerial Conference held last week its usual Thursday night meeting in the junior department of the church. Plans were discussed for the coming ministerial picnic. By the tearful request of Mr. Luther Hawkins and with the strong support of Mr. J. K. Clark it was finally decided that the affair would not be a "stag," but since this decision was reached, Mr. Avery Hunter and Mr. D. L. Stewart have been observed walking about the campus with rather downcast spirits—avowed bachelors.

As no program had been planned for the evening, the service was turned into a testimonial meeting. Practically every student spoke, telling of some recent joy which had come into his life, or of a similar event. The service was one of the most inspirational that has been held lately in the conference. The meeting was adjourned with prayer.

NOSING 'ROUND

John Wilkins (dreamily, after a Sunday afternoon date.) "Bradley, have you ever been in love?"

Bradley: "I thought I was once, but it turned out to be a stomach ache."

Funny, isn't it, the way the seniors are wondering how the old school is going to get along when they're gone?
