Lions Trim Weaver, 14-2

Mars Hill inaugurated her baseball season in fine style when the Lions ran over the competing Weaver Tornado with a 14 to 2 count.

Three Homers in First

The Whelps opened the initial inning with three circuit clouts with Nettles, Rabb, and Briggs at the ends of the bats. From the beginning of the contest the Lions hit the slants of Bill Henson all over the lot. Mars Hill trotted across three markers in the opening period, two in the third, one in the fifth, five in the seventh, two in the eighth, and ended the fray with a single score in the final. Weaver's two tallies came in the sixth and seventh frames when the Methodists bunched their few hits and pushed over a lone counter in each frame.

Rabb In Fine Style

"Dud" Rabb hurled one of the finest games ever seen from a Lion moundsman. While his team mates were garnering 21 hits he had the

LOOKING IN ON GIRL SPORTS

Baseball seems to be just as attractive to the girls as it is to the boys. They are not merely fans, but they are actively interested to the extent of discussing "flies," batting averages, and lucky strikes. The seven teams which are entering a class tournament, have names which would lead one to think that the players have gone wild over this game. The Rinky Dinks, Stack, captain, is leading with fourteen points to its credit and the Lucky Strikers, Brooks, captain, and Them, Stroupe, captain are not far behind. The Red Blood Kicklites and all the vicious beasts, Wildcats, Tigers and Lions have not played any games as yet.

There seems to be some doubt in the minds of a few people as to the advisability of women engaging in this sport. The game, as developed in the last few years for girls, does not require violent exercise on the part of the player but it is considered good exercise. It encourages co-ordination of thought and action, the exercise of good judgment, loyalty, self confidence, and good sportsmanship.

The Hiking Club or Mountain Trampers are more enthusiastic about their activities. On April Fool's Day they were not daunted by the possibility of practical jokes in the form of bad weather and bravely started on a hike which ended at the Cascades, where they were served supper. They have received several new members and have a total enrollment of eighteen.

Tennis and swimming are still very popular and strokes in both classes are improving. Every one may be feeling the effects of spring in some ways but at least they are going for some sport and tiddle-de-winks doesn't count.

So as I sign off this final time, I beg to remain, your humble Mars Hill correspondent, Wilter Wunchell, who would like to be remembered in years to come by those who look back on their stay at Mars Hill as "The best dirt slinger of them all."

The Rev. Raymond C. Lanier, former student here, is pastor of the Bes-simer Baptist Church at Greensboro, N. C. During his ministry there a good number of additions have been made to the church.

Tornado lads swinging for seven scratch hits. While Henson and Mitchell were turning back four Lion batsmen from the plate Rabb struck out ten Weaver men and allowed only one double during the entire game.

Jones Leads Hitting
The Whelp hickory swingers were led by A. Jones who gathered four hits out of five trips, while Fox and Briggs were second with four out of six. Coach James' men were led by Bennett who grabbed two for five.

THE LOWDOWN ON HIGHER SPORTS

By FRANK WATSON

After a few weeks of practice Coach Roberts' baseball charges are showing a good deal of improvement both in hitting and fielding. All the veterans of last year's squad seem to have landed their old berths without much trouble. "Dud" Rabb, mainstay of last season is about the only reliable moundsman on duty. In the two games played thus far Rabb has held the rubber down for twenty-two innings and he seems to be going as good as ever. Roberts and W. Rabb, flashy veteran infielders, are back at old jobs on the firing line, while Ansel Jones and Fox are still wielding the big bats and roaming the outer garden. The other diamondmen now seeing action in the lineup are Bethea, catcher; Nettles, short-stop; Tuttle, third base; Briggs, right field; and E. Jones, substitute outfielder.

The intramural baseball boys are taking a good deal of interest in their sport this season and it looks as if there is going to be a good bit of competition for the loop's championship pennant. Quite a few nice baseball players are showing up and there will be several fairly strong nines in the roster. Only eight teams are making up the league this season and this gives room for stronger aggregations. Those teams playing this season are C-I, C-II, Brown, Melrose, High School, Town, Ministers, and Independents. The playing season is already under way it won't be long before the fur will begin to fly.

C-I's TAKE "GOOD ENGLISH" HONORS

Misses Evelyn Morgan and Louise Parker tied for second place. The three winners were given cash prizes. Douglas Ferguson won a book award for his poster which won on two counts, art and originality.

C-I's Defeat C-II's

The C-I class defeated the C-II's in the tag getting contest, taking 72 tags while the C-II's had 42. In the individual tag getting contest Frank Powell won first place with 22 tags while Ray Ingram followed a close second with 21. Both winners are C-Is.

Members of the English department and of the Woman's Club expressed themselves as being proud of the success which the week's program attended.
