

THE HILLTOP

Published Bi-Weekly By The Students of Mars Hill College

MARS HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, MAY 18, 1933

No. 14

EXAMINATIONS
NEXT WEEK

COMMENCEMENT
IS NEAR

STUDENT LEADERS ELECTED IN B. Y. P. U. ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Convention Services Were Held Last Night; Vance Hardin is New Director

COMMITTEE GIVES CHALLENGE

Newly elected officers of the Young People's Union were elected on Sunday evening, immediately following the regular weekly B. Y. P. U. meetings, with a beautiful and impressive ceremony, which took place on the campus lawn and was conducted by a challenge to their abilities by Mr. Olive in the presence of residents who have led the B. Y. P. U. during the past semester and over their work to the new directors, and Olin Owen, retiring director, turned over his work to the new directors. The two directors, Vance Hardin and Olin Owen, were elected before Pastor Olive's address. The officers and their officers followed: President, Joyce Hardin; vice-president, Annie Ruth Houser; secretary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

President, Darrell Middleton;
vice-president, Joan Rhymer; secre-
tary, Woodrow Jones.

MOTHER LOVE

God's best gift to man appears,
And a challenge to evil flings,
Thro' prayers and smiles and tears,
And a faith that forever clings.

Mother love—to allay our fears,
And point us to higher things;
His great gift of all the years,
This God-like love—she brings.

Note: This poem was written by R. S. Gibbs, Secretary of the Board of Trustees.

YOUNG IS CHOSEN NONPAREIL HEAD

Society Chooses Group of Capable Workers; Ruby Hayes Retiring

Miss Millicent Young, of South Carolina, was elected C-I president of the Nonpareil Literary Society for the fall term of 1933-34 school year.
Miss Young is president of the Charles Howard B.Y.P.U., is a member of the intercollegiate debating team, and has also proved to be a very capable C-I class president.

Miss Young succeeds Miss Ruby Hayes, who has capably led the society for the past nine weeks' term.

Miss Evelyn Morgan, of Waynesville, was elected vice-president of the society, to succeed Miss Ruth Keller. Miss Morgan was recently elected a member of the B.S.U.
Council, is also a member of the intercollegiate debating team. She captured first place in the reading contest of her society.

Miss Frances Burnett, of Memphis, Tenn., was elected secretary.
(Continued on page 3)

Student Councilmen Are Named May 15

Monday night, May 15, the Student councilmen for the year 1933-34 were elected by the men of Melrose and Brown dormitories. To these responsible positions men had been nominated in advance and the final vote was tabulated Monday evening.

This student council is one of the most responsible and exacting groups on the campus and it has charge of the college dormitory life of the men.
It is placed, to a large extent upon their shoulders, as to the life in the dormitories and the selection of this group is done carefully each year in order to get the most capable men.

Regular councilmen chosen Monday night include: Daniel Johnson, William Wright, Clyde Meredith, Vance Hardin, Harold Frazier, Jack Purser, William Harkey, Parks Coble and Calvin Connor. Substitute councilmen elected are: James Bruce, Woodrow Jones, J. L. Barnett, Edward Jones and Bill O'Cain.

Members of the council who have so competently served during the past year are: Dudley Rabb, Nas Bailey, Hobart Ford, Luther Atkinson, Marler Tuttle, Roland Gant, Luther Chiles, John Wilkins, G. B. Sproles, Fred Parker, Arthur Childs, Arthur Stroupe, and proper recognition should be given them for their work.

Schedule of Second Semester Examinations

Class Meeting at	Examination Date
1:00 TTS	Friday AM (8:30-11:00) May 19
8:15 MWF	Friday PM (1:00-3:30) May 19
8:15 TTS and all 3:00	Saturday AM (8:30-11:00) May 20
9:15 MWF	Saturday PM (1:00-3:30) May 20
2:00 MWF	Monday AM (8:30-11:00) May 22
9:15 TTS	Monday PM (1:00-3:30) May 22
10:15 MWF	Tuesday AM (8:30-11:00) May 23
10:15 TTS and all 4:00	Tuesday PM (1:00-3:30) May 23
1:00 MWF	Wednesday AM (8:30-11:00) May 24
2:00 TTS and all 7:30	Wednesday PM (1:00-3:30) May 24
All English II (C-1) Classes	Thursday AM (7:30-10:00) May 25

Note: Chapel will be observed from 8:15-8:30 and records will be accurately kept. The Physical Education classes will meet from 11:00-12:00 daily during the examination period.

Quotation from Catalog: "No deviation from the examination schedule is permitted except by special order of the Faculty."

PHILOMATHIANS ELECT BILLY WRIGHT AS NEW LEADER FOR C-I TERM

Bill Martin is New Vice-President; Harry Ward, Secretary; and Clyde Meredith, Censor

CLIOS VISIT THIS

At special call meeting at five o'clock last Friday afternoon, Billy Wright, popular campus trumpeter, was elevated to the Phi presidency, to hold office for the remainder of this school year and the carry-over term of next fall. He succeeded S. J.
Justice, of Hendersonville, as president.

Mr. Wright hails from Raleigh and has stood out this year for his proficiency in orchestral work. In addition to this, he has been ranked highly by his teachers in scholastic work, and has also shown talent in the various phases of athletics. He has shown marked ability in journalism and was recently elected to serve as sports editor of The Hilltop for the coming year.

Other officers elected were: Vice-president, Bill Martin; recording secretary, Harry Ward; corresponding secretary, Tommy Williams; censor, Clyde Meredith; treasurer, Darel Middleton; seer, Ray Lawrence; fines collector, Thad Yelton; dues collector, Dubb Parker; pianist, Ray Ingram; chorister, Virgil Cox; English critic, Horton Gragg; expression critic, T. Merrill; marshals, J. Hilliard, W. Exum; chaplain, Calvin Connor; librarian, O. Carter; Hilltop reporter, Bill Moore; and janitor, Virgil Pate.

The regular program of the evening (Continued on page 4)

Blanton, Newbrough Recital Is Enjoyed

On Saturday evening, May 6, Misses Elizabeth Blanton and Mary Ella Newbrough were heard in a graduation recital, voice and expression respectively. The program was delightfully varied. Miss Blanton first sang
"One Fine Day," from "Madam Butterfly," (Puccini), followed by Miss Newbrough reading "The Balcony Scene," from "Cyrano de Ber-genac," (Rastand). Miss Blanton's second group included: "My Mother Bids Me Bind My Hair," (Haydn);
"My Li'l' Batteau," (Strickland);
and "Stars of the Night, Sing Softly," (Edwards). Next on the program, Miss Newbrough read "The Quarrel," from Sheridan's "School of Scandal." Miss Blanton's last group consisted of: "Evening Song," (Gilberte);
"Animal Crackers," (Hageman);
"Li'l' Jasmine Bud," (Strickland);
and "Elf and Fairy," (Densmore).

Miss Newbrough read with splendid interpretation and was well received by the audience. Miss Blanton's lyric soprano voice delighted the listeners.
She was accompanied by Miss Martha Biggers. Miss Blanton is a pupil of Miss Zula Coon, and Miss Newbrough of Miss Bonnie Wingert.

C-II OFFICERS

Bill Martin, of South Carolina, was elected president of the 1933-34 C-II class by secret ballot this morning. Mr. Martin is president of the Elliott B. Y. P. U. and is also Intercollegiate Editor of The Hilltop.

John Corbitt, of Shelby, was chosen vice-president, and Robert Burnett, secretary-treasurer. Both of these men have been active members of the C-I class.

EARLY CHOSEN TO CLIO PRESIDENCY

Doris Messer is Vice-President And Tine Shipman is New Censor

Thursday afternoon, May 4, in the regular business meeting, the Clio Literary Society installed its officers for the coming year. Dorothy Early was chosen as president. Doris Messer was elected vice-president; Hil-dred Squires, second vice-president; Lillian Whitehurst, recording secretary; and Hasseltine Shipman, censor.

Other officials elected were: Mary Chiles, corresponding secretary; Rena Young, pianist; Mary Morris, chorister; Edna Earle Nanney, chaplain; Irene Rollins, reporter; Nancy Leach, treasurer; Gladys Houser, chairman costume committee; Elizabeth Shipman, literary critic; Sylvia Ammons, music critic; Janie Britt, expression critic; marshals, Virginia Ballard, Susan Stroup, and Dorothy Shipman; Lucile Morrison, librarian.

Miss Early, the new president, succeeds Miss Kate Huskins, who has made an excellent president for the society, leading it through a most successful term.

Miss Early, who is a native of Winston-Salem, graduated from R. J.
Reynolds High School in '32 with high honors. Since her arrival on the campus she has taken part in various activities.

It was announced at this meeting that Kate Huskins, of Burnsville, N. C., had won first place in annual oratorical contest, which was held Thursday, May 4, with her oration,
"Trusting One's Self."

Hardin is Elected Head of Scriblerus

Vance Hardin was elected president of the Scriblerus Club on Tuesday evening, May 9, when members of that organization met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Huff for their regular meeting.

Frances Burnette was elected vice-president; Margaret Hale, secretary-treasurer; and Lillian Whitehurst, reporter.

An interesting program on "Modern Journalism" was presented, which consisted of the following numbers:
"The History of the Newspaper," by Grace Carter; "The Make-up of the Modern Newspaper," by Frances Burnette; "Outstanding Men of This Field," by Margaret Hale; "Aid I Have Received from the Daily Newspaper," by Azaleen Kickliter.

Ella Keller Is New President of F.L.C.

Miss Ella Keller, of Granite Falls, was elected president of the Foreign Language Club for the year 1933-34 when that organization met at the home of Mrs. Nona Roberts for its regular meeting.

Margaret Owen was chosen as the new vice-president; Ralph Rhyne, secretary-treasurer; and Bill Walters, reporter.

The social part of the meeting was enjoyed in the form of a jigsaw party which was said to have taxed the brains of the Language students as much as a translation for class.

COMMENCEMENT FINALS BEGIN; CONTESTS AND RECITALS THIS WEEK

Oration Contest is Saturday; Sermon for Seniors, Sunday, by Dr. Lynch

FAREWELL MAY 26

The commencement exercises, which will extend intermittently from Saturday, May 13, through Friday, May 26, were initiated Saturday evening at eight o'clock in the college auditorium by the annual inter-society declamation contest.

This program was as follows:
Piano solo, Alletter's "Spring Festival," played by Helen Trentham;
"Shall the Statue of Lee Stand in the Hall of Fame?" Anonymous, given by Harold Sanders (Eu);
"America, the Guiding Star of the Nation," Sumner, given by Otto Williams (Eu); "Napoleon Bonaparte," Phillips, given by John Washburn (Phi); violin duet, "Minuet, Op. 78," Schubert, given by Howard Olive and Mary Stringfield; "Creative Citizenship," Blalive, given by Carl Lanford (Eu); "My Country, My Mother, My God," McTeer, given by Jack Dale (Phi); "The Black Horse and His Rider," given by William Harkey (Eu); and "Immortality," Taylor, given by Ollin Owens (Phi); Ed Powell (Phi) gave "America."

The oration contest between the Philomathian and Euthalian Literary Societies will be held on Saturday evening, May 20. The following is the tentative program: "The Heritage of America," given by William Wright (Phi); "We Are Not Yet Free," given by Vance Hardin (Eu);
"Some Guide Posts to Prosperity," given by Sam Justice (Phi); "Our Birthright," given by Paul Berry (Eu); "The Challenge of Young America," given by Roland Gant (Phi); and "How Long Must We Suffer?" given by John McGehee (Eu).

Dr. J. W. Lynch, Professor of Bible at Wake Forest College, will preach the Commencement Sermon on Sunday, May 21, at 11:00 A.M., at the Mars Hill Church.

The Nonpareil-Clio Reading Contest will be held on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock in the auditorium (Continued on page 4)

Bill Nettles Is New Monogram Club Head

William Reisman (Squirt) Nettles, of Indiana, versatile Lion star, was elected president of the Monogram Club on Tuesday night when the "letter" men met for their regular business session. Mr. Nettles is a "three letter man," having made a monogram in football, basketball and baseball here this year.

Walter Wagoner "Little Shike" Rabb, of Lenoir, was elected vice-president. Mr. Rabb is also a three-letter man, having won his letter in the three major sports here.

Robert Sibley (Our Bob) Burnett,
of Georgia, was elected secretary-treasurer of the club. Mr. Burnett is a member of the tennis team, and holds the record of not having lost any matches this year. He is also editor of The Hilltop.

William Nettles, president of the "M" Club, will be presented the award for having been the most valuable man on the football team. Nettles was varsity quarterback. It will be announced in the near future as to the players who will receive the basketball awards for best individual playing.

Officers of the "M" Club during the past year were: President, Dudley Rabb; vice-president, Clifford Fox; and secretary-treasurer, Franklin Wilkins.

The "M" Club is an organization of men who have made their varsity letter in a major sport at Mars Hill College. It has been organized for ten years.