

THE HILLTOP

"Plain Living and High Thinking"

Entered at the Post Office, Mars Hill, N. C., as Second Class Matter, February 20, 1926.

Member Southeastern Junior College Press Association.

STAFF

Editor	LIONEL HOFFMAN
Managing Editor	HUBERT ELLIOTT
Society Editor	IRIS RABB
Religious Editor	DORTHA MORGAN
Sports Editor	EDGAR KIRK
Alumni Editor	ANNABELLE LEE
Poetry Editor	NINA GREY LILES
Intercollegiate Editor	HAROLD MCGUIRE
Business Manager	R. G. ANTHONY
Circulation Manager	FELIX SPEER
Faculty Adviser	JOHN A. MCLEOD
Typist	MARION MCMANUS

VOL. VII. MARS HILL, N. C., MARCH 15, 1935 No. 9

An Apology

In putting out this issue of this journal, there has been a bit of "pinch-hitting" with some of the offices of the staff. We who have done this "pinch-hitting" ask you not to be too critical of our work this time.

This is the first attempt that we have ever made to carry out the duties of the managing editor. We regret that Mr. Elliott is ill and that he could not attend to his regular routine, but we have done our best and hope that you who read the articles and you who may scan the make-up will take this factor into consideration.

We apologize for all the mistakes that we have made, and trust our future to the old proverb, "Practice makes perfect." Thanks a lot.—L. D.

Thanks!

Thanks due to a recent decision handed down from the faculty, we have been unable to possess radios while living in the dormitories and keep them in our rooms.

We wish to express our appreciation for this act by the faculty, and to commend them, if such a thing could be possible coming from a student as it does, for doing this in view of the courses of action taken by other institutions in regard to this matter. We are sincerely grateful for the apparent open-mindedness of those who rule in allowing us to have the benefits of this modern convenience.

We believe that the faculty will find no reason based on logic or upon facts that will force them to withdraw such a policy in the future. From our experience in the past, we contend that the students will maintain their part of the radio agreement which the faculty presented to us and to which we gave our assent. Once more, we thank you!—L. D.

Literary Societies Elect Heads

The Philomathian Literary Society on Friday, March 1, elected the following officers for the spring term:

President, Loris Dover; vice-president, James Reid; recording secretary, Ernest Symms, Jr.; corresponding secretary, Charles Woody; censor, Joe Crumpler; seer, Charles Fisher; chaplain, H. L. Hart; English critic, Ralph Bowen; Expression critic, T. A. Morris; dues collector, U. A. Moss; fines collector, Thomas Fulk; janitor, Richard Goodson; marshals, Bobby Wright and Clyde Connor; librarian, Joe Yates; pianist, Carl O'Neal; chorister, Clay Hemric; reporter, Lionel Hoffman.

The Euthalian Literary Society on Friday, March 1, elected the following officers for the spring term:

President, Raymond Midkiff; vice-president, Lafayette Wrenn; recording secretary, James Graves; corresponding secretary, Richard Boger; censor, Leslie Griffin; chaplain, William Fleming; English critic, Edgar Kirk; Expression critic, Bill Hill; dues collector, Edward Robinson; librarian, Harvey Martin; pianist, Brownlow Hastings; chorister, Harvey Martin; debate critic, Garlon Hamrick; time keeper, Henry Keller.

An Appreciation

The Academy class has now burst into print. We owe this to the generosity of the regular HILLTOP staff which has given us space for our very own in this issue. We have waited long for this opportunity to show our abilities in the literary field. We hope this meets the approval of the entire student body and faculty.

Again, we say many, many thanks for this opportunity!

—J. N. BARNETT,
President of Academy Class.

Just Imagine!

Jimmy Reid not crooning (quick, Henry, the flit!)

Dick Padgett not haunting Spilman.

Ethel Odom not standing (dates) for the "Spangler."

"Blondie" not just "hanging around" in the sun parlors.

Joe Dickson without his "Zip" at each meal.

Mack Robinson not in the Infirmary.

"Monte" Frazier not milking a cow.

"Big Jim" not "grubbing."

"Dutchie" not swiping her "Ole ladie's" S. P.

Jesse Indorf not "acting the fool."

"Click" Elliott refraining from zipping zippers.

Margaret Jackson not warning Hazel to "leave her man alone."

Gena, B. J., and Scottie refusing chicken.

Judge not doing a Walker around the ellipse.

Nettie not caging her "Wrenn."

"Rip" (tide) Tutor not "cramming" in the dining hall, that is.

"Amazon" Ogle without a crush on Charlie Martin.

Margaret Kivette not "framing."

—BETTY J. ROBBINS.

Ye Old Snooper

Did Iris smile when that Tutor boy asked her to be the same sweet girl she used to be.

JITTERS by KNOTTS

Greetings after a long absence while the C-I's held sway over this auspicious journal! And how have you-all been a-doin'?

The very first thing that we want to do this time is to extend our deepest appreciation to the faculty for allowing us to have radios. Thanks a lot! And then we of the staff and a few others would like to extend our thanks to the McLeods who so graciously entertained us one evening. It was swell! Next in line would come the Trenthams—congratulations upon your latest addition or should we say edition?

To the basketball team, we offer words of praise for their record and record-breaking during the season.

And to our new house mother, we give you our salutations and best wishes for a happy sojourn with us in our spacious abode.

Perhaps you have not noticed or did not witness these little incidents, but did you see—Cub Hunt delivering a parcel to some girl in Spilman to the accompaniment of the bantering of some half-dozen of his friends while his ears slowly changed color several times? We just wonder if the one to whom the package was given is the lady of his heart or choice? More power to you, Bruin! And while we are on the subject of athletics and girls together, how about the three crushes that an equal number of young ladies have for Captain Hawkins of basketball fame? Two blondes and one brunette. And also along this line, just what fair lamsel of this campus receives letters regularly from our kid brother? What-ya-shay? Skipit! Our mistake.

And have you seen yet the proverb over the magazine rack in the library which says, "The man who reads is the man who succeeds"? We had never seen it until about one week ago.

Our nomination for the students' choice of their favorite speaker would be Dr. Howard Richardson. Do you agree with us?

You know, the expressions upon the faces of the faculty members on the platform during chapel talks are remarkable. No two are alike, naturally, but such contrasts have hitherto been unimaginable for us. Just offhand, we would say that those of Miss Bowden and Mrs. Vann offer the biggest contrast. That was just a passing observation from us.

Speaking of cooperation, we would like to make just this little observation. The LAUREL staff started its work sometime last October. There were announcements made about the pictures which were to be placed in the book of both student body and the faculty. And now, four months after the pictures had been asked for and after repeated requests for them, the staff is not yet able to complete either plates of the students or of the faculty because of a lack of pictures. Just four months in which to have a picture made.

And with that, we say—Until next time, Knotts to you!

Education Association In Annual Session

(Continued from page 1) Mrs. Moore said, "Yes, we had a great time. The programs were helpful and we had a wonderful chance to mix and mingle with the other college heads from throughout the nation."

College and Community Sewing Shop

Located upstairs in Edwards Building opposite New Sinclair Station. We are well-trained and experienced in making all kinds of Dresses, Coat Suits, Costumes, and any other kind of designing and sewing.

Our Prices are most reasonable. Patronize us and save from 30% to 50% on your clothing.

MRS. ELLIS W. REESE AND DAUGHTER

Alumni News

W. Vance Boise has been named State Highway Engineer, succeeding the late John D. Waldrop.

C. L. Sams has been awarded life membership in the North Carolina Bookkeepers' Association.

Rev. Waldo D. Early, former pastor at Rhodkiss Baptist Church, has been called to Hickory where he will give full time to Mountain Grove, Corinth, and Providence churches.

S. H. Jones of Marion, Alabama, first B. S. U. President at Mars Hill, was elected secretary of the Bible Teachers' Association. He is now teaching Bible in Judson College.

Of the five presidents of the Regional B. Y. P. U. Conventions, two are Mars Hill graduates. Rev. O. Jack Murphy, Elizabeth City, is president of Eastern Central Region, and David T. Mashburn, Hendersonville, is president of Western Region.

Rev. Nathan Brooks, assistant pastor of the Broadway Baptist Church, Knoxville, Tennessee, has accepted a call to become pastor of the First Baptist Church at Bryson City.

Julian A. Glazener of Brevard, who is a trustee of Mars Hill College, has accepted work as Transylvania County Farm Agent.

W. M. Grubles is now professor of history at Appalachian Teachers' College. Mr. Grubles graduated at Mars Hill College and was a member of the faculty for two years.

Mrs. Robinson Hostess At Tea For C-II Girls

Held St. Patrick's Day

Mrs. W. F. Robinson was a gracious hostess at a St. Patrick's day tea in her home Wednesday afternoon, entertaining the Senior girls.

The guests were greeted at the door by the hostess, Bob Anders, and Mack Robinson. The receiving room was decorated with ferns and attractively arranged mixed spring flowers.

Miss Marian McManus and Miss Nina Gray Liles favored the guests with a musical selection, "When Irish Eyes are Smiling," and Miss Beulah Bowden entertained with a reading, "The Blarney Stone."

Each guest was requested to tell an Irish joke. Miss Iris Rabb, Bob Anders, and Mack Robinson acted as judges, and gifts were awarded to Miss Christine Roberson who won first prize, and Miss Marie Haynie, who won second prize.

After the entertainment, the guests were led to the artistically arranged dining room. Miss Bowden gracefully poured the tea. Delicious refreshments were served in buffet style carrying out a green and white color scheme.

Gardner's Shoe Hospital, Inc.
Leaders in Shoe Repairing—Master Shop Dyers
18 North Lexington Ave.
ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Weekly Radio Programs

Now, that you can enjoy radios in your rooms, we are listing below the most popular programs that come on weekly.

Sunday
1:45 p.m.—Art Kassel's Orch.—(CBS).

4:00 p.m.—Moment Musicale, Mars Hill College (WWNC).

6:00 p.m.—Aragon: Trianon Hour with Garber and King—(WGN).

7:00 p.m.—Jack Benny—(NBC).

7:30 p.m.—Joe Penner and Ozzie Nelson—(NBC).

8:00 p.m.—Rubinoff and Eddie Cantor—(CBS).

Monday
8:00 p.m.—Jan Garber

8:30 p.m.—Kay Kyser—(WGN).

10:00 p.m.—Wayne King (NBC).

Tuesday
7:15 p.m.—Morton Downey —(WGN).

8:30 p.m.—Abe Lyman—(CBS).

Lawrence Tibbett—(NBC).

9:00 p.m.—Bing Crosby—(CBS).

Grace Moore—(NBC).

10:00 p.m.—Glen Gray and the Camel Caravan—(CBS).

11:30 p.m.—Wayne King—(WGN), only.

11:50 p.m.—Jan Garber—(WGN), only.

Wednesday
9:30 p.m.—Burns and Allen —(CBS).

10:00 p.m.—Guy Lombardo —(NBC).

10:30 p.m.—Ray Noble Orch.

Thursday
7:00 p.m.—Hal Kemp—(NBC).

(NBC).

8:00 p.m.—Rudy Vallee's Hour —(NBC).

9:00 p.m.—Showboat—(NBC).

10:00 p.m.—Phil Whiteman—(NBC).

Friday
7:30 p.m.—Jim Fetta's Orch.—(WBT), only.

8:30 p.m.—Kay Kyser—(WGN), only.

9:00 p.m.—Abie Lyman—(NBC).

9:30 p.m.—Phil Baker—(NBC).

Saturday
1:50 p.m.—Metropolitan Opera —(NBC).

8:30 p.m.—George Olsen—(NBC).

9:00 p.m.—Radio City Party —(NBC).

10:30 p.m.—Guy Lombardo—(WJZ)

Let's Dance Program—(WEAF). Three Hours.

(Clip and save for reference.)

Successful '35 Year-book Promises Staff

(Continued from page 1)

The academy students will be grouped together in the LAUREL for the first time and will be segregated from the C-I's. This has not been done before in the annuals and offers a new feature in this year's publication.

All copy for the annual is being made and sent to the printers now. Almost all of the cuts have been submitted to the engravers and the annual itself will be off the press about April 15. This is about a month and a half earlier than the annuals were delivered last year and offers the students an opportunity to enjoy them together while they are still on the campus.

ECKERD'S

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Creator of Reasonable Drug Prices

EXQUISITE PERFUMES BY THE DRAM

OUR FOUNTAIN RECEIVES

98%

SANITARY RATING