

Trackmen And Netters Prepare For Schedule

For the past ten days several men have been working out in preparation for the first track meet April 4 against Wofford College at Spartanburg. The Wofford meet will inaugurate the hardest track schedule a Mars Hill team has ever faced.

The Lions have six meets scheduled this spring against three senior colleges, one junior college, one prep school, and one college freshman team. These six meets are on consecutive week-ends.

At the present time the team is under the direction of Coach Spencer King. He is leaving school March 21 to attend Peabody College at Nashville on a leave of absence. His place will be taken by Professor R. M. Lee who will have charge of the track squad this spring.

Only four lettermen from last year's team are in school this year. Murrell, javelin; Keller, quarter-miler; Hurst and Frazer, weight men are the only returning wearers of the winged M.

The 1936 team should be the best in the history of track at Mars Hill. A number of fine prospects in Goss, Cody, Castello, Powell, Ledbetter, and Wagner, plus the lettermen and several of last year's reserves should give the Lions a strong team. J. R. Powell is manager of the team.

The schedule:

April 4—Wofford Varsity, there
April 11—Lincoln Memorial, there
April 18—Emory and Henry, there
April 24—Wofford Frosh, here
May 2—P. J. C., here
May 9 or 16—Asheville School, there stitute of International Education, New York City; Dr. Joseph L. Kunz, formerly professor of International Law at the University of Vienna and now lecturer of International Law at the University of Toledo; and Dr. Keener Frazer.

The program also included round table discussions of current economic and political questions and a model League of Nations Assembly, which proved very interesting and instructive.

At the business meeting it was decided to hold the conference next year at Auburn College in Alabama.

Georgia Ingle Voted Outstanding Debator

Miss Bonnie Wengert sponsored other Mars Hill speakers. They were Charles Weaver, oration; Ernest Harrill, extemporaneous speech; Doris Johnson, dramatic reading; Elizabeth Fleetwood, humorous reading; Howard Richardson, after-dinner speech.

In the debate contest on Thursday afternoon both of our boys' and girls' teams won second place for the teams. Georgia Ingle was voted the best individual girl debater of the tournament, and Lucille Hartley tied for second place in the individual girls' class.

The debate contest continued from Thursday afternoon into Thursday night and Friday morning. After a contest Friday afternoon, the after-dinner and humorous reading contests were held Friday evening. Other laurels our speakers were allowed to bring back were: Charles Weaver, tied for second place in the oration contest; Doris Johnson, tied for second place in the dramatic reading contest; Elizabeth Fleetwood, tied for first place in the humorous reading contest; and Howard Richardson, who won first place for his after-dinner speech. He made his speech more interesting by his use of magic and ventriloquism.

After the contests the committee of the Association held a business meeting, during which new officers were elected. Mr. Leo K. Pritchett, of Lees McRae, was elected president for the Association for the next year. Miss Bonnie Wengert was elected secretary-treasurer for the coming year. The meeting place of the Tournament for next year was not definitely decided upon, but it may be in Asheville.

Several colleges from outside of this state have been invited to participate in the contest next year, as guest schools, and the Association will perhaps be reorganized to include these schools. Those outside the state schools that have been invited are, Textile Industrial Institute, of Spartanburg, S. C., Virginia Intermont College, of Bristol, Va., and Bluefield College, of West Virginia.

Music Club Forwards Resolution To Farley

using scenes from Wagner's operas and other subjects relative to music.

The United States Government has for years issued beautiful commemorative stamps. None have related to music. The Athenian Music Club offers in the resolution a series of suggestions which could be used. Among these are portraits of noted American musicians and composers, as: Mrs. Crosby Adams, Carrie Jacobs Bond, George Chadwick, Fanny J. Crosby, Walter Damrosch, Stephen Foster, Victor Herbert, John Howard Payne, John Phillip Sousa, Deems Taylor; and also our famous Carillions: Bok Tower, Florida; Riverside Church, New York City; University of Chicago. The interior of the Metropolitan Opera House was suggested, some one of the great Organs picturing St. Cecilia.

The Music Club not only resolved to send this resolution to the federations of Music Clubs, but to conservatories, music publishers, music periodicals, stamp clubs and all other organizations or personages who may be interested. These will be requested to endorse the petition by voting directly to the Postmaster General.

Dramatic Club Makes Plans For Festival

"The Lights," a play from American drama.

The state contest plays to be presented at Chapel Hill in April will be given on the stage of the auditorium late in April. The college production play will be contested with a play offered by St. Mary's college in the dramatic festival at Chapel Hill.

The casts for the two plays to be presented in the dramatic festival are: The Man In The Bowler Hat: John, Howard Richardson; Mary, Golda Tillery; Hero, Ernest Harrill; Heroine, Jean Sprinkle; Villain, G. G. Morgan; Bad Man, Robert Beam; and Man in the Bowler Hat, William Hill.

Top Hats and Tenements: Mr. Gershbane, G. G. Morgan; Mrs. Gershbane, Jessie Indorf; Pearl Gershbane, Doris Johnson; and Sir Walter Raleigh, Howard Richardson.

B.S.U. Officers For Next Year Chosen

B. S. U. officers. Duties of these officers are many and of various influences. Meetings are held twice monthly and in these are discussed means of propagating the religious activities on the campus.

The new officers elected were as follows: Mary Lee Ernest succeeds Thomas Fulk as President; Warren Taylor takes over Ethel Hill's position as vice-president; Pearl Chatham becomes corresponding secretary; and Albertina Hare recording secretary; G. G. Morgan is the new B. S. U. Director succeeding John Powell; his assistant will be Lucille Smith, Judith Eller's successor; Frances Snelson will become secretary of B. S. U. in Elsie Baker's place. The new Sunday School Superintendent will be Harold O'Quinn with Wilson Glass as his assistant and Juanita Waugh as secretary. Harry Hand replaces Richard Goodson as the president of the college church with Sarah Brunson as secretary and Christine Browning as treasurer. The representatives of the Town, Volunteer Band, and Ministerial Conference are Enoch Morgan, Judy Wynne, and Arthur Dixon respectively.

The 28th of April has been set as the date when the new council members will be installed into their offices and begin active work.

Summer School Plans Announced Recently To College Students

Among the advantages of attending this summer session are the saving in both time and money. One may complete in three summers about the same amount of work usually completed in one college year. The total expenses for three summer sessions is very much less than that of a regular college term.

weekend from the Kingsport Kingskraft Company. It far surpassed the greatest expectations of the staff members. For the first time in the history of the school the Laurel will have a cover design which is original. Other Laurels have had cover designs which were not original with the staff. Several new features have been introduced into this year's book. The sponsor pages have been arranged differently from the Laurels of years gone by. The 1936 book will have more snapshots than any other book which has ever been put out in the past.

The services of an artist have been secured by the staff and the annual will have numerous illustrations throughout. This is expected to be one of the most popular features of the entire book.

The 1936 Laurel will be off the press for the students around the first of May as was the case last year. This should give students ample time in which to secure all the autographs which they may desire.

Orders for Laurels are still being taken and anyone interested should communicate with some member of the staff relative to this.
